A TAILOR named John T. Hardy fell dead of heart disease in Carlton, N. B. on Friday.

A fire at Trenton, Ont., on Friday, destroyed $25,000 worth of property.

MAY, KELLY & Co. are selling umbrellas from 25 cents upwards.—june 9 3i

THE steamer Mississippi left Montreal for England, on the 5th inst., with 550 head of cattle.

CROWDED OUT—An article on "The Late Session," and the letter of F. W. Hyndman, Esq., Provincial Auditor.

A FRENCH corvette named the Avenge, has arrived at Halifax for the protection of French interests in the fisheries.

AN English Baronet's son named Walker stands committed on a charge of larceny at Toronto.

THE sanitary condition of Ottawa is not satisfactory. Diphtheria and small-pox prevail, and the Board of Health are dilatory.

THE pedestrian mania has reached Charlottetown in earnest. A young man, not wishing to be outdone by any competitor, completes fourteen days walk to-day, and, as yet, exhibits no appearance of concluding the tramp. He starts precisely at 6 a. m., and finishes each day's walk at 12 midnight. The route extends from the foot of Queen street up to the Medical Hall corner, and return. For persistent walking, this case is unequalled.

ATTENTION is directed to the advertisement of BREMNER BROS. in another column. Their reputation is well established. Give them a call.

AN Ameteur regatta is announced at Manchester under the patronage of Lord Dufferin. The American consul is to be chairman of the committee. Hanlan will exhibit his style on that occasion.

MAY, KELLY & Co. sell the cheapest tea in the city, in small caddies from 5 lbs. upwards.

THE Catholic colonization scheme, of which we made mention the other day, is meeting with great favor in all the large cities of the United States. Large sums are being subscribed for the purpose of carrying it out.

ALL persons who want good tea, very cheap, in small caddies, better try May, Kelly & Co.

AT the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, this forenoon, Thomas Lacey, drunk and disorderly, was fined $2 and costs, or 8 days; John Power, drunk and incapable, was fined $1 and costs, or 4 days; E. L. Lydiard, for non-payment of dog-tax, was fined $1.72; James Hennessy, arrested on complaint of William Kennedy, for creating a disturbance in the Reform Club, was fined $1.60 for the offence, and $5 and costs for being drunk and incapable.

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS.—Call and get bargains in trimmed and untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, and other articles fitting for summer wear, at the Ladies' Establishment, Queen Street.

THE walking match which is to take place in the Citizens' Skating Ring, on Wednesday next, appears to be the attraction of the week. Eight entries have already been made by competitors, and a lively walk is expected. The committee appointed by the Rink Directors are doing all in their power to make the walk interesting. So far the following entries have been made: Joseph Carroll, Job Bevan, Owen McCloskey, John Franshaw, Thomas Wakeland, Thomas Crowley, Richard Mitchell, Lemuel Clow.

The Minister of Marine and Fisheries has written a letter to Captain William Tinning, master of the Halifax brigantine William Hayes, thanking him for rescuing the crew of the wrecked barge Bismarck, of Londonderry, N. S.

THOSE WOOD SPLINTS at Bremner Bros. are very nice for picture frames and fancy work, and are quite cheap. [june 9 3i]

THE following cable despatch appears in the Globe, dated London, Thursday, June 5th: "Hanlan is doing pretty good work. What, with his training, both in running and rowing, he will come to the scratch all right. His health is so good this time that he does not need to take any medicine; but it is rather early yet to count chickens. There is no betting."

THE new buildings of Acadia College, at Wolfville, were formally opened on the 4th inst., in the presence of a large aumber of people. Hon. Mr. Parker presided. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Dr. Campand, Crawley, and Rev. J. E. Bill, and Theodore H. Rand, Superintendent of Education in New Brunswick. The cost of the buildings and outfit will be $40,000.

IT is said that on looking into his accounts recently, the Duke of Hamilton found to his consternation a deficit which could not be accounted for of no lesss a sum than one million and a half pounds. How the unpleasant state of things occurred no one seemed to know. But the Duke is understood to have transferred the charge of his affairs to some solicitors in Edinburgh.

ON Saturday last three juveniles—residents in the city—repaired to Victoria Park with a moderate supply of whiskey, and the intention of getting drunk. They, in their own opinion, had a "glorious time." Towards evening they attacked the Park-keeper's workshop, demolished the windows and smashed the doors. Mr. Curtis reported the matter to the Police, and the young men were arrested and compelled to pay a fine each of $2 and costs, or 8 days.

AN enterprising man engaged in the fish business undertook, this morning, to erect a permanent shed on Queen Square, opposite the "Diamond Bookstore." After diligently working at the structure for several hours, and complimenting himself at the near completion of his establishment, the City Marshal appeared upon the scene and gave the builder 5 minutes in which to have the "obstruction" removed. The Scriptural "house built on the sand" gives only a faint idea of the manner in which this latest addition to our industries was demolished.
