

O'Leary And Vicinity

Mrs. Smith of Fredericton, N.B., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Graham, West Devon, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. MacWilliams returned to their home in O'Leary on Thursday night Aug. 30th after an enjoyable vacation in the United States.

Mrs. (Rev.) J. J. Sidey and daughter Isabel of Kingston, N.S. have been visitors to Howlan and district. In Howlan they called upon Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dignan.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. McMahon and family of the Alberton-O'Leary church returned to their rectory at Alberton after an enjoyable holiday in Huntsville, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McConnell (nee Marion Moreshead) of Moncton were visitors to West Devon over the Labor Day weekend, the guests of Mrs. McConnell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moreshead.

Miss Shirley Grigg and Frances Oliver who are employed in Moncton, N.B. spent the Labor Day weekend at their homes in West Devon the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grigg and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Culleton returned to their home in West Devon on Saturday, Sept. 1st, after attending "The Church of God" Bible School in Pennsylvania, U.S.A. The young couple are ardent workers in the West Devon Church of God.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman MacWilliams of the Glenwood district moved their home into O'Leary the past week and are located on the lot where Mr. Ben Moreshead formerly lived. Mr. and Mrs. MacWilliams are receiving a very cordial welcome to O'Leary.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaman Bell (nee Miss Joyce MacLeod) of Summerside, and Miss Elaine MacLeod of Summerside, who is employed with the Summerside Telephone Exchange, spent the Labor Day weekend in Brae, the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. MacLeod.

Rev. A. F. Baker and Mrs. Baker who have been stationed at Newport Landing, N.S. were visitors to O'Leary and district on Friday, Aug. 31st. Rev. Mr. Baker is a former minister of the O'Leary Pastoral Charge of the United Church of Canada and was stationed here from 1920 to 1937. They have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. MacAulay at Baddeck, N.S.

Douglas Hardy of the R. C. A. F. stationed at Goose Bay, Labrador, is spending his furlough at his home in Montrose, the guest of his parents. He was visiting O'Leary on Saturday night, Sept. 1st, and his many friends were delighted to see him again. Prior to enlistment, he conducted a radio repair shop in O'Leary and was the very successful Scout Master of the First Troop of O'Leary Boy Scouts.

On Monday, Sept. 3rd, special Evangelical services commenced at the O'Leary Church of the Nazarene, conducted by Rev. R. J. Dixon, M.A., D.D. of Malden, Mass. This well-known Evangelist travels and works in the United States, Canada, New Zealand, Australia, Tasmania, Tahiti, Fiji and Hawaii. He is a graduate of the University of Southern California, eighteen years a pastor, and ten years professor of philosophy.

There was standing room only at the afternoon service at Elmsdale United Church on Sunday, Sept. 2nd as the Evangelist Rev. Elmer Crockett of Worthington, Minnesota concluded his special week of evangelistical services. The Minister, Rev. J. M. Sheen presided and a special solo was sung by Fred Macmillan. Beginning Sept. 3rd Rev. Mr. Crockett conducted a week series of services at the Bloomfield United Church.

Rev. and Mrs. Ward and infant daughter of Florida have arrived in West Devon where Rev. Mr. Ward is the minister of the local Church of God. They are a young couple and this is their first regular pastorate. They are receiving a welcome to the community. This correspondent called upon them and welcomed them and was told by Mrs. Ward they are looking forward to the winter as snow is unknown to them. Their predecessors, Rev. Herbert and Mrs. Hackenley are now serving in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward MacAuland returned to their home in Bloomfield on Thursday after an enjoyable trip to Lunenburg and Yarmouth, N.S.

Rev. C. O. Howlett has returned to his home in O'Leary after attending the P.E.I. Baptist Association meetings in Murray Harbour, P. E. I.

The Evening Auxiliary of O'Leary United Church met for their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Woodside in Knutsford. There was a fine attendance and an interesting program was carried out.

