Daylight Time Begins April 27, Will End Sept. 27

By The Canadian Press The Atlantic Provinces, with the exception of Prince Edward Island, will put their clocks ahead one hour April 27—their annual salute to summer sunshine. Balmey spring weather was doubly welcoming this year following a rip-sporting winter.

East years brings greater uniformity in the time change throughout the provinces. But the anxious clock-watcher still remains the fellow who's never sure whether his timepiece gives as he moves from place to place.

Best organized of the lot is Newfoundland, where the change is island-wide. Daylight time is observed April 27-Sept. 28.

On the mainland, such larger centres as Moncton, Saint John, Halifax and Sydney will go on daylight time April 27 and return to standard time Sept. 27. The majority of smaller communities will follow suit.

But P. E. I., an almost totally agricultural province, will stork with "old time" as in former years. Its position as an island makes this possible with the least amount of confusion.

Rural communities through all the provinces seldom have looked with favor on the change. As one farmer put it, "I can see the benefit of daylight time. But those cows of mine—they still take their time from that old-fashioned sun and act accordingly."

Like elongated islands through New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, the railways have always disdained any change in time. But they have fervently urged that all communities make the switch together, on schedule, to avoid confusion.

Mr. Billy McDonald, Panmure Island, was a recent visitor to St. Mary's Road.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. MATTHEW KEMP

A gloom of sadness was cast over the district of Milltown Cross and surrounding vicinity when it became known that Matthew Kemp had passed away at his home on December 22nd, 1951.

Mr. Kemp was born in Albion May 10th, 1854, a son of the late Capt. Thomas Kemp and Elizabeth Young. He was the last surviving member of a family of three sons and four daughters.

Mr. Kemp, when only 13 years old, left home and went to sea. He was first mate on a sailing vessel and made many trips across the Atlantic Ocean. He visited England, Ireland and Scotland, and while in Scotland he visited the cemetery where Highland Mary is buried and plucked a leaf from her grave which he treasured for many years.

Mr. Kemp settled on a farm in Milltown Cross where he lived six years before his death. He was a good neighbour and a kind and loving father.

He was married three times, his first wife was Miss Louisa Campbell of Milltown Cross and his second wife was Miss Isobelle MacSwain of Cardigan. To this union three sons were born, Malcolm and Lindsay Kemp.

The third wife, Mrs. Catherine Stewart of Peters Road, was a devoted companion and helpmate to Mr. Kemp for forty years. She predeceased him in 1939.

He is survived by his two sons, Malcolm of Florence, Cape Breton; Lindsay, Halifax, N. S., and an adopted daughter Sadie, Mrs. Heber Moore, Bishopric, Sask.; also seven stepchildren, John L. Stewart, Glen William; Daniel Stewart, Kilmuir; George Stewart, Montague; William Stewart, Milltown Cross; Elizabeth, Mrs. Dyer, Boston, Mass.; Jane, Mrs. George Sorrey, Montague; and Catherine, Mrs. Elijah Blackett, Milltown Cross. Also a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

The deceased was tenderly cared for in his declining years by his step granddaughter, Mrs. Malcolm Hayter and her husband who made their home with Mr. Kemp.

The funeral service was held at his home, December 24th, 1951, with interment in the Brookline Cemetery. Service was conducted by Rev. W. A. Patterson of the United Church, Georgetown. The hymns sung were: "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus," and "Shall We Gather At The River."

The pall bearers were six nephews, Messrs. Clifton Kemp, William Johnstone, Arnold O'Connor, James O'Connor, Melville O'Connor and Seymour O'Connor.

Funeral services were held at the homes of Mrs. Waterhouse on the north side and Mrs. Claude Nicholson on the south side.

Mrs. Albert Fraser, Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Stewart were appointed on the work committee for the next month. Material was given to the members to be cut out and brought to the next meeting and one member volunteered to do knitting.

At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed, the program featuring organ music by Mrs. Malcolm MacKenzie, and a "fish pond", proceeds from which amounted to $4.35. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lorne Johnston and Mrs. Claude Nicholson.

STAR CAST ROMPS, DANCES AND SINGS IN "TWO TICKETS TO BROADWAY", MUSICAL HIT

Throwing a sparkling and tuneful light on show-business today Howard Hughes' presentation "Two Tickets to Broadway" in color by Technicolor offers a merry package of entertainment with an all star cast headed by Tony Martin, Janet Leigh, Gloria DeHaven, Eddie Bracken, Ann Miller and Barbara Lawrence.

The troubles of four showgirls and a young singer with their glib but tricky booking agent, comprise the basis of the gay plot. Disgusted with his empty promises, the five are about ready to give up the battle for Broadway fame when the agent persuades them he has sold their act to Bob Crosby and his band, and sets them into frantic rehearsal. What happens when the quintet learn they have been tricked again makes for the hilarious climax of the offering.

A flock of hit tunes by some of the nation's top composers, along with startling new dance numbers enliven the gay story. Besides Bob Crosby, featured are the comedy team of Smith and Dale, the Charivels, Taylor Holmes and Buddy Baer, supported by a host of dancing and singing lovelies. James V. Kern directed the picture at RKO Radio, with Busby Berkeley as dance director. Sid Silvers and Hal Kanter write the screenplay with Sammy Cahn's original story. With Julie Styne and Leo Robin writing many of the songs.

