LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

BEER BROS.—The leading fur store.

MOORE COAL.—The schr. Minnie Moody, Captain Long, arrived from Sydney to-day with 210 tons of coal for C. Lyons & Co.

DRILL SHED.—The adjourned meeting of the gymnastic association takes place to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. There will be a class after drill to-night.

TWAS EVER THUS.—As the Aitchison Globe points out after listening to all his wise learned at the Sewing Circle, a man finds a glorious opportunity to tell how he detests gossip.

LADIES, clean your kid gloves with Josephine Glove Cleaner. It is not a liquid, leaves no odor, and can be used while the glove is on the hand. For sale only at A. W. Reddin's drugstore.

WORK MEN.—Are you interested in the work of the Y. M. C. A. in this city? A meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Parlor on Wednesday evening next, at 9 o'clock, sharp. All young men are invited to attend.

FROM HALIFAX.—The City of Ghent arrived from Halifax about six o'clock last evening with a general cargo. She leaves this afternoon on return, via intermediate ports. The Ghent remained at Sherbrooke during the storm.

TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.—A meeting of the Teacher's Institute will be held in Queen Square School this evening at 8 o'clock. After the lessons in music and calligraphy a short time will be devoted to the discussion of the muscular movement method of writing.

THE PRICE OF OATS.—A late despatch from Winnipeg says: Oats are selling in Crystal City, Manitoba, for from 14 to 16 cents a bushel, while the American farmers in a town across the border, only a mile away, cannot get more than 9 cents.

THE LOST TRAIN.—The lecture of John Ross, Esq., in aid of St. George's L. L. library, titled "Anglo-Israel, or the identification of the British nation with the Ten Tribes of Israel," has been postponed till after the evangelistic services. Every young man and woman should read it. It is a very interesting subject.

THE THAMES ASHORE.—A North Sydney despatch of the 22nd says: The steamship Thames, Comillan, master, from St. John's here, got ashore during last night on Petrie ledge. She appears to be well ashore, and if the wind changes to the northeast, she will probably receive very serious damage. Two tugs have gone to her assistance. It is thought it will be very difficult to get her off, if even at all possible to do so.

FOOTBALL ACCIDENT.—The Fredericton correspondent of the St. John Telegraph reports that Mr. Fred. Bayfield, of the Rothesay College football team, had his collar bone broken during the match played at Fredericton on the 21st, between the Fredericton High School and the Rothesay College teams. The correspondent of the Sun reports that Mr. Bayfield was only slightly injured. Fredericton won, 20 to 0.

THE NEW CATHEDRAL.—At a meeting of the Cathedral Committee, held last evening, it was unanimously decided to proceed with the erection of the Roman Catholic Cathedral as early as possible next spring. The present building will be torn down, and until such time as the basement of the new edifice is ready for use, services will be held in the hall in the Convents. The new church will be a magnificent structure.

JUVENILE WRITERS.—Being afforded an excellent opportunity for displaying their talents, Messrs. Hazard & Moore offer three prizes for an original Christmas story containing not less than 2000 and not less than 5000 words. Any boy or girl in the city, sixteen years old or under, may compete. Mr. Ewen Stewart, Secretary of the City School board will act as judge. Further particulars will be found in to-morrow's EXAMINER.

TOWED IN.—Yesterday the May Queen went up East River and towed down the topmast scur. A. M. Brandford from a point on the island where she was ashore. It is said that the Government steamer Southport undertook to tow the Brandford from one of the wharves up East River and left her where she was found by the May Queen. There are three tug boats in the city and it seems strange that the Provincial Government should enter into competition with them.

THE NEW ST. JAMES HALL.—The new St. James' Hall was opened yesterday under most favorable circumstances. The building was filled to overflowing. Revs. D. Sutherland and W. P. Archibald assisted at the pastor. The singing was conducted by the Sunday School scholars, assisted by the choir of the church. A description of the building has already appeared in these columns. The work reflects every credit on all concerned, and the pastor and people of St. James' may well feel proud of having one of the best equipped churches in the province.