Word has been received by Mrs. William Bernard, O'Leary, that her uncle Dr. Donald McLaughlin, one of the early physicians of O'Leary, passed away in Calgary on Sunday, Sept. 9th. He was in his nineties and is the last of his family.

Miss Olive Sparling of Toronto, Dominion Board secretary for younger groups in the United Church, will address a special meeting of all Sunday School children, Mission Circle members and Canadian Girls in Training at the O'Leary United Church on Sunday morning Sept. 9th at 10 a.m. She is making one other appearance in West Prince and will speak on the Montrose pastoral charge. On Saturday Sept. 8th she will address a special meeting of the C. G. I. T. at Kensington.

Special anniversary services will be held in the Brae United Church on Sunday, Sept. 9th at 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. at which the guest speaker will be the Rev. W. F. Munro M.A., P.D. of Sackville, N.B., editor of "The United Churchman" in the Atlantic Provinces. There will be special music. Rev. Mr. Munro is a talented and forceful speaker. Last year he was the Anniversary speaker at the Cape Wolfe United Church and the year before at the Alberton United Church preaching to packed churches.

Mount Allison University in Sackville, N.B. has offered a $150 scholarship to Miss Margaret Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ellis of O'Leary who is a very talented artist and painter and has won a number of prizes at Exhibitions and in competitions with her paintings. She is a graduate of O'Leary High School and has been attending Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown. Miss Ellis has told this correspondent that she will not be able to accept this scholarship for this year at least, but is hoping to go back to P.W.C. and take the Teacher Training Course.

After giving splendid service for many years with Jelly's Dept. Store in O'Leary, where he was in charge of the Egg Grading Station and Poultry Dept., Alfred Dignan of O'Leary left on Labor Day for Charlottetown where he has accepted a similar position with the Charlottetown Co-Op. His many friends wish him every success in his new position. He will be greatly missed in O'Leary. He was a faithful member of the O'Leary United Church Choir. Mrs. Dignan and family will follow later. He is a brother of Rev. Leslie A. Dignan of Port Hill Anglican Church. His successor at Jelly's Department Store will be Wilfred Dennis of O'Leary.

On Monday night Sept. 3rd special Evangelical services began at the Bloomfield United Church with the Evangelist, Rev. Elmer Crockett of Worthington, Minnesota, in charge. Rev. Mr. Crockett is a former Island boy. His parents lived in Elmsdale and he has had outstanding success as an Evangelist in the U.S. and Canada. Two weeks ago he conducted one week of special services in the Montrose United Church which was packed to the very doors every night and last week it was the same story at the Elmsdale United Church. Extra seating had to be provided to seat the large number who came to hear the gospel preached by this well known young evangelist. The Minister of the Bloomfield United Church, Rev. W.G. Dickson and his officials are looking forward to

After a pleasant six week vacation, Mr. Lester Gavin and baby daughter have returned to their home in Montreal, P.Q. Mrs. Gavin is visiting her mother Mrs. Wilfred Brodrick of Sea Cow Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fraser have rented the beautiful home of Mrs. George Driscoll on Main Street, Tignish, and have now taken up residence there. Mr. Fraser is the C.N.R. agent at Tignish.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Harper, Somerville, Mass. have come to Tignish for their annual vacation and are spending it with Mr. Harper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Harper, and Mrs. Harper's brother, a week of splendid services in their beautiful little church at Bloomfield.

Miss Shirley Vincent, daughter of Rev. J. Alton and Mrs. Vincent, West Devon, was seriously injured in a motor accident on Sunday, August 26th, on the road between Moncton, where the young lady is employed, and Shediac. Details are meagre but Miss Vincent suffered a collapsed lung and required 24 stitches. She is a patient in the Moncton City Hospital and is resting as well as can be expected. Her mother left on Saturday, Sept. 1st for the Hub City. Miss Vincent is only seventeen years of age. She is a graduate of Charlottetown Business College and took an active interest in the West Devon United Church Young People's Union, serving for one year as its president. Her many friends in West Devon and at Wellington where Rev. Mr. Vincent recently served as the Minister of the United Church there, all wish her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Vincent is expected back in West Devon this week.

