IT MUST BE SOME SORT OF RECORD

Would you believe 48 consecutive male children in one family in the past 138 years? Mrs. Sandy Pitofsky cradles her newborn son Nicholas at Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York. Her husband holds baby pictures of the couple's three other sons. Nicholas is the 48th consecutive male born in the family, through several generations. And his birth leaves still unclaimed a $6,000 U.S. Savings Bond being held by his grandfather, Louis Pitofsky, who's waiting for a granddaughter. (AP Wirephoto)

Australian Press Concerned Over Opposition Weakness

CANBERRA (Reuters) — Australian newspapers have expressed non-partisan concern over the weakness of the country's parliamentary opposition following the runaway victory of Prime Minister Harold Holt's government in Saturday's federal election. The Liberal-Country party coalition, in power since 1949, routed the Opposition Labor party led by Arthur Calwell in an election in which the government was expected to lose seats. Popular vote figures were unavailable pending final count which may not be known for several days. But the government appeared assured of at least 76 of the 134 seats in the House of Representatives. In the old house it had 71. Labor's tally appeared to have dropped to a minimum of 41 from 52, with the possibility that it might pick up one or more of the four or five seats still considered doubtful. MUST REBUILD. Newspapers agreed the Labor party, which campaigned on a promise to withdraw Australia's 4,900 troops from Viet Nam, now must reconstruct itself from the ground up. The Canberra Times said the party has failed the country too often during the last 17 years. The Sunday Telegraph, a strong government supporter, said the Liberal-Country party coalition, has grown complacent, arrogant and indifferent to public opinion. Let us say very plainly that if a suitable and realistic alternative party had been offering, it (the Possible compromise choices, however, were seen in Fred Daly, 50, and Frank Cream, 50. Holt's coalition won about 49.4 per cent of the popular vote counted so far, compared with 46 in the last general election three years ago. Labor's share slumped to 49.9 per cent from 45.5.

POPULARITY ENDS SHOW GLASGOW (CP) — A trade-boasting "Danish week" planned to take place in Scotland at the end of November had to be cancelled because the response from Scandinavian firms was too great. So many companies wanted to participate that the organisers couldn't fit them all in.

SAVE 25% EATON'S SHADDON HALL DELUXE Automatic ELECTRIC BLANKETS

There's hardly a night from October to June when you won't be glad of the pampering, warmth-without-weight comfort of a Shaddon Hall deluxe electric blanket. Just set the automatic heat control for the degree of warmth you prefer for sleeping, and it will maintain that steady, restful even temperature until you switch it off. This Deluxe blanket is a blend of rayon/acrylic and cotton, with a matching 6" nylon binding, and a "Fibri-bond" finish that protects it from pulling, keeps it new looking longer. Completely washable, moth-resistant and non-allergenic, can be converted into fitted style with snap fasteners at foot of blanket. Another tidy feature . . . hanger hooks for the thermostatic control that can be hung on the headboard or side rails. Order now for all the beds in your home . . . you can save 25% order for Christmas giving, too! Attractively boxed.
