QUEEN STREET, OPPOSITE THE MARKET

THE NEW GLASGOW FACTORY.

THE NEW GLASGOW FACTORY.—The cheese factory at New Glasgow was started to-day with 7,100 lbs. of milk. A good beginning. Success.

A BIG PELL.

A BIG PELL.—It is estimated that the merry-go-round has taken in no less than $1,000 since starting operations in Moncton.—Moncton Times.

DAUGHTER.

DAUGHTER.—The platform on King street, between Prince and Grand streets, is in a dangerous condition. It should be attended to.

POSTPONED.

POSTPONED.—St. George's Lodge meeting to be held to-night, is postponed till tomorrow (Tuesday) night at 8 o'clock. By order of the W.M.

A GOOD SUPPLY.

A GOOD SUPPLY.—The milk received at Central Factory this morning amounted to six pounds short of 9,000 pounds. Mr. Hughes himself contributed 635 lbs.

AT CRAWFORD CREAMERY.

AT CRAWFORD CREAMERY.—This morning 7,740 lbs of milk were received at Crawford Creamery. Two farmers, Messrs. H. Lee and John Moore, brought between them 1,457 lbs.

MORE CATTLE.

MORE CATTLE.—Mr. Joseph Wise brought ten prime cattle into the city to-day for Mr. William S. Ross. The average weight was 1100 pounds. They are intended for shipment abroad.

DEATH OF AN ISLANDER.

DEATH OF AN ISLANDER.—A man named McLeod, a native of P. E. I., took an epileptic fit on Thursday morning and fell into the river. He was taken out, but died that evening.—New Glasgow Enterprise.

ANNUAL RETREAT.

ANNUAL RETREAT.—The annual retreat of the student of St. Dunstan's College opened this morning and will continue for two days. It will be conducted by the Cathedral clergy and Rev. A. McAulay, M.C.C.

GENTLEMEN WHO CARE FOR BEING WELL DRESSED.

GENTLEMEN WHO CARE FOR BEING WELL DRESSED are asking for the Tube serge which has become so popular. It is a cloth of the highest character and especially sound colors. The registered trade mark "Tube" is stamped on every 2 1/2 yards.

GOOD WORK.

GOOD WORK.—There was received at the Stanley Bridge Cheese Factory to-day 12,800 pounds of milk. The company have ordered a third vat and another press. This being the largest factory on the Island, manager Leslie, hopes to make the best showing of any factory.

POLICE COURT.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon the Scott Act case against John Hebert was continued until Monday. James McNally was fined $4 or 20 days for drunkenness. Two men were arrested for breaking into the sanitary by-laws. One was fined $1.50 and costs, and the other case was continued.

STRANGE FISH.

STRANGE FISH.—A young lad named James Bethune captured a strange-looking fish at Victoria Park yesterday, which he has sold to Mr. L. W. Watson. The fish is a species of gudgeon with a curious growth of tape-grass on both gills. The fish is on exhibition in the show window of Watson's Drug Store.

THEY'RE GOING EAST.

THEY'RE GOING EAST.—Mr. J. W. O'Reilly of this city, has prepared a very interesting memorial to the late Rev. Patrick A. McElmeel, of Kelly's Cross, who died at the Episcopal residence, Charlotteville, on the 2nd inst. At the top of the card is a capital likeness of the deceased priest. The card is meeting with a ready sale.

NOTRE DAME CONVENT.

NOTRE DAME CONVENT.
According to announcement in Friday's issue, the exhibition of art and fancy work by the pupils attending this institution was opened to the public on Saturday last. A very large number of ladies were invited, and the Sisters were kept busy showing them through. The exhibit is larger, numerically, than in previous years, and is indeed one of the pupils of Notre Dame may well be proud of.

THE BAND STAND.

THE BAND STAND.
Having been requested by the Charlotteville Dramatic Club to act as a managing committee in connection with the entertainment by said Club, in aid of a Band Stand for Queen Square, we have much pleasure in stating that a sum of forty-five dollars was realized for this object, and also a further sum of thirty dollars by the reputation of "Piano Recital." We now beg to submit this report to the citizens, and request that all interested in music for the Square will meet in the City Council Chamber at 7:30 p.m., on Tuesday next, 18th inst., so that the necessary steps may be taken to arrange for a series of operatic Concerts, and for the erection of a Band Stand.

CRICKET.

CRICKET.
Saturday was certainly not an ideal day for cricket, but the enthusiasts were on hand nevertheless, and as a matter of fact when they show up a game must be the result, even though the sides be of a depleted nature and a reciprocity treaty must be entered into in order to ensure the required number of fielders. But no treaty was necessary on Saturday, as instead of a dearth there was a surfeit of material. F. W. L. Moore and H. Carvell looked after the interests of the respective sides, with the following result:
