

THE DAILY EXAMINER

APRIL 11, 1898.

GREAT BRITAIN AND RUSSIA.

THERE is no longer cause to dread an immediate war between Great Britain and Russia. The statement recently made by Mr. Balfour shows that Great Britain has not, in the opinion of the Government, any cause for war in that direction.

The commercial interests of Great Britain and Russia are too great to be disturbed by a war that is not of necessity. As a customer of Great Britain's Russia stands sixth among the foreign nations, with a proportion of 5.3 per cent. of the whole.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—L'Impartial refers to the actions of the Government agent the Manitoba school question and the Yukon tramway deal, and calls on the electors of West Prince to vote en masse for Mr. Hackett.

—Senator Ferguson, who has returned from the West, reports that Mr. Hackett has never been more cordial received than at the meetings recently held.

TROTTERS SOLD.—At the recent sale of trotters by W. B. Fasig, at New York, several horses owned in Nova Scotia were sold.

The richly bred stallion Sunny Clime, 15 years, by Sultan, dam Atlanta, by the Moor, was sold to S. W. Muncey, Port Jervis, N. Y., for $55. Sunny Clime was bought at auction at New York some years ago by Geo. O'Brien, Macaan, N. S., for $3,600.

Dearborn, record 2.33, who was also brought to this country by Mr. O'Brien, was sold to S. L. Frank, New York, for $75. He was by Gen. Hancock, dam Winnie Bourner by Mambrino Star, and cost Mr. O'Brien in the vicinity of $1,600.

Highland Belle, which A. B. Ester, Amherst, trotted at the Halifax exhibition last year, brought $220, a good price considering the figures realized for other horses offered at the sale.

Presentation to the Rector of St. Paul's.

The Rev. J. T. Bryan was most pleasantly surprised on Easter Eve by being called upon and presented with the following address in the name of the whole congregation both old and young:

To the Rev. J. T. Bryan, Rector of St. Paul's Church. REV. AND DEAR SIR,—We have much pleasure in acquainting you that a set of "The Warner Library of the World's best literature" (consisting of 39 volumes) has been ordered from Montreal and is expected to arrive immediately.

On behalf of the members of the congregation, both old and young, we beg your acceptance of the same, in recognition of our respect and esteem for your personal character, and as a mark of our high appreciation of your earnest and devoted work amongst us for Christ and His Church.

Wishing you all blessings spiritual and temporal,

We remain, Yours faithfully, H. J. CENDALL, F. L. HASZARD, Church Wardens.

On Easter morning Mr. Bryan, appropriately acknowledged the address and thanked the congregation for the magnificent gift, which will of course be much appreciated by one of so literary a turn of mind.

The Church and Rectory of St. Paul's, Charlottetown, are among the finest and most beautiful of the Maritime Provinces. Both are of red stone and the church is exquisitely finished in wood.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH

Severely Damaged By Fire This Morning.

St. James' Church was severely damaged by fire this morning. The fire was discovered about half-past seven o'clock, when smoke was observed issuing from the cellar in the northern section of the building, which adjoins the parsonage.

The alarm was quickly given, and the ominous tones of the fire bell in the City Building quickly brought out the fire brigade.

They found that the fire was almost wholly in the vestry, which is the northern section of the building, and in the vicinity of the choir gallery and pulpit.

It required much hard work to extinguish the fire, and before this was done much damage resulted. The vestry was badly gutted by fire and the inside of the church proper was also materially damaged by smoke and water.

The fire started in the basement, about six feet from the furnace, and reached the church proper by way of the stairs.

The damage to the building, it is understood, covered by insurance. The organ cost $3000. It is insured for $1500. Rev. Mr. Fullerton and his congregation have the sympathy of the public in the trouble that has overtaken them.

Dr. A. McNeill, lately of Kensington, is in town, to take up his residence.

Mr. James Paton returned from the Old Country on Saturday evening.

Mr. J. P. Sullivan, St. Peter's Bay, is in town. He is registered at the Queen Hotel.

Miss Maggie McEachern was a passenger on the Stanley on Saturday evening. She comes to resume her old position in Paton & Co's store.

It is pleasing to hear that Mr. J. M. Coffin, son of Mr. W. M. Coffin of this city, passed a highly creditable examination in anatomy at McGill University.

Miss Aimee Cecil Jones, who has been spending the winter in St. John, as teacher of elocution and physical culture will be in Moncton April 15th and will appear under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.—Moncton Times.

Senator Ferguson's health is greatly improved as a result of his campaign in West Prince. The people there gave him a hospitable reception, and have shown him that they intend to elect Mr. Hackett.

A HERO IN TOWN.—Captain Surette, of the schooner George S. Dowell, is in town, a guest of Prof. Arsenault. Captain Surette is the hero who saved the lives of fifty-two men from the wreck of the S. S. Warwick, of Glasgow. The Warwick was stranded on Yellow Mar Ledges, Grand Manan Island, during the course of a hurricane, on the 31st of December, 1896. Captain Surette was lying in Seal Cove, Grand Manan, at the time. The next morning he was notified of the disaster by the keeper of the Southern Head Light. Though his vessel was light, he never hesitated a moment but made for the wreck. The men in the wrecked steamship had succeeded in getting into two life-boats, kept up by air tanks, twenty-five in one and twenty-seven in the other. When Captain Surette came alongside, the storm was still raging and everything was covered with ice. He therefore had to resort to the expedient of lassoing the men and drawing each through the water to his vessel. In this way he saved the life of every man, though subsequently many of them had to endure the amputation of frost-bitten limbs.

SEE OUR NEW DRESS GOODS

You'd think butterflies, dragonflies, yes, and rainbows, were having a happy, high holiday in our silk department for color is rampant, and yet nothing is duplicated, and you'll not find their fellows in any other store in Ch'town.

AN IMPORTANT SALE OF HATS.

Wash Silks.—By wash silks we mean the kind that will wash without fading. Japanese Habutai silks can be made into shirt waists and worn just about as a woman wears cotton stuffs. They can be washed the same way—and the colors won't wash out because they are woven in.

EASTER GLOVES.

It's the terror of seeing her dresses duplicated that drives many a woman to St. John or Montreal for her wearables. The crafty Province itinerant works this feminine instinct when he sends his samples to Montreal and fools my lady into the delusion that the dresses he sells her are exclusive, and not to be duplicated, while the fact is, they are generally things that Montreal dames have passed upon and rejected.
