Island Over-supplied With Creameries, Claim

Specific statement that the Island is over-supplied with creameries for present milk production, and that a "considerable number" should be closed out, either by amalgamation or by direct sale, is contained in the report of Warren L. Brenton, Dairy Superintendent at Prince Edward Island, given in the reports of the Department of Agriculture, issued recently. "Too much uneconomic and unsound competition, local desires to carry on small companies that have already served well their time and generation," are keeping the dairy farmer from receiving the remuneration of his product which he should receive, according to Mr. Brenton's report.

Under the heading of Educational Butter Grading, the report mentions that samples representing 750,000 lbs of print butter were graded, of which 93.88 graded firsts. Announcement is also made of the offer of the De Laval Company, Ltd., Montreal, to give $25 in prizes in the Educational Butter Grading during the coming season. Rules for the division of these prizes will be made at an early meeting of the butter-makers.

Speaking of cheese manufacture, the report states that seven cheese factories operated during the season at Tignish, Grand River, Egmont Bay, Kinkora, Hillsboro, East River, and Dundas. Only 212,111 lbs were manufactured during the year, of which 95.53 per cent graded firsts. Payments from the Federal Department of Agriculture's Equalization Funds aided greatly in the cheese industry in the province, amounting at some factories to 30 per cent of the amount paid for milk. Prices to the farmer ranged from 56 to 93 cents per 100 lbs. Speaking of a growing trend in this province against the continuance of cheese production, Mr. Brenton points out that if the cheese factories are to prosper they must be patronized and assisted in every way by undivided community effort. Only through the guarantee of a reasonable supply of milk can the factories remain open and in operation.

Strict Censorship In Nazis Court

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) BERLIN, April 19.—Strict censorship "in the interests of safety and the state" has been imposed on star chamber proceedings against political offenders estimated to number between 25 and 150. Court officials including the presiding judge have responded to queries as to the nature of the trials with only a shrug of their shoulders. When pressed hard for a definite answer the judges hesitatingly admitted certain sessions during the last week dealt with political cases.

The regular meeting of the "Helping Others" branch met on Friday afternoon, March 28th, with the president, Joyce Darrach, presiding. The opening chorus "Oh My Darling Clementine" was followed by the reading of the minutes. It was moved by Ruth MacLean and seconded by Louis MacLean that the minutes be adopted as read. It was decided that roll call be answered at next meeting by a riddle. Anyone not giving a riddle must pay a forfeit. It is planned to have a quessing contest at next meeting which is to be held on April the 24th. The program was as follows: Recitation "March's Party" by Doris McKinnon; Recitation, "Barbara, Betty and Prue" by Joyce MacPherson; "Our New King" by the teacher; Recitation, "Mary's Lamb by Wanda Livingston; Recitation, "Two Pussies" by Hilda MacNevin. The meeting closed by all singing the National Anthem. (Patriot please copy).

SURPRISE PARTY

A great number of friends from Lorne Valley and vicinity gathered at the home of Mr. John Mustard, to extend their happy felicitations to his sister, Mrs. Peter James who was married a short time ago. The bride formerly, Miss Jessie Mustard of Cardigan Head was a popular young lady of that district. The groom was a prosperous farmer of Church Road. A great number of very useful and valuable gifts were received by her from the happy gathering of friends. A splendid evening was spent in dancing and merry making. Beautiful music was rendered by Mrs. James' orchestra. This party was a surprise to the bride as she was visiting when the first of the crowd arrived. Before leaving everyone was treated with a beautiful lunch prepared by the ladies. Friends came from Cardigan, Lorne Valley, Bangor, Baldwin's Road and her own district to give her a miscellaneous shower. The bride thanked them very much for their kindness and invited them to her new home. An address was read to Mrs. James expressing the loss of her in the community of Cardigan Head.—P

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

ST. JAMES CHURCH
Rev. Dr. R. Moorhead Legate selected as his text for the morning service the words of Paul in his Epistle to the Romans 2:38. "For he is not a Jew which is one outwardly, but he is a Jew which is one inwardly." The sermon dealt with the necessity of recognizing the Christian religion as an inward attitude of the heart and not merely the outward observance of ordinance. The choir rendered the anthem "Rejoice in the Lord." At the evening service the minister explained that God would not hold us responsible for hereditary tendencies to sin but only for the attitude we adopt in yielding to such weaknesses. The text was from Ezekiel 18-2. "The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge." Our guarantee of forgiveness is in our acceptance of the Grace of God and Jesus Christ. The anthem by the choir under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Lawson was "Hymn of the Night."

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL
Yesterday the 8 o'clock service was well attended and at the 11 o'clock choral celebration of the Holy Eucharist, there was a large congregation present. At this service the Rev. Canon Banks preached a splendid sermon on the observance of the Lord's Day. At 7 o'clock p. m. the Cathedral was filled when His Lordship the Right Reverend Dr. Hackenley, Bishop of the Diocese, administered the sacramental rite of Confirmation to ten girls and six boys, to whom he afterwards delivered a splendid address. At the close of the service, the Easter hymn, "Come ye faithful, raise the strain" was sung in procession by the Bishop, Canon Banks, choir and those who had just received the apostolic rite. Both the 11 o'clock and evening services were festive, and the music of Easter Day was repeated and much appreciated by the large congregations present.

ST. DUNSTAN'S BASILICA
Service at St. Dunstan's Basilica yesterday were at the usual hours. The high mass at 11 o'clock was conducted by Rev. Edgar Gallant of Skagway, Alaska. Rev. Fr. McCordie was the speaker. He took as the subject of his sermon "Peace." Sunday school for the children was conducted at 2 o'clock. Vespers were chanted at 7 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Gallant.

