Spiritual Revival Held Only Curb to Revolution

Former Missionary To China Tells Presbyterian Assembly Wave For Saving Souls Should Spread Like Interest In Moose River Mine Disaster.

HAMILTON, Ont. June 9.—Rev. Dr. Jonathan Goforth of Hamilton, 77-year-old missionary who has spent 46 years in the China mission fields, told the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church that only a spiritual revival could prevent a revolution in Canada. "When three men were entombed in the Magill gold mine at Moose River, N. S., a great wave of desire that they be rescued swept this country," he said. "What great work could be accomplished if a similar wave of desire for the saving of people in a different kind of peril should sweep over the country? There are more souls on the broad way to destruction in Canada today than there were when I first went to China."

SPEAKERS LISTED

Dr. Goforth was one of the speakers at the evening session devoted to foreign missions. Among the speakers were Rev. Dr. James Mackay, London, Ontario; Rev. A. A. Lowther, Jhadi, India; and Miss Gladys Murphy, Kobe, Japan. Dr. Mackay presented a sealed box to Rev. Dr. Malcolm A. Campbell, moderator, which had been given to him to deliver to the assembly by the Christians of Formosa when he visited there on a tour of Eastern missions posts. It contained a beautiful example of Formosa painting.

Dr. Goforth expressed regret that good Presbyterians in Canada would pay as high as $250 for a seat at a hockey game or a wrestling match when the per capita contribution of Presbyterians to the church last year was but $1.69. "Not that I have anything against sport, but there is such a tremendous lot to be done if the money could only be found. There is a tremendous lot to be done in Canada alone. We do not realize our indebtedness," he said. "Telling of the work in the Manchurian field, opened nine years ago, Dr. Goforth said six missionaries and their wives there served an area as large as Ontario with a population of 30,000,000."

PLAN COMMENDED

Dr. Mackay commented that the Japanese planned to take over the hospital work that has been hitherto done by the missionaries in Manchuria. "Not that we should object," he said. "We should be pleased to have good work done by whoever will do it. It is also likely that the Japanese will establish a school system in that region." Mr. Lowther said Presbyterians in India had cause to be proud that, unlike other denominations, the Presbyterian Church had not made drastic reductions in recent years.

Caste, poverty and illiteracy were the greatest problems today in India. "Of the 350,000,000 people in India 80 per cent are illiterate and, strangely enough, British efforts are increasing illiteracy. British irrigation schemes are cutting crop failures. British railroads rush food to famine areas. Plagues are prevented or checked. The resulting increase in population is so rapid that the increase more than keeps up with education."

Speaking of India's 60,000,000 "untouchables," the speaker declared there has never been a slave to compare with that of the "untouchable."

"UNTOUCHABLES" UPRISING

"The bondage of the Children of Israel was as nothing to this," he said adding that the despised Hindu was, for the first time in history, beginning to move against the "untouchable" system. "Gandhi has given up his independence movement and is leading a 'temple entry' campaign for 'untouchables,'" Mr. Lowther said. "In this rebellion of the 'untouchables' there is a great opportunity for Christianity because Christianity stands unchallenged as the religion of love in India. Miss Murphy told of the mission work in the area around Kobe, Japan. "The Japanese and the Koreans among whom we work are friendly industrious people," she said, "but our numbers are inadequate for the great work to be done. We can only touch the border-line of our field."

Objection to a recommendation in the administration board report was taken by Rev. R. Johnston of Ottawa, who warned members of the assembly "against the building up of an oligarchy" in the Church. His remarks followed presentation of the board's report to the annual assembly sessions by James Dutton, board chairman.

WANTS MEMBERS RE-ELECTED

The report recommended that members of the administration board retiring each year should be eligible for re-election. One third of the board members retire annually.

"I am surprised that it should be suggested these men be eligible for re-election," said Dr. Johnston. "The provision for retirement of one-third of the members each year is a wise precaution against the building up of an oligarchy."

"We do not want an oligarchy in the Church. Our church is built up on the democratic principle. There are no supermen in this assembly. Every one of the most capable men on the board of administration can be replaced."

Members of the assembly applauded Dr. Johnston's remarks and Mr. Dutton withdrew the recommendation.

"Unless we can raise our full budget allocations this year, we will have to make drastic reductions in work of the Church," Mr. Dutton remarked in completing presentation of the report.

Judge John McKay of Port Arthur told the assembly of a plan for incorporating a Presbyterian Church building fund during discussions regarding the need of trustees for the Church.

HAS NO OBJECTION

"I have no objection to an incorporated board of trustees as long as it does not interfere with the founding of this incorporated building fund," the Judge said. "This fund would be incorporated with a capital of $300,000 made up of $300,000 shares at $1 each."

"The fund would advance one-third of the money necessary to build new churches where newly formed congregations are unable to finance their church for themselves. We would sell our shares to Presbyterians who have become millionaires and to widows who had saved a little money. It would be a perfectly safe investment."

After a decision to discuss the Judge's plan later, Rev. S. Banks Nelson of Hamilton asked if it was not advisable to try incorporation in one province first.

"Might it not prove dangerous to risk incorporating the whole Church," he asked.

Mr. Dutton interjected it might be tried in one province first and D. M. Rowat of Westmount, Que., proposed the board be authorized to have a bill of incorporation drafted so it might be submitted at the next assembly. Mr. Rowat's proposal was approved and the treasurer's report was presented by E. W. McNeil of Toronto.

TREASURER'S REPORT

The treasurer's report noted the Church had nearly $1,500,000 invested in securities, none paying less than four per cent. No losses had been suffered. A vote of thanks, moved by Rev. A. S. Reid of Montreal, was passed, congratulating the finance board for its wise investments.

Rev. T. D. McCullough, chairman of the budget and stewardship committee, said estimates for 1935 were $420,000. He said $286,465 had been received indicating a falling off in receipts since 1934 of $16,262.

Rev. N. R. D. Sinclair of Allandale, Ont., chairman of the slight and ovetures committee, read an overture from Montreal, suggesting a person-to-person canvas of the entire Church be made this year.

Rev. James Hyde of Victoria, B. C., startled the assembly by advising that because of lack of confidence in the church he did not contribute financially all that he could. Mr. Hyde spoke during discussion of the budget and stewardship report.

"People are not giving as they should because many have lost confidence in the church. We must restore confidence if contributions are to rise. I could contribute more than I do to the church though I have given a tithe most of my life. One Presbyterian minister told me he gives nothing to the church because he has no confidence in it. There are too many people like that, and they have cause," he said.

WANTS SALARIES CUT

My Hyde advised drastic reduction of large salaries of church servants as one way to restore confidence. He also advocated a return to prayer.

"It is a humiliation to the church today that there are ministers with large congregations who never hold a prayer meeting."