Rev. Dr. R. J. Dixon of Malden, Mass., is continuing his final week of Evangelical meetings in the O'Leary Church of the Nazarene. The local pastor, Mr. Owen Underwood, is presiding. Dr. Dixon is a well known evangelist and has travelled widely in Australia, New Zealand, Fiji Islands, and the U.S. and Canada.

On Sunday, Sept. 9th, Mr. William Lockhart of Coleman celebrated his seventy-ninth birthday. A beautiful supper was served. There were two birthday cakes: one of them was baked by his thirteen-year-old granddaughter, Fern Coughlin. The guest of honor received gifts and good wishes from his loved ones and friends who wish this grand old gentleman, many more happy birthdays. The following members of his family were present: Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacDougal, Mrs. Oliver Smeaton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coughlin, and Mr. and Mrs. William Coughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Harper and family have taken up residence in Tignish.

Mrs. Joseph Richard, Tignish, is quite ill at her home. Her friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Annette Morrissey, R.N., of Seattle, Washington, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Morrissey, Tignish.

Friends of Mrs. Camille Chaisson, Tignish, are sorry to hear she is ill and a patient in Western Hospital, Alberton.

Mr. Gerald Handrahan and Mr. and Mrs. Max McInnis, Tignish, spent Wednesday of last week in Charlottetown on business.

Mrs. William Ciohossev, Nail Pond, was a recent visitor to Alberton, guest of her sister Mrs. E. J. McCue and Mr. McCue.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bernard Tignish have purchased a lot of land from Mr. John Perry and are having a dwelling house erected.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arsenault, St. Louis, spent a recent weekend in Tignish, guests of their daughter Mrs. Raymond Richard and Mr. Richard.

Miss Kathleen MacDonald, P.N. of Toronto, Ontario, has arrived in Tignish to spend four weeks vacation with her mother, Mrs. A. J. MacDonald.

Mr. Leo Arsenault, manager of the St. Louis Co-operative Store, spent a recent week-end in Tignish, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Buote.

Mr. Frank Harner and Mrs. Emma Kinch, Halifax, came to Tignish recently to attend the funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. Douglas McIntyre.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Aylward, Rumford, Maine, and Miss Bette Aylward, Somerville, Mass., were recent guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. William Aylward, Skinner's Pond.

An epidemic of measles has hit this community. The Anelo-Tignish school is closed, as only two pupils out of the whole class were able to attend. The teacher is Mrs. Wade Harper.

Mrs. John McInnis, Tignish, is recovering from her recent illness. Mrs. McInnis suffered a severe heart attack and is being nursed back to health by her daughter, Mrs. Claude LeClair.

Mrs. John R. Gavin and daughter Miss Eleanor and Miss Maurine, have again opened their Tignish home, after a visit of six weeks with members of their family in Montreal, P.Q.

Going from Tignish to Charlottetown to attend Commercial College for the coming year are Misses Rose Marie Bernard, Nail Pond, Noreen Gallant, Skinner's Pond, and Joan Shea, Tignish.

After a pleasant six week vacation, Mr. Lester Gavin and baby daughter have returned to their home in Montreal, P.Q. Mrs. Gavin is visiting her mother Mrs. Wilfred Brodrick of Sea Cow Pond.

Earl Handrahan, Christopher's Cross, Rodney McInnis, Tignish, and Everett Harper, Tignish Shore, have gone to Charlottetown to attend classes in St. Dunstan's University. They all graduated from Our Lady of the Angels High School in June.

Friends of Mrs. J. A. Bernard are happy to see her up and around again after a period of illness. Mrs. Bernard was for a time a patient in Western Hospital, Alberton, and then spent a period of convalescing at her home in Tignish.

