[FOR THE EXAMINER.]

IXION.

IXION — A Heathen, the father of the Centaurs, half man, half beast. He, for having slandered Juno, was bound to a wheel perpetually revolving over a river of fire in the Inferno.

Poor Ixion, doom'd for lyin' to the wheel stouter than steel, robed in fire, flaming dire, tailing never, rotary ever, Ixion bound; round and round always flying, ever frying, never dying, still is turning, still is burning, toasting, roasting, unabsolving, still revolving on the wheel diurnal turned by the Infernal, o'er the river's flashing quivers, fiery mazes, cracking blazes, tartarean flow in the Inferno. Poor Ixion—lyin' slanderer, Ixion, as witness, sir, Yours, JUPITER.

DR. LIVINGSTONE.—Letters received from on board Her Majesty's ship "Highflyer," now stationed near Zanzibar, state that the Shiek of Kielwa had informed the officers that Dr. Livingstone was still alive, although many of his followers had been killed in a fight with the natives.—Halifax Church Monitor.

A SINGULAR STORY.—The real circumstances of the death of that charming and accomplished Princess, the one bright ray of sunshine amid the gloom which hangs over the Austrian Court, have been kept secret from the public, but are well known to the initiated. It seems that the poor Princess, who had accepted the sacrifice which had been demanded of her, and consented to serve as a holocaust to appease the god of discord by uniting herself in marriage with Prince Humbert, of Savoy, had been told that the Prince's passion for smoking would render all communionship with him impossible unless she possessed the same fondness for the odour of tobacco as the Duchess de Valency, who insisted on sitting with her hair combed down in her husband's smoking room so that her ringlets might be impregnated with the fragrance. Now, it so happened that the Princess had a peculiar objection to this very odour, and had been advised, as the only means of combating it, to learn to smoke the mild cigars used by the ladies of Havana. Her apprenticeship had just begun, but her father, the Archduke Albert, having expressed his entire dislike of the unfeminine pastime, the practice was carried on in secret. The day of the fatal event, which filled all Vienna with sorrow and dismay, the Princess was standing at an open window of the Palace, endeavouring to overcome her dislike of the cigar by puffing away with determined vigour, when suddenly her father appearing below the balcony, and looking up to salute her as he passed, she flung the burning end of the cigar over her shoulder lest he should perceive it, and bent low down to return his salute. The cigar had fallen among the flounces of her muslin dress; the movement had created a current of air, and in an instant her dress was in flames. Court logic, cians, who love to flatter their own prejudices by seeking a reasonable foundation for them, have fostered the superstitious feeling in the mind of the Empress Elizabeth with regard to the Emperor Napoleon by proving that here, again, Fate has been at work with the same intention as when he presided at Solferino and Magenta, for had not Victor Emmanuel been established King of Italy by the Emperor Napoleon, there had been no liklehood of an alliance with Prince Humbert; consequently no need to practice the art of smoking to overcome the wholesome prejudice experienced against it, and consequently the dreadful catastrophe would not have happened.—Paris Correspondence of the Court Journal.

The report of the Irish Commissioners of National Education for the last year shows an increase in the schools compared with 1865, the numbers being 6,372 and 6,453 respectively, while the number of scholars has decreased from 922,084 to 910,819. This decrease is ascribed to emigration, though the commissioners allude to "other causes in 1866 calculated to affect the attendance." One model and 51 ordinary school houses are being erected, and 12 vested schools were opened during the year. On the other hand 75 struck off the roll. The commissioners received 226 applications for grants to new schools, of which they complied with 159. Thirty-four of the patrons or managers of these new schools were Protestants, 107 Roman Catholics, 12 Presbyterians, and 6 of other denominations. There are 171,279 Protestant pupils on the rolls, and of these 152,412, or 89 per cent. attend mixed schools.

