A GORDON MEMORIAL.

OMDURMAN, September 21.—The question of a memorial to General Gordon has been much discussed here, and the suggestion has been made that this memory would be best perpetuated by starting a public subscription to establish and endow a college or technical school of an unsectarian character at Khartoum.

If such an institution were built, three or four English masters would have to be appointed and maintained. Otherwise the quality of the teaching would soon degenerate.

The college might be devoted to the education of the sons of sheikhs; and it would not be inadvisable to have a curriculum through which every person must pass in order to become a sheikh.

In that way the teaching would become a nucleus of civilization, and do much to make conditions which would render fresh rebellions impossible.

It is understood that the sirdar would favor the erection of a college of this kind if funds yielding 1,500 pounds a year were raised; but this is the irreducible minimum if the school is to be kept in English hands.

This could be done by raising a capital sum of about 400,000 pounds.

No doubt whatever is entertained here the British public will warmly take up the proposal, if only for the purpose of testifying their appreciation of the life-work of one of their greatest heroes.

The Cause of Laughter.

Bain suggests the explanation that laughter is provoked by what he calls a degradation, meaning that we laugh when we all at once perceive something degrading, a trickery, a weakness or a pettiness in some person or object which we respect, as when the infirmities of human nature disclose themselves in a person of importance or when some trivial affair occurs in a solemn ceremony to drag us down or when the wrong side of some great thing or some great man is exposed.

"The occasion of the laughter is the degradation of a dignified person or interest under circumstances that do not excite a stronger emotion. In all theories of laughter the more or less important fact is marked * * * that the feeling of the ludicrous arises when something which we respected before is presented in a mean light, for we have no disposition to laugh when something that we already regarded as such is depicted as tricky and vile."—Popular Science.

Too Much For Watson.

Only once did Watson, when a captain, never fail to punish a man for intoxication. This was in the summer of 1893 at Boston, when the San Francisco took the Massachusetts naval militia on its first practice cruise. Among the regular crew was old Alexander Parker, sailmaker's mate, who was never known to remain sober when there was liquor to be had. When the naval militiamen came on board a witty boatswain's mate, while no officer was near, sang out in an authoritative tone:

"All you men having whisky on board lay below and turn it in to the sailmaker's mate for safe keeping."

Many amateur sailors took the bait, and in a few minutes old Aleck, sitting down below decks in his sailroom, was surprised to have a vast collection of flasks passed to him. He received all these as gifts with many thanks. He was found a day after sound asleep in his sailroom, literally covered with empty bottles of every size and shape. He was finally taken before the captain, to whom was told the circumstances. "Parker," said he sternly, "I have no words with which to discuss your case. Go forward."—New York Times.

Frost, frost, heavy frost last Monday night; cucumbers and tomato vines injured very much. We escaped with slight damage; would advise housekeepers to put down pickles and chow chow now. On hand a limited quantity of cucumbers, small silverskin onions, green tomatoes, ripe tomatoes, cauliflowers. Orders filled in rotation; do not be in the position of many last year—too late.—J. J. Gay & Son, Market and head of Prince street Telephone 180.

Montague, of Dunnville, Cured of Ulcerated Itching Piles.

Mr. Robert Montague, of Dunnville, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with Itching Piles five years and was so badly ulcerated, they were very painful, so much so, that I could not sleep. I tried almost every medicine known when I was recommended to use Dr. Chase's Ointment. I purchased a box and from the first application got relief. Have used two boxes and am now completely cured."

Love In Early Days.

"Yes," said Adam to Eve as the twilight drew about the aged couple, softening their lineaments to a semblance of youth, "how well I remember the day we met! You wore a diffident air!"

—That was all.—Indianapolis Journal.

PROLONGS LIFE.

J. A. S. Brunelle, M.D., C.M., Montreal, Professor of Surgery, Laval University Medical Faculty; Surgeon to the Hotel Dieu, etc., says: "I have found Abbey's Effervescent Salt particularly beneficial in the treatment of derangements of the liver and of the digestive organs, and consider that the regular use of a preparation of this nature has a decided tendency to prolong life.
