

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

AUGUST 26, 1890.

Notes and Comments.

—We clip from The Week a letter setting forth the views of that journal and showing the drift of opinion in Ontario concerning higher education at the public expense.

—A Canadian admirer of the McKinley bill argues that the brewers of the United States are not now so much dependent upon our barley, because they "now use all sorts of substitutes."

—The Toronto Globe is, to use its own words, "in a state of sane and sober calm," as may be judged by the following which we clip from the leading article of the issue received to-day:

"Upon the whole the politicians of Canada are fairly representative of the best virtue, the best brain and the best intelligence of the people. How few are in politics for revenue. How few are tainted with scandal. How many submit to actual sacrifice in order to the gratification of an honorable ambition and in serving cleanly and honorably the public interest.

Personal.

Rev. James Carruthers returned home last evening.

Rev. Alexander Raulston, of Murray Harbor, was registered at the Osborne House yesterday.

Mr. Thomas Galbraith, of the Scottish American Journal, is in the city. He is at the Osborne.

John Mackintosh, a learned shoemaker and bibliophile of Aberdeen, is writing a history of Scotland for the "Story of the Nations" series.

Mr. A. H. McNeill, of the law firm of Stewart & McNeill, returned from a very pleasant trip through the Bras D'or Lakes last evening.

His Lordship, Bishop Cameron, of Antigonish, and Fathers Laffan, of Tracadie, N. S., and Riley, of Manchester, N. H., arrived in the steamer from Pictou last evening. They are at the Palace.

Mrs. Ritchie, wife of the Rev. Theophilus Ritchie formerly Rector of St. Eleanor's and Summerside, is visiting Charlottetown. She is now the guest of the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Carvell.

Mr. Frank Carlton, agent for the "Victor Type-writer," will be in town until Wednesday morning. Any one desiring to purchase or to see this new and highly efficient, yet inexpensive type-writer can do so by calling at the Davies House. Mr. Carlton will call at your office on receipt of postal to that effect.

Colonel John B. Reid, brother of Mr. Andrew Reid and Mr. Jas. Reid, sc., of Summerside, is visiting here. Col. Reid is a member of the Grand Army having been an officer during the American war. He attended the recent re-union in Boston before coming to the Island.—S' Side Farmer.

CARPETS.—James Paton & Co. have been unusually busy in this department, and offer the finest assortment in the Province. No old stock to be got rid of at any price, but the newest and choicest patterns that are made. Everyone admits our prices are low and our stock superb. If you want a carpet, be sure to go direct to James Paton & Co. and you will make no mistake. au22 3i

THE TURF.—The races at Woodstock, N. B., on Saturday were well attended, and passed off successfully. The free-for-all race was the best seen on a Woodstock track for years. Phil Logan won; best time 2:37. All Right won the 2:50 race in 2:42. Annie Rooney won the farmer's race. A match race for $100 a side, between Phil Logan and Speculation, will be trotted to-day.

SHOULD BE STOPPED.—Firing revolver shots into trains on the I. C. R. is becoming altogether too frequent. Three such occurrences have been reported within a very short time. On Thursday night as the express from Halifax was about three miles the other side of Stewiacke station, the passengers heard the report of a revolver, and as they passed saw a man standing by the track looking down towards the train. In a moment the Pullman car porters reported that the thick glass of an outside window of the car had been broken by the shot.

A GOOD IDEA.—We understand that the Directors of the Charlottetown Driving Park have in mind to give the Press Association of the Maritime Provinces a pleasant half hour on their Park, on Friday next, at 2 p. m. The owners and drivers of some of our fastest horses have kindly agreed to give an exhibition of speed—a general free-for-all race. Good trotting and fine sport may be expected. Our visitors will not, at all events, see a better track or finer exhibition buildings in the Maritime Provinces.

The Baptist Convention.