Mrs. Lloyd Foley and her two young sons, Leonard and Edward, motored from New Jersey and spent two weeks visiting Mrs. Foley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Burke, Tignish. They left on return to their home on Wednesday, September 5th.

To Mr. E. J. McTague, Tignish, goes the sympathy of the community in the sudden passing of his wife. Mrs. McTague's funeral was held on Wednesday morning, Sept. 5th, to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish. Burial was in the church cemetery.

The funeral of the late John DesRoches of Nail Pond was held from his home on Friday morning, September 7th, to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Reverend J. A. MacDonald, P.P., assisted by the parish choir.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crounce, who spent the past four weeks with relatives and friends in Tignish and Elmsdale, left by automobile recently for their home in Belmont, Mass. While they were in Tignish, they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ready, Christopher's Cross.

Miss Coleen McCarthy, Tignish, has gone to Charlottetown and entered City Hospital to take up

Tignish

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Harper and family have taken up residence in Tignish.

Mrs. Joseph Richard, Tignish, is quite ill at her home. Her friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Annette Morrissey, R.N., of Seattle, Washington, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Morrissey, Tignish.

Friends of Mrs. Camille Chaisson, Tignish, are sorry to hear she is ill and a patient in Western Hospital, Alberton.

Mr. Gerald Handrahan and Mr. and Mrs. Max McInnis, Tignish, spent Wednesday of last week in Charlottetown on business.

Mrs. William Ciohossev, Nail Pond, was a recent visitor to Alberton, guest of her sister Mrs. E. J. McCue and Mr. McCue.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bernard Tignish have purchased a lot of land from Mr. John Perry and are having a dwelling house erected.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arsenault, St. Louis, spent a recent weekend in Tignish, guests of their daughter Mrs. Raymond Richard and Mr. Richard.

Miss Kathleen MacDonald, P.N. of Toronto, Ontario, has arrived in Tignish to spend four weeks vacation with her mother, Mrs. A. J. MacDonald.

Mr. Leo Arsenault, manager of the St. Louis Co-operative Store, spent a recent week-end in Tignish, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Buote.

Mr. Frank Harner and Mrs. Emma Kinch, Halifax, came to Tignish recently to attend the funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. Douglas McIntyre.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Aylward, Rumford, Maine, and Miss Bette Aylward, Somerville, Mass., were recent guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. William Aylward, Skinner's Pond.

An epidemic of measles has hit this community. The Anelo-Tignish school is closed, as only two pupils out of the whole class were able to attend. The teacher is Mrs. Wade Harper.

Mrs. John McInnis, Tignish, is recovering from her recent illness. Mrs. McInnis suffered a severe heart attack and is being nursed back to health by her daughter, Mrs. Claude LeClair.

Mrs. John R. Gavin and daughter Miss Eleanor and Miss Maurine, have again opened their Tignish home, after a visit of six weeks with members of their family in Montreal, P.Q.

Going from Tignish to Charlottetown to attend Commercial College for the coming year are Misses Rose Marie Bernard, Nail Pond, Noreen Gallant, Skinner's Pond, and Joan Shea, Tignish.

After a pleasant six week vacation, Mr. Lester Gavin and baby daughter have returned to their home in Montreal, P.Q. Mrs. Gavin is visiting her mother Mrs. Wilfred Brodrick of Sea Cow Pond.

Earl Handrahan, Christopher's Cross, Rodney McInnis, Tignish, and Everett Harper, Tignish Shore, have gone to Charlottetown to attend classes in St. Dunstan's University. They all graduated from Our Lady of the Angels High School in June.

Friends of Mrs. J. A. Bernard are happy to see her up and around again after a period of illness. Mrs. Bernard was for a time a patient in Western Hospital, Alberton, and then spent a period of convalescing at her home in Tignish.

Mrs. Lloyd Foley and her two young sons, Leonard and Edward, motored from New Jersey and spent two weeks visiting Mrs. Foley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Burke, Tignish. They left on return to their home on Wednesday, September 5th.