THE PRINCESS OF WALES—A SAD STATEMENT IF TRUE.—The poor Princess of Wales, after months of torturing confinement without the possibility of exercise, has been ordered to the baths of Germany, as a last resort. It is to be feared that this most delicate and beautiful Princess has been crippled for life. She was too young, too fragile for the duties of her exalted station, and the burdens of maternity. Three children in less than three years exhausted her vitality, and brought on a rheumatic fever, which, scientifically treated by the best surgical skill in England, has resulted in a lameness from which she may never recover. It is a sad case. Never was beautiful Princess received more triumphantly than this one on her marriage with the Prince of Wales. Never was the opening career of a future monarch and his bride entered upon more joyously. Now the prospect is clouded. The Prince of Wales has not the qualities which would enable him to take his place at the head of the youthful aristocracy of England. The Queen may live for forty years, and there is no seeming likelihood either of her assuming the social position a Sovereign is expected to fill or of abdicating the crown. The prospect of holding the awkward position of heir apparent during the long period of the probable life of her Majesty is not an enviable one. To go through life in a series of hurras, and National Anthems a thousand times repeated, replying to toasts of Lord Mayors, laying corner stones, presiding at charity dinners, and having the duties and annoyances of royalty without its emoluments or its possible glories—all this is not a career of a very heroic or enjoyable character. A clerkship in a government office at £300 a year seems a more desirable situation.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT AT ESQUIMALT.

DEATH OF JOHN T. PIDWELL.

Last evening, just as the steamship Idaho for San Francisco had cast off her lines, a lamentable accident occurred to an old and respected citizen. It appears that Messrs. Bushby, Maunsell and Jones, left Victoria in a two-horse buggy for the steamer, shortly before six o'clock, with Government despatches, which it was important should go forward yesterday. The hour for the departure of the steamer having arrived, the captain was asked to delay until the despatches should reach Esquimalt. After some persuasion he consented to remain five minutes beyond the time fixed for his departure, and Mr. John T. Pidwell, who was mounted on a fleet horse, dashed spurs into the animal's side, and darted off towards the road with the express design of meeting the buggy and "hurrying it along." The wind was blowing fresh from the south, raising a cloud of dust in the street, and rendering it difficult to discern objects for any great distance. Just as Mr. Pidwell had reached the Esquimalt Road at the point where it intersects with the main street of Esquimalt, the buggy with the despatches turned the corner. The driver of the buggy—Mr W. G. Bowman—having his back toward the wind, and his vision consequently unobstructed, turned his horse to the side of the road to avoid coming in contact with Mr. Pidwell, who having one hand raised to keep his hat from blowing off was unable to see the danger, and was riding at full speed directly upon him; but the precaution was of no avail. The side of Mr. Pidwell's horse struck the pole of Mr. Bowman's carriage with great violence, breaking the pole and shattering the front part of the carriage. The horse fell, and poor Mr Pidwell was thrown out of the saddle with great violence, and his head, coming in contact with one of the front wheels of the carriage, was fractured in a most shocking manner. Mr. Bowman, who acted with great presence of mind throughout, leaped from his carriage and succeeded in preventing his own horses from running away, and thereby saved his passengers from at least serious injury. Mr. Bowman escaped with a few bruises. The unfortunate gentleman was rescued from the wreck and carried into Mr. John T. Howard's place, where he received immediate attention from Drs. Ash, Haggin, and Trimble, but he never spoke after the accident, and after breathing gently for about an hour, he passed quietly away, just as his afflicted wife, who had been summoned from the city, reached his bedside. Mr. Pidwell, in his dying moments, received every attention at the hands of his medical attendants, and at those of Mr. and Mrs. Howard, Mr. Fisher, Mr. Williams, and other Esquimalters, to all of whom the family feel under deep obligations. Governor Seymour witnessed the accident, and Mr. Maunsell, at His Excellency's request, remained on the spot during the evening and accompanied the remains to town. A. F. Pemberton, Esquire, Coroner, with great promptitude, held an inquest over the body in the evening. Mr. F. Williams was chosen foreman of the jury, and the following evidence was adduced:—

JOHN A. JONES, sworn.—At or about 16 minutes after six o'clock this evening I was, in company with Mr. Bushby, driving in a buggy from Victoria to Esquimalt; on turning the corner of the road opposite Mr. Fisher's house in Esquimalt, the deceased, John Trevasso Pidwell, who was on horseback, came in contact with the buggy, which caused deceased to be thrown from his horse; Mr. Bowman was driving about the middle of the road, which was level; deceased was riding very fast; there was sufficient room for deceased to pass the buggy; I am of opinion deceased could not see the buggy coming towards him; deceased was thrown underneath the horses attached to the buggy; I cannot say if the horses trod on deceased; Mr. Bowman was driving steadily and there was no want of caution on his part.

After hearing the evidence, the jury immediately returned a verdict of "accidental death."