AT THE BETTS.—The annual prize meeting of No. 4 Co., 82nd Batt., took place at York on Saturday. The shooting throughout was very good. The ranges were 200 and 400 yards, and the possible was 10. Sergt. J. M. Crockett led with 61 points; Ptes. Edwin Crockett and L. E. Stewart also made 61 each; Pte. Vernon Crockett 60, and Captain Crockett 53. The other scores ranged from 52 to 22. Some twenty-five prizes in kind and $10 in cash were competed for. Among the prizes was a beautiful watch and chain, presented by Mr. Samuel Gay, and won by Sergt. J. M. Crockett.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon, Mary Murphy, charged with drunkenness, was fined $5 or 30 days imprisonment. Mary informed the Magistrate that she had lately arrived from Boston and that she had a return ticket. His Honor suggested that she return to Boston with all the speed at her disposal, and she promised to leave by the next boat. In the meantime payment of the fine is suspended to give her a chance to fulfill her promise. John Flynn, drunk and incapable, was fined $2 or 10 days. He paid the fine. A young lad named John O'Connor was fined 50 cents without costs for assaulting Gabriel Macdonald and tearing up the Queen Hotel to-day on his way West.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. M. Egan, of Mount Stewart, is registered at the Queen Hotel. James Ross, Esq., of Mount Stewart, is among the guests at the Queen Hotel. Mr. Chas. F. Gorham, of Halifax, is at the Queen Hotel to-day on his way West. Mr. H. A. Morrison, of Cambridge, Mass., is visiting Charlottetown. He is registered at the Queen Hotel. Rev. Mr. Archibald, with Mrs. Archibald and family, were at the Queen Hotel over Sunday, and left this morning en route to Sunny Brae, where Mr. Archibald takes charge of the Presbyterian church. Do not take any substitute when you ask for the one true blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Insist upon Hood's and only Hood's.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS.

Impressive sermons in the Baptist and Zion Churches.—Great Men's Meeting at the Opera House.—Evening Meeting at First Methodist Church.

Impressive and soul stirring sermons were delivered yesterday forenoon by Mr. Crossley in the Baptist Church and by Mr. Hunter in Zion. A meeting for men and boys was held at the Opera House in the afternoon. About every seat in the auditorium was occupied and some in the gallery. After singing and prayer, G. Frank Baker, Esq., made a statement on behalf of the finance committee of which he is chairman, setting forth the circumstances under which Messrs. Hunter and Crossley were asked to come here, and explaining that the committee take all the money collected, pay all expenses, and give the balance to the evangelists.

Mr. Hunter gave expression to the pain which Mr. Crossley and he had experienced concerning the groundless idea prevalent that they had come here to make money. He had been twenty years in the ministry, and twelve years an evangelist, but had never before been grieved on account of a prejudice of this kind. In point of fact a modest residence and not more than a thousand dollars in cash was all that he possessed in the world, and the twenty years of hard work. The little books in which he and Mr. Crossley recorded their receipts and expenditures were open to the inspection of the public. He had not come here for money, he would not take money from the people of Charlottetown.

Mr. Hunter then delivered a short and very forcible address from the text, "Hun and speak to that young man." He referred particularly to the sins of infidelity, dishonesty, intemperance and profanity, exhorting his hearers to avoid them as they valued their ever-living souls.

Mr. Crossley then preached from the text, "The wages of sin is death"—a plain, wholesome, powerful address respecting the prime sin of idleness, the bogger of many other sins, together with the secret and social sins of men.

In the evening the evangelists addressed a very large and fine assembly at the First Methodist Church. Meetings will be held every evening this week, except Saturday, at 7.30 p. m. There will be Bible readings in the Baptist Church Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3.30 and a young people's meeting Friday afternoon at 3.30.

THE LOSS OF THE ALBERT.

Captain Neilson and Crew Exerted their Power to Save Her.