To Mr. E. J. McTague, Tignish, goes the sympathy of the community in the sudden passing of his wife. Mrs. McTague's funeral was held on Wednesday morning, Sept. 5th, to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish. Burial was in the church cemetery.

The funeral of the late John DesRoches of Nail Pond was held from his home on Friday morning, September 7th, to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Reverend J. A. MacDonald, P.P., assisted by the parish choir.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crounce, who spent the past four weeks with relatives and friends in Tignish and Elmsdale, left by automobile recently for their home in Belmont, Mass. While they were in Tignish, they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ready, Christopher's Cross.

Miss Coleen McCarthy, Tignish, has gone to Charlottetown and entered City Hospital to take up

Charles Smythies is seen surveying site of new project.

The most important thing to happen to the Province of British Columbia since the coming of the transcontinental railroads is new $255,000,000 Aluminum Co. of Canada project which is now under way at Kitimat. A 200-mile front of peak-studded virgin northland is being slashed away by over 2,000 men and a million dollars worth of machinery to clear a road and site for the giant new smelter and a city which will eventually house 50,000 people. To power larger aluminum smelter in the world, the commonwealth's biggest earthen dam is being thrown across the Nechako river canyon to reverse the flow of some of the Fraser River's source waters.

Mr. Wilfred Phee, the profession of nursing. Miss McCarthy graduated from Our Lady of the Angels Convent with the class of 1950 and then attending Prince of Wales College for one year. Her many Tignish friends wish her success in this new and splendid work she is undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fraser, Mrs. George Driscoll and daughter Maybelle have returned to their homes in Boston, Mass., leaving by automobile on Friday morning. They had spent several weeks with their mother, Mrs. Michael M. Ellsworth, Skinner's Pond, having been called to her bedside due to illness. Mrs. Ellsworth is now greatly improved and well on the road to complete recovery.

Mrs. F. J. Skerry, Tignish, went to Montreal, P.Q. last week and will spend two weeks with her daughters Mrs. Brian Masterson and Miss Lynn Skerry. Mrs. Skerry was accompanied by her granddaughter, Ann Vaundette, who for the past five years has resided with her grandparents at Tignish. She will now remain in Montreal with her father, Mr. John Vaundette, and will attend school in that city.

Mrs. Joseph T. Arsenault, Tignish, was called to Summerside a few days ago due to the death of her brother-in-law Edward Perry. Friends of Mrs. Arsenault are extending to her and other members of Mr. Perry's family their sincere sympathy. This is the second time within six months Mrs. Arsenault was called to Summerside on a sad mission. The latter part of March, Edward Perry's wife, a sister of Mrs. Arsenault, was called to her eternal reward.

Congratulations are extended to Shirley Perry of Tignish on being the winner of the first prize in the Catechism examinations. This prize was offered by His Holiness Pope Pius XII to the pupil with the highest standing in the senior examination in the Diocese of Charlottetown, and Shirley had one hundred percent. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Perry, Tignish, and is attending Our Lady of the Angels Convent at Tignish doing Grade XI work this year. At the school closing in June last, she won the Governor General's medal for leading the class of eighteen pupils in the Tignish school in Grade X work, and in the matriculation examinations in July she again was among the pupils of highest standing.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

The many friends of Mrs. Ernest Inman will be sorry to hear that she is still a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown. Her daughter, Miss Leatha Inman, R.N., is with her mother.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Albany and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Delaney of Albany were visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crossman of Albany were recent business visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Howatt of North Tryon, motored to Charlottetown on business recently.

Mr. Rex Dawson and Mr. John Muttart of Albany were recent business visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Thomas and Mr. Leslie McDonald of Tryon motored to Summerside recently.

Mr. Arthur Blanchard of North Tryon was a visitor to Summerside and New Annan recently.

The many friends of Mr. Ollie Samuels will be sorry to hear he has been sick for the past few days.