YARMOUTH, August 23.—The Baptist convention organized with Dr. Goodspeed president. About 350 delegates are present. The retiring president being absent, vice-president J. A. Gordon delivered a practical retiring address,—subject, "Let all things be done unto edification." The obituary report recorded the death of nine ordained ministers during the year. The report, which was read by the Rev. J. H. Saunders, set forth briefly and tenderly the characters and worth of these departed ministers. President Goodspeed submitted the report on the state of the denomination, showing that seven new ministers had been ordained during the year, three new churches organized, and two new churches dedicated. The supply of ministers is not equal to the demand, and the demand is increasing. There was a loss of eleven ministers to the active pastoral force during the year. The outlook for the supply of young ministers is promising. The year's additions to church membership is not large. General benevolence increased over previous years.

The twentieth annual foreign mission report was presented. No deaths among missionaries were reported. There is a growing interest of the people in missions. There is a prospect of soon sending the number of men saked for by the missionaries. No general home agent has yet been appointed. The total expenditure was $16,184; receipts for foreign missions $15,053. Next year's estimate of expenditure is $16,260. The report of the year book publication showed the necessity for a better way of publishing, and a committee was appointed to report such way. Dr. Day presented the financial statement for the year. The total receipts for all purposes are $22,000. Nova Scotia contributed $14,300, New Brunswick $5,800, and Prince Edward Island $1,150. Sums raised were:—For home missions, $7,000; foreign missions, $5,480; educational institutions, $5,800; ministerial aid and education, $1,150, and by the women's aid societies, $5,322. The accounts showed a balance due treasurer of $302.

At the annual meeting of the Women's Baptist Missionary Union, the reports of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. March, of St. John, and the treasurer, Mrs. Smith, of Amherst, were presented. That of the former gave a brief sketch of twenty years' work and showed that there are 150 societies in the three provinces, with a membership of four thousand. It appeared from the treasurer's report that $5,488.74 had been raised this year, of which $4,700 had been paid over to foreign mission board. There is in her hands at present $2,546.32. The reports from three provinces showed that there had been a gratifying increase all along the line. It was decided to raise $5,000 during the coming year for foreign missions and $1,000 for home missions. Miss M. E. Davies, of Charlottetown, was elected Provincial Secretary for P. E. Island.

The Truro Convention.

The Railway Men's Christian Convention which opened in Truro, on Friday last, will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present. The welcome meeting was held on Friday night, in the large hall of the Y. M. C. A. The chair was occupied by Evangelist Meikle, who, with a number of resident and visiting railway men and clergymen addressed the meeting. The business meeting was held Saturday afternoon, and was called to order by the President, Mr. W. H. Dymond, of Halifax. After the transaction of all necessary business and the consideration of plans for future work, the officers were appointed for the present year. Mr. G. H. McKinlay, of the W. & A. Ry., Richmond, was chosen President, and Mr. J. B. Turner, of the I. C. R., Truro, was appointed Secretary. A vice-president for each of the several districts was also appointed. The Sunday afternoon meeting was for men only, and was largely attended. The farewell meeting took place at the close of the church services. This was the crowning meeting of the convention, and was crowded to the doors. Quite a number rose to their feet determined henceforth to be on the Lord's side. The meeting closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again." The delegates speak in the highest terms of the kind welcome extended to them by the railway men of Truro. The next convention, it is expected, will be held either at Charlottetown or Campbellton; due notice, however, will be given.

Fair Play.

SIR,—Although not in full sympathy with all the methods of the Salvation Army, I, certainly, think they should be protected.

Last evening, whilst engaged in their usual service on Market Square, "McQuade, the Irish doctor," and vendor of Shamrock Oil, drove up, and in a boisterous manner began his sale, using at times profane and indecorous language.

The Army seemed determined to conclude their meeting in a dignified way, but were, on account of the extraordinary lung power of McQuade, compelled to surrender. The City Marshal, who was present, should have interfered, and not permitted such unseemly proceedings to continue. Temporary visitors to our city should be at least courteous, and while allowed to ply their business, should not infringe on the rights of others.

DECENCY.

AUG. 26. [The City Marshal would have made a mistake if he had interfered, unless there were a breach of the peace, and would probably have made the confusion worse confounded.]