Mr. Pidwell, who came to this colony early in 1858, was a native of Cornwall, England, and aged about 54 years. He was a member of the late Island House of Assembly, was for some time Superintendent of Roads of Vancouver Island, and was Superintendent for the Victoria Road Commission at the time of his death. He was a man of great energy and ability, and his loss to the community will be severely felt. He leaves a widow and a large family of children, most of whom are provided for, to mourn his awfully sudden demise.

A RELIABLE REMEDY, for expelling worms so common with young children, will be found in Brown's "Vermifuge Comfits," or Worm Lozenges, which are pleasant to the taste; and no child will refuse to take them. The combination of ingredients used in making the "Comfits" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety. [2w sep 9

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Urgent Necessity.—These preparations afford the best and cheapest means of removing all ordinary surgical and medical maladies both in this country and in its colonies. In the latter the Ointment and Pills are invaluable, for none but the careless would be without an antidote to the accidental injuries and the many ailments to which the settler must be, more or less, exposed when at a distance from all professional help. Sprains, cuts, burns, skin diseases, ulcers, abscesses, and varicose veins are readily cured by Holloway's remedies. Varicose veins, bad legs, and a host of other evils are immediately relieved and gradually cured by the use of these healing and purifying remedies, which their moderate price and universal diffusion happily place within every invalid's reach.

DESERVING OF CONFIDENCE.—There is no article which so richly deserves the entire confidence of the community as "Brown's Bronchial Troches" The Troches have received flattering commendations from the most celebrated Clergymen, Lawyers, and Public Speakers, who speak from personal experience. Those suffering from Asthmatic and Bronchial Diseases, Coughs and Colds, should try the Troches.

AN EFFECTUAL WORM MEDICINE.

Brown's Vermifuge Comfits,

OR WORM LOZENGES. Much sickness undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

Children having worms require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often causes prolonged sickness.

Symptoms of worms in children are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation, which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making BROWN'S "VERMIFUGE COMFITS" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

IN CHANCERY.

Re Mark Nathaniel Wright, George Dudley Wright, Margaret Theododia Wright, Matilda Ann Wright, Martha Maria Wright, and Isabel Christiana Wright, Infants, by Betsy M. Wright, their Guardian.

IN pursuance of a Decretal Order, made by His Honor the Master of the Rolls, in this cause, bearing date the 20th day of August last, there will be sold by PUBLIC AUCTION, on the Premises, at Dunk River, in Prince County, in this Island, on WEDNESDAY, the sixth day of NOVEMBER next, at the hour of 12 o'clock, noon, all that valuable Freehold Farm, or tract of Land, situate on Township No 26, containing 125 acres, a little more or less, with the Messuage, Mills, Buildings and appurtenances to the same belonging, of which George M. Wright, the father of the above named infants, lately died seized and possessed.

The Farm and Premises above mentioned are situated on the Main Road, between Somerset (formerly South-west settlement) and Freetown, Bedeque; having a frontage of 125 chains on the said Road, and being 10 chains in breadth, a little more or less.

The land is of superior quality, about sixty acres of which are cleared and in a good state for cultivation, the residue being covered with a fine growth of hard and soft wood. The principal Dwelling House, a 1½ storey building, is 36 by 28 feet, with a kitchen in the rear 25 by 18 feet; contiguous to which are Wood House, Carriage House, Stables, Workshop and Barn, the latter 45 by 30 feet. The Mills, comprising a very superior Grist Mill (with 3 pairs runners), Shingle, Saw and Carding Mills, are propelled by a powerful stream; and their situation for business purposes is considered to be unequalled in the Island. The property will be offered in three separate lots or sections. One lot comprising the Mills, with a Cottage 20 by 18 feet, and a Workshop 18 by 15 feet, for the use of a Miller, with 25 acres of Land attached. The second lot will comprise the Farm proper, consisting of about 75 acres, with the Dwelling House and other Buildings above described; and the remaining 25 acres, being the northern section of the tract, and all cleared, will form the third lot.

Should intending purchasers prefer it, the whole property will be sold in one Lot.

TERMS—Ten per cent. of the purchase money to be paid down at the time of sale, and the residue of one-third of the purchase money, 23⅓ per cent. upon the execution of the Deeds. The remaining two-thirds to be secured by Mortgage on the premises, in manner more definitely to be expressed in the conditions of Sale.
