DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOSEPH McLELLAN

The death of Mrs. Joseph D. McLellan, (nee Ida Murray), occurred July 9, at her home in Cardigan after a few weeks illness.

The late Mrs. McLellan was born 70 years ago in Bedeque, the daughter of the late John Murray and Annie Hammill, but lived most of her single life in Summerside. In 1934 she married Joseph D. McLellan, who predeceased her last November.

Her cheerful disposition and ability to look on the bright side of life won for her many friends who sincerely regret her passing. She was a faithful member of the Roman Catholic Church and during her last illness was frequently visited by her pastor, Rev. Harold Croken, who also administered to her the last Sacrament of the church. Rev. Phalen McKenna also brought spiritual comfort to her in the closing hours of her life.

An only sister, Lucy, Mrs. Frank McDonald, California, predeceased her three years ago.

The funeral, which was largely attended was held July 11 from her home to All Saints' Church, Cardigan. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by her pastor, Rev. Harold Croken, assisted by Rev. Urban Gillis. Rev. Fr. Gallant was present in the sanctuary.

Pallbearers were Messrs. George Gallant, Raymond Laughlin, George Wilson, John Shepherd, John Sullivan, William Brothers and John McIntyre. —S