The song-studded and dance-embellished "Two Tickets to Broadway" offers the following musical numbers: "Are You a Beautiful Dream?", "The Closer You Are", "Baby, You'll Never Be Sorry", "The Worry Bird", "Big Chief-Hole-in-the Ground", "Pelican Falls", "It Began in Yucatan". These numbers all are by Julie Stein and Leo Robin.

Also heard are: "Manhattan" by Richard Rodgers and Lorenz Hart; "There's No Tomorrow"; by Al Hoffman, "Leo Corday and Leon Carr"; The Prologue from "Pagliacci" by Leoncavallo; "Let's Make Comparisons" by Sammy Cahn and Bob Crosby. The latter sings the number to a dummy representing Brother Bing.

"Tony Martin sings "Pagliacci"; "There's No Tomorrow" and "The Closer You Are," the latter with Janet Leigh and while both are dancing. Miss Leigh also sings and dances as she leads an ensemble number, "Manhattan," with Martin; sings and dances as she leads an ensemble number, "Pelican Falls High"; dances in the "Are You Just a Beautiful Dream?" number and sings and dances in the "Big Chief-Hole-in-the-Ground" number with Tony Martin singing and with Ann Miller, Gloria DeHaven and Barbara Lawrence dancing. Let the "Worry Bird Worry for You" is sung by Gloria DeHaven and danced by Ann Miller, Janet Leigh, Barbara Lawrence and Miss DeHaven.

"Baby, You'll Never Be Sorry" is a specialty number sung by Eddie Bracken and Gloria DeHaven. "It Began in Yucatan" is a novelty number featuring Ann Miller dancing.

WATER LAPS

Meanwhile the death toll of current spring floods in the upper Midwest, including the Mississippi River valley, rose to three. Mrs. Rosemary Mohr, 28, St. Paul, Minn., was drowned last night when a boat capsized.

At La Crosse, Wis., the body of Mrs. John Billings, 65, of La Crosse was found in the Mississippi. She apparently fell from a railroad trestle.

William J. Red Boy, 24, was drowned in the Cannonball River, a Missouri tributary, near Bismarck, N. D., April 6.

St. Paul relaxed slightly today as the Mississippi began a slow drop after the worst flood on record in the city. Winona, Minn., 125 miles downstream, appeared the next major trouble spot.

Preparations for record crests continued at such downstream cities as La Crosse and Prairie du Chien, Wis., Dubuque and Clinton, Ia.

CANADA SLOWLY

Continued from page 1 Saskatchewan's rural population declined from 78.5 to 69.6 per cent and Alberta's from 66.6 to 62.1 per cent.

In the 1941-51 period Prince Edward Island's urban population increased 17.7 per cent from 20,989 to 24,685; Nova Scotia's 13 per cent from 287,699 to 344,831; New Brunswick's 22.8 per cent from 175,111 to 215,011; Quebec's 31.1 per cent from 2,056,947 to 2,697,318; Ontario's 25.4 per cent from 2,591,494 to 3,251,099.

Manitoba's urban population increased 22.2 per cent from 359,678 to 439,380; Saskatchewan's 31.3 per cent from 192,282 to 252,470; Alberta's 69.3 per cent from 265,529 to 449,675 and British Columbia's 44.4 per cent from 549,254 to 793,471.

Since 1945 in Newfoundland, where 63 per cent of the population then resided in rural areas, the rural population has increased 1.9 per cent from 202,930 to 206,621. But the increase in urban population has been 30 per cent from 118,999 to 154,795.

Even in the thinly-populated territories there have been changes. In the 10-year period, the Yukon's rural population decreased from 78.3 to 71.5 per cent and that of the Northwest Territories from 88.3 to 83 per cent.

ST. PETER'S LAKE W.I.

"The regular monthly meeting of St. Peter's Lake W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Joseph MacDonald on Wednesday evening, April 2nd, with an attendance of fifteen members and two visitors. The President presided and the meeting opened with the "Institute Ode" followed by the "Creed" in unison.

Roll call was responded to with a "household hint" and minutes of the previous meeting were read, approved and signed. Collection for the evening amounted to eighty cents.

The meeting opened for business and a discussion arising out of the minutes was carried on during which it was decided to ask the janitor of the school to accept $5.00 for scrubbing of school.

The School Committee asked that issue be got for the school and it was also agreed that the school be scrubbed during the Easter holidays. Committees for coming months are as follows: School, Mrs. Ruthven MacDonald and Mrs. Elmer MacEwen, and program, Mrs. James Conohan and Mrs. Gordon MacEwen.

Mrs. Elmer MacEwen invited the members to her home for the next meeting, roll call to be answered with exchange of flower seeds. Program for the evening consisted of a quiz by Miss Theresa MacDougal, won by Mrs. Vernon Anderson, and a bingo by Mrs. Gerald Nolan, prize won by Mrs. James Conohan.

The meeting closed with "God Save The Queen" and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.