Mr. Cam Holland was a recent business visitor to Albany and Summerside. Mr. Holland was looking for choice dairy cows and beef animals.

Mr. George Dawson of Albany recently left for Montreal, Quebec, and Toronto, Ont., on a business trip.

Mr. Russell Thompson, North Tryon, and Mr. Arthur McKay were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

Mrs. Stanley Thompson of North Tryon and son, Stanley Thompson, were recent visitors to Albany and Summerside.

Mr. Vance Dixon of North Tryon has purchased a new threshing and cleaning combination thresher from Mr. Croken of Emerald.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kehoe of Albany, were visitors to Emerald on Sunday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Croken of Emerald.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Dawson and daughter, Judy, were week-end visitors to Moncton, N. B. They motored over with Mr. and Mrs. Cann of Borden.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reeves of Charlottetown were visitors to the parents of Mrs. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quigley, Mount Tryon recently.

Mr. George Muttart of North Tryon is remodeling and adding to his barn. He has a number of carpenters at work and expects to have it finished to hold this year's harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lefebvre have returned from a pleasant week-end visit to their daughters in Moncton, N. B. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Mitchell.

A large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. Merrill Dawson, Albany, to tender his daughter, Miss Doris Dawson, a miscellaneous shower. A social evening was spent and all enjoyed themselves.

Mr. Fred Crossman has recently moved a barn from the Max Thompson property in Tryon to his farm and added it to his former large barn. Mr. Crossman is one of Tryon's more aggressive farmers.

The many friends of Mrs. Ernest Inman will be sorry to hear that she is still a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown. Her daughter, Miss Leatha Inman, R.N., is with her mother.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Mr. Marshall Thomas of North Tryon is preparing to move his residence and work-shop back some twenty-five feet to make room for the new Trans-Continental Highway that passes through North Tryon. Mr. Palmer of Sealton is the buildings-mover and has a lot of work to do as many buildings on this highway are being moved back.

Howlan And Vicinity

On Friday, Aug. 31st Mrs. James Arsenault entered the Western Hospital in Alberton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gaudet of Woodstock were in Howlan on Monday morning, Sept. 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Bernard of Summerside spent the Labour Day weekend in Howlan.

Messrs. Alyre and Vincent Doiron of Duvar were in Howlan on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 1st.

Messrs. Fred LeBlanc and Jerome Blanchard of Saint John spent the Labour Day week-end in Duvar.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Gallant of Charlottetown spent a few days around Labour Day at their old home in Woodstock.

Master David MacMillan spent Sunday, Sept. 2nd with his grandfather and others at West Cape. He returned to Howlan on Monday.

Little Miss Marlene Arsenault has returned home from Western Hospital after her tonsil operation. She also had some teeth extracted while there.

Leaving Duvar on Sept. 3rd for Fredericton, N.B. were Alyre Doiron, Adrian Pineau, Oswald Pineau and Freddy Clements. They went to seek work.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wood of West Cape have as their guests their daughter (Lilly) Mrs. Hollis Thompson and young daughter Linda Carla. Mr. Thompson is with the R. C. A. F. in Tokyo.

On Tuesday morning, Sept. 4th Messrs. Frank and Henry Gallant of Howlan motored to Greenmount to finish the interior of Greenmount School, which they built earlier in the summer.

Gilbert Gaudet recently motored to Alberton and on his return was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. J. B. Arsenault who was returning home after spending the past ten days in hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Arsenault spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week in Charlottetown. On their return they were accompanied by Master Lloyd Shields who will spend a few days in Howlan.

Friends of Mrs. Douglas Peter of Duvar were sorry to hear she has had to enter the Sanatorium for treatment and hope she may soon be able to return to her husband and three young children.

On Tuesday, Sept. 4th, J. B. Arsenault of Howlan visited his wife Mrs. Arsenault who is a patient in Western Hospital at Alberton, who although improving, will not be home for a short time yet.