After giving splendid service as the Minister of the Alberton Pastoral charge of the United Church of Canada which besides the town of Alberton includes the congregations of Tignish and Casumpec, the Rev. Percy A. Fitzpatrick will be leaving Alberton the last of the Conference year, June 30th. During his three year pastorate Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick has been in great demand as a speaker at Church Anniversary services and in special Women's Missionary Societies services. He has taken an active part in the Western Presbytery Young Peoples Union and in the West Prince Ministerial Association as well as in the P. E. I. Presbytery. He was ordained in 1912 and has served the Alberton charge since June 30th and he and Mrs. Howe are planning to live at their newly acquired home at Carleton, P. E. I. The Wellington charge will then become vacant. During the short ministry of Rev. Mr. Howe the charge has made progress and this desirable circuit offers a fine field for Christian service.

Rev. W. A. Paterson, M. A. B. D. of Lockeport, N. S. has accepted a Call to the Georgetown, P. E. I. Pastoral charge of the United Church of Canada, subject to the approval of the Yarmouth and P. E. I. Presbyteries, and will be commencing his pastoral duties the end of the Conference year, June 30th. Rev. Mr. Paterson has served at Lockeport since 1945 and is an experienced minister and a capable and conscientious Pastor, having been ordained in 1924. During the second war he served as a naval chaplain and has held pastorates on the Montrose, P. E. I. and the Cavendish P. E. I. pastoral charges. He succeeds the Rev. S. J. Boyce B. A. who has given splendid service as the minister at Georgetown since 1941 and during his ten year pastorate the pastoral charge of Georgetown has made marked progress both materially and spiritually. Rev. Mr. Boyce was ordained in 1915 and it is believed he will be retiring from the active Ministry this year.

The closing service of the second week of Revival meetings in the O'Leary Church of the Nazarene was held on Friday night April 27th. There was a very good attendance. The Evangelist is Rev. H. S. Mullen of Havelock, Digby County, Nova Scotia who is assisted by his wife and also his son Paul and his wife. The service featured a number of special gospel songs by Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen and son Paul also a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mullen and also the singing of a number of request hymns. The pastor, Mr. Owen Underwood presided. A special offering was taken up for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mullen. The Evangelist was heard in a powerful and convincing sermon on the topic: "Is your heart right with God?" A number were present from Casumpec, Elmsdale, Mount Pleasant, Brae, besides O'Leary. There have been a number of decisions made to follow Christ at the close of the O'Leary meetings. They will conclude on Tuesday night May first. The Evangelists are planning to conduct evangelistical services at Mount Pleasant and Elmsdale at the close of the O'Leary meetings.

the newest car of the year

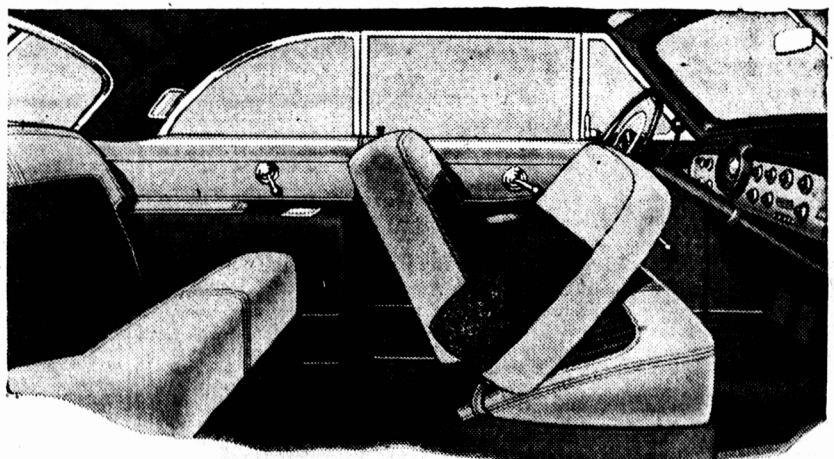

FORD Victoria

- years ahead in brilliant beauty

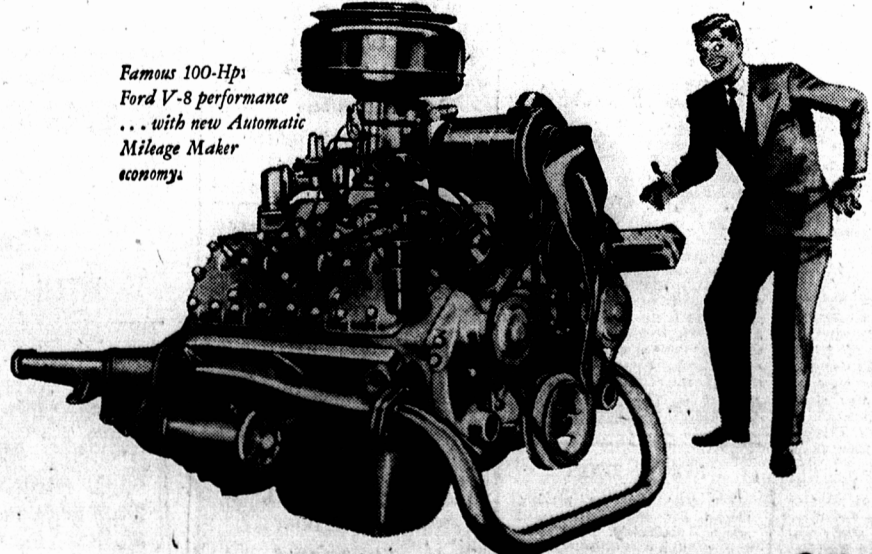

Now Ford "step-ahead" designing brings you the sweetest, smartest car on the boulevards! And with its protecting steel top, the Ford Victoria is a true "all-weather" traveller.

In winter, close-fitting windows and solid, all-steel "Lifeguard" Body mean snug comfort.

In summer, roll down the windows and revel in the breeze—with no side pillars to break that "dreamline" streamlining!

Three luxurious interior ensembles—gray, green or brown—to harmonize with exterior colours. Seats upholstered in durable Bedford Cord with genuine deep-buffed leather and vinyl. Carpeting front and rear, headlining, instrument panel and garnish mouldings all blend ideally with upholstery. And remember, like all new '51 Fords, this new Victoria brings you 43 "look-ahead" features including the famous 100-Hp. V-8 Engine. "Test-Drive" it and you'll be convinced . . . "Feature for feature, Ford's finer by far".
