

- 37—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, The usual. 4, Respectable. 5, The house lately erected and deficient in many respects. The children, considering their ages, attendance, and the delicate health of their Teacher, are doing well. Present, 26.
- 36—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, As good as the ages and opportunities of the children admit. 4, Ambitious to excel. 5, The house is very insufficient, and the supply of books, &c., very unsatisfactory. Present, 18.
- 38—1, Fair. 2, Good. 3, Fair. 4, Attentive. 5, The house is too small. The people anxious to build on a more central site, which would include Hemlock Grove—a new settlement. Examined, 23.
- 39—The Teacher, Mr. John Keenan, at both visits, absent, when I visited.
- 40—1, Fair. 2, Good. 3, Good. 4, Diligent. 5, The house is old, unfurnished; the children without the necessary Stationery, and their attendance irregular, yet Miss McCormack is successful by diligence. Present, 23.
- 41—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Scientific. 4, The Teacher sustains his character for skill and success. 5, The house is remarkably neat, desks well arranged, but there are not many children within the school-age in the District: the condition of the school is satisfactory, the attendance fair. Present, 21.
- 42—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, Good. 4, Has tact and talents. 5, The house comfortable, without good furniture. Present, 20.
- 43—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, Fair. 4, Attentive. 5, Local circumstances detrimental to this school. Present, 19.
- 44—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, The common. 4, Fair. 5, Strife, about the removal of the house to another site, injurious to this School. I have not been in the District since the dispute was settled. Present, 20.
- 45—This School is not in as good condition as it ought to be. The defective organization, the Teacher attributes to irregular attendance and the deficiency of books. The children seem docile. Present, 21.
- 46—This school is still vacant. The people are intending to build on a new site.
- 47—When I visited, the Teacher had her Register at her lodgings. The classes examined made a fair appearance, and attendance good. Present, 30.
- 48—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Systematic. 4, Clever. 5, This a new school. The children making progress. Present, 25.
- 49—1, Very good. 2, Judicious. 3, Explanatory. 4, Skilful and intelligent. 5, The house is small, especially as scholars from the adjacent districts attend. Mr. M. Douglas teaches classes in History, English Composition, Algebra and Mathematics. Present, 27.
- 50—1, Fair. 2, Good. 3, Good. 4, Diligent. 5, Needle-work is neatly done by some pupils. Present, 17. Mr. James McDonald succeeded Miss Boyd, who is now in Fullarton District.
- 51—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Effective. 4, Respectable and emulous to improve. 5, The house is not what is needed, but the most of those concerned have had other engagements to fulfil, that prevented them from incurring the expense of a new School-house, but a few of them are anxious to build one without much delay.
- 52—This school was closed when I visited the neighbouring districts on my second tour. The condition of the School, when examined, creditable. Present, 25.
- 53—1, Good. 2, Fair. 3, The usual. 4, Good. 5, House small, but neat. The attendance much greater and more regular than formerly. The children are prepossessing, and seem to have a desire to learn. Present, 30.
- 54—1, Very fair. 2, Proper. 3, Explanatory. 4, Experienced. 5, The house very unsuitable; disgraceful in such a populous and flourishing district; but the scholars, in all the classes, improve satisfactorily. Present, 34.
- 55—1, Good. 2, Fair. 3, The usual. 4, Good. 5, Furniture unsuitable, children's progress, fair. Examined, 24.
- 56—1, Fair. 2, The usual. 3, Good. 4, Suitable. 5, The pupils making fair progress, and attending more regularly than customary in former years. Present, 21.
- 57—1, Very strict. 2, Good. 3, Good. 4, Able and watchful. 5, The children in the lower branches, fairly taught, and a few in the higher have made creditable progress. Examined, 18.
- 58—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Good. 4, Efficient. 5, The house is large, but not equipped as it should be. The children read well, and make satisfactory progress in all the departments, except one or two. Present, 25.
- 59—1, Judicious. 2, Good. 3, Satisfactory. 4, Talented. 5, The classes are well taught, and the children seem quickened to generous rivalry. The house, when finished and furnished, as agreed upon, will reflect credit on New Perth. The attendance is not large, but regular. Present, 25.
- 60—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, Good. 4, Very competent. 5, The house is very small, but large enough, for the attendance, which is always shamefully low in such a thriving settlement. The supply of books is also small. The Teacher should be better sustained. One of the scholars, C. Shaw, is very clever. Two others, fair. Present, 19.
- 61—1, Fair. 2, Fair. 3, Suitable. 4, A young man of good character and strict fidelity. 5, The house new and commodious, and on a suitable site. The children improving in the several classes. Fair attendance. Present, 25.
- 62—The dispute about the School-house, still unsettled.
- 63—Vacant.
- 64—1, Good. 2, Good. 3, Good. 4, Skilful. 5, When on my second tour through this and the neighbouring districts, Mr. McSwain's School was suspended; the day being "a Holiday of obligation." He is known to be qualified and very attentive.
- 65—Miss McCormack is commendable for her attention to her Scholars, who are likewise, doing well; especially in writing and grammar. Present, 22.