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH
The receipt of the Church regarding the Sacrament of Matrimony was lucidly and eloquently expounded by the Rector, Rev. H. I. Fleming, C.S.S.R. He was the speaker at all the Masses yesterday morning. "Youth is the period of preparation for marriage said Rev. Father Fleming in the course of his sermon. The preparation made by living in accordance with the Christian principles as prescribed by the Church is the guarantee of future happy marriage, the speaker said. Rev. Charles O'Hara, C.S.S.R., celebrated High Mass. "The death and resurrection of Our Saviour," was the subject of an impressive and eloquent sermon preached at the evening service. The speaker was Rev. Father O'Hara. "The doctrine of Christianity and that of the world were directly opposed to each other, said Rev. Father O'Hara. "Christianity taught for you, Mr. Miller gave an account of the incidents leading up to this answer of Samuel. He told of the place, the power and the necessity of prayer. He gave the story of George Miller and his Orphanages, who had no means but he had faith and he prayed. He made no appeal but he prayed and the means were provided and thousands were housed, fed, clothed and taught. More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreamed of. Mr. Miller then dealt with intercessory prayer and stated "praying places upon us the responsibility of doing all within our power to answer our prayer." At the evening service, Rev. Mr. Miller delivered another of his special sermons on the Protestant faith and the evidence that these sermons are greatly appreciated is shown by the large congregations present. Last night Mr. Miller spoke on the "Gibraltar of Protestantism." His text was Galatians 5-1 "Stand fast, therefore, in the liberty wherewith Christ has made us free and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." He appealed to the feelings of the congregation, the speaker said, on welcoming the large number of young people into the fellowship of the Lord's table.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH
A large congregation was present at the confirmation service and the dedication of the new organ at St. Paul's Church yesterday morning. The Rt. Rev. Dr. Hackenley, Bishop of the diocese was the preacher. The dedication of the new organ took place following the presentation of a petition by Mr. H. H. Horne, one of the church wardens, and others of the congregation. The Bishop in his sermon congratulated the congregation on the success it had achieved by providing a new organ of first class quality and having it placed in the church without incurring any debt. He spoke of the influence of such an instrument and the inspiration it provided for higher standards of worship. He then proceeded to speak to the eighteen young people who were being confirmed. He took as his text II. Corinthians 6:1 "Co-workers with him see that ye receive not the grace of God in vain." The speaker dwelt at length on the importance of the enlarging army of Christian people who have definitely committed themselves to the Christian task. He also laid great stress upon the necessity of reality in worship, however expressed. The music at the morning service included the procession hymn "Welcome Happy Morning" (From the Latin); the National Anthem; Easter anthem "Christ Our Passover" (Humphreys); hymn, "My God Accept My Heart This Day" (Matthew Bridges) hymn, "Breathe on Me Breath of God" (Rev. Edwin Hatch); hymn, "Alleluia, Hearts to Heaven and Voices Raise" (Bishop Christopher Wordsworth). At the evening service the Rector Rev. H. D. Raymond was the speaker. He spoke on "The Joy of Christian Worship" taking as his text Isaiah 35:10 "and the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away." The speaker began by pointing out the suitability of the text for the week after Easter day the Christian Church is remembering the ransom which has been paid and the victory which had been won. The expression of joy in the text also voiced the feelings of the congregation, the speaker said, on welcoming the large number of young people into the fellowship of the Lord's table.

The speaker then dealt with the features which make for joyful Christian worship. The first he said was remembrance, which links us with the historic past and brings to mind God's relation with mankind as outlined on the pages of Holy Scripture. The Christian faith cannot forget what it owes to the past. The next feature is stepping out on faith. Religion built only on the past is no good, it must find expression in doing things. A little child takes its father's finger and steps out into the unknown world of fear to trust the child of God hold fast to the divine finger and venture new things in his Christian faith. The next feature is letting oneself go. Endowed with a grateful memory and a faith which does, the Christian can afford to let himself find expression for his worship under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. In conclusion Rev. Mr. Raymond counselled his hearers to hurry up. Yesterday when the clock struck twelve a little girl was heard to say "I know it's twelve o'clock because it was eleven a minute ago." "Twelve o'clock is approaching for us all, religion is to live by, don't worry about the dying, live Christ" the speaker said in conclusion. The newly confirmed young people were at the communion table last evening with large numbers of friends.

The music at the evening service included: procession hymn, "Come Ye Faithful Raise the Strain" (From the Greek); hymn "On the Resurrection Morning" Rev. S. Baring Gould; hymn "Christ the Lord is Risen Again" (From the German); offertory anthem "Plead Thou My Cause" (Mozart); recessional hymn "Christ the Lord is Risen Today" (From the Latin).

SONG SERVICE

The Sunday evening song service under the joint auspices of the S. C. M. and the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening in the Baptist Church. Mr. Jack McLean presided. Mr. Glen Partridge, theological student at McGill University, Montreal, was the special speaker. Mr. Partridge gave impressions of the twelfth quadrennial students Volunteer movement held in Indianapolis, Dec. 28-Jan. 2. In the course of his remarks Mr. Partridge outlined the inner character of the world's suffering and confusion as it was given by outstanding speakers at the convention, among whom was Dr. Richard Roberts, moderator of the United Church in Canada. The speaker then dealt with how the church is meeting the problems of Communism and Fascism and also internally in the church "the decay of Christian character." In closing the speaker stated God's intention for this generation was to make love a reality in the world, despite any amount of self sacrifice that must necessarily be made. National and local problems are world problems, they must have a world solution. That solution, claimed the speaker, was Christian faith and the Christian way of life as it finds expression in an ever growing Christian community. Special music included a violin solo by Mr. Bill Rogers and a vocal solo by Miss Marguerite Cadmore.
