Dr. Croteau Cites Early Rustico Bank In Latest Booklet

Dr. John T. Croteau of the Department of Economics of the Catholic University of America, and formerly Professor of Economics and Sociology at Prince of Wales College and St. Dunstan's University, and managing director of the P.E.I. Credit League, has published another interesting booklet on the co-operative system of banks.

Dr. Croteau has chosen the "Caisse Populaire Desjardins" of Quebec as his subject, and tells fully of the origin of this particular institution. The booklet tells that Desjardins was particularly affected by a story which he heard delivered in the House of Commons by a member from Prince Edward Island. It was an account of the Bank of Rustico, founded in 1862 by a priest from France who had come to take charge of a country parish of poor Acadian farmers. This bank had operated successfully for 30 years until in 1892 it was forced to dissolve in order to comply with the new Canadian banking laws. This was one of the earliest people's banks in North America and was a major factor in re-establishing the Acadian farmers on the land. This bank seems to have impressed Desjardins with the possibilities of action in the field of people's banks.

Referring to the Desjardins institution, Dr. Croteau states that since 1895 the membership has increased from 50,000 to 525,000, and the assets from $10,000,000 to $197,000,000.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dearest daughter and sister, Shirley M. Gallant, Mayfield, who departed this life on Jan. 11, 1950.

You are always on our mind, dear No matter what we do All the time within our heart There is a thought of you.

Never for a moment Are you very far away Absent yet near you seem But nearer every day.

You left us beautiful memories Often silent tears But you will always be with us As we journey through the years.

Resting where shadows fall, In perfect peace you wait us all God will link our broken chain As one by one we meet again.

Lovingly remembered by Mom, Dad, Sisters and Brothers. May her soul rest in Peace.

Fashion Says Its "The Good Look" For Spring Clothes

By DOROTHY ROE NEW YORK, Jan. 10—(AP)—This spring it's the "good look." So says Christian Dior, still trying to live down his reputation as father of the late and unlamented "new look." Pursuing his theme, Dior adopts "simplicity" as his keynote, presents a slim silhouette innocent of such trade-marks as padded hips and stiffened underskirts. He retains the tiny, belted waist for which he is famous, and manages a rounded neckline on suit jackets by the expedient of curved pockets and such. Jackets are slightly longer than those of last season with narrow collar and lapels or none at all. Skirts are narrow, with walking ease gained through low-placed pleats at side or back.

In dresses, he likes width at the top achieved through wide reverse slashing from shoulder to waist. The floor-length evening gown of the skirt that is short in front, dipped in back, wins over the short formal gown this season, although Dior shows both.

Nettie Rosenstein goes in for all-over stretched pleats and tucks in her current collection, showing both dresses and suits distinguished by this surface treatment. A tailored suit in charcoal grey, for instance, has a neat jacket with shirt collar and nipped waist, with a slim skirt stretched from waist to hem in narrow tucks.

The designer, noted for popularizing the "little black dress" as an American uniform, introduces balloon sleeves on a number of dresses in crisp fabrics such as taffeta or organza. These are huge, puffed elbow-length sleeves adjusted by an elastic drawstring.

She likes the slim, pruned silhouette in suits and daytime clothes, goes in for bouffant skirts for cocktail and evening wear.

Marketing Board Potato Bulletin

The Prince Edward Island Potato Marketing Board announces that it will in future issue weekly bulletins covering the marketing situation. The position as of yesterday is as follows. Movement: The movement of the past week has been comparatively heavy in fact from the period Jan. 1 to Jan. 9 a total of 368 cars have left the province. Total movement to date is 2652 carloads for the 1950 crop.

Prices: There has been a slight strengthening of prices during the past week. Minimum prices as fixed by the Marketing Board have been paid and in some cases exceeded. Table stock is now worth 50 cents per 75 lb. bag delivered while seed ranges from 40 to 45 cents depending upon the variety.

Trend: It is impossible at the moment to foresee any great strengthening of prices. The domestic movement has not been heavy as the bulk of stock is moving for export to Southern United States ports via Halifax and Saint John. This latter movement will continue at a heavy level for the next few weeks.

Supply of Cars: The railway has up until yesterday been able to supply cars on request and although its surplus on hand is not large, it is prepared to sustain a movement of 40 to 50 cars daily.

Possibility of Government Support: As indicated in press releases during the past week, the Dominion Government has promised a form of assistance to the potato industry this year but indicating that this may only assist the farmer to a very limited extent. As the stock must be marketed farmers would be well advised therefore to keep potatoes moving at present prices rather than wait for such assistance.

Eleventh-Hour Moves To Save Guay From Death

(By William Stewart) QUEBEC, Jan. 10—(CP)—Eleventh-hour moves were made today to keep J. Albert Guay from death on the scaffold Friday.

The little 32-year-old Quebec jeweler is due to be hanged at Bordeaux Jail in Montreal for a time-bomb plot that wrecked an airliner and killed 23 persons. Guay's lawyers, Gerard Levesque and Bertrand Marcotte, appeared before Justice Minister Garson in Ottawa to plead for a stay of execution and a new trial for the jeweler.

Another petition for postponement of the hanging, originating unexpectedly, was taken under consideration here by Mr. Justice Albert Sevigny, Chief Judge of the Province's Superior Court.

Mr. Garson promised a decision "as soon as possible" on the plea by Guay's lawyers. Mr. Justice Sevigny, 70-year-old judge who conducted Guay's trial early last year, said he would rule on the petition before him "tomorrow at the latest."

The Quebec petition came from Irene Simard, lawyer for Mrs. Arthur Pitre, 42-year-old alleged Guay accomplice, due to go on trial for murder Feb. 20.

It was opposed by Solicitor General Antoine Rivard, who 48 hours earlier successfully opposed a similar petition presented to Mr. Justice Sevigny by Guay's representatives. He said: "Today we have one who collaborated with Guay coming to his rescue."

Mr. Simard declared Mrs. Pitre knew nothing of the petition, drawn up because he wanted to question Guay and probably would need Guay's testimony at Mrs. Pitre's trial.

Mr. Rivard said the first three paragraphs of Mr. Simard's petition were the same as the first three paragraphs of a petition submitted by Guay's lawyers and which Mr. Justice Sevigny ruled out yesterday.

"I wish to underline this coincidence," said the Solicitor General. He said there was time for Mr. Simard to question Guay at Bordeaux Jail before the scheduled hanging and added that public opinion wished a demonstration that "in Quebec justice is carried out."

Guay was convicted March 14 last year, on the specific charge of killing his 28-year-old wife, one of the 23 who died in the Canadian Pacific Airline crash at Sault au Cochon, Sept. 9, 1949.