Captain Neilson and the crew of the steamer Albert, before reported abandoned in a sinking condition, arrived here forenoon by train from Cardigan. They arrived at Cardigan yesterday in the steamer Carmena from St. Pierre. The Carmena had a hard trip up. She left St. Pierre on Wednesday noon, and experienced the full force of the big gale on Thursday evening day. Regarding the loss of the Albert Captain Neilson says: "We left Sydney on Friday at three o'clock in the afternoon for Percentia Bay. There was a strong wind blowing at the time. At eleven o'clock that night a terrific southeast gale was raging, and we lost our sails and 'throve' too. We were about sixty miles from Sydney at the time. The steamer rolled and strained terribly.

"Between midnight and three o'clock on Saturday morning the steamer sprang a leak and made rapid. As soon as the leak was discovered, we began baling and pumping, but the water increased rapidly, notwithstanding our efforts to keep her clear. For thirty hours we kept at this work, doing all our power to free the steamer, but without avail. By Sunday morning the water was putting over the fire, and the ship was sinking fast.

"After consultation with the crew, it was thought advisable to leave the vessel, and it was utterly impossible to save her. Indeed, our lives were in danger if we stood by her any longer.

"The schr. Julia Forey, from Sydney to Grand Banks, saw our signals of distress and bore down upon us. We asked her to take us off, which she did, and landed us at St. Pierre. We only had time to save a portion of our effects, and feel some of us only escaped with what we had on.

"When we left the Albert she was settling down fast."

THE SALVATION ARMY.

Self-Denial Week—What has been done and what is aimed at.

The Salvation Army is all alive and actively engaged in preparing for its annual Self-Denial Week, which takes place throughout Canada from Nov. 30 to Dec. 7, inclusive. Large sums of money have been raised in past years, and it is a wonderful testimony to the Army's development and activity. Each member of the army, as well as the friends of its many social institutions are asked to abstain from all luxuries, and in many cases officers and soldiers are actually determined to do without certain articles of food which are ordinarily considered necessary, in order that by their acts of self denial they may add financial support to the army and its many different branches of work.

The social operations throughout Canada have been greatly developed during the past year, new food and shelters have been opened at Winnipeg and Victoria respectively. As a natural consequence, therefore, the demands upon the army's funds have increased, and thus will require still greater effort to raise a correspondingly increased amount during this special Self-Denial week. The total amount aimed at is $25,000.00.

NEWS NOTES.—A small planet, the tenth discovered this year, and the 48th in the list, was only discovered by Prof. Max Wolf, of Heidelberg. On the day when the Queen gave Lord Rosebery the insignia of the Order of the Thistle, she also gave a silver medal to Edwin Miller, her chief cookman, in recognition of his 37 years of faithful service.

Makes New Friends All the Time and keeps them too. The finest tonic on the market is Wilson's Invalid's Fort Wine, which is asked for by all invalids, debilitated, nervous people, as it has peculiar properties which make it invaluable to all such. These are—its undoubted blood-making property, being a fine old rich wine, of body and strength, its restorative properties, for it is the testimony of thousands that after use there is a feeling of strength and buoyancy to which the listless body and spirit have been strangers. A fine old wine, which one might drink without a thought of medicinal property, which is in the character of the beverage itself, and is not anything superadded. Sold by all dealers at $7.50 per case of 12 quart bottles; half case $4.00, or 15 cents per bottle. Address—Bordeaux Cigaret Co., 30 Hospital Street, Montreal. 246

There is no language too strong to denounce the fact that Crossley Bros. lead the trade in men's and boys' clothing, hard and soft felt hats, carpets, oil cloths, and house furnishings of all descriptions. Nothing equal to Raphael Tuck & Co's. Xmas cards, booklets and calendar; grand assortment just received at Carter's bookstore. See them to-night. Grand Saturday rush to-night at Carter's bookstore.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

GAMALIEL SATISFIED

Sir,—Will you allow me to say through the columns of your paper that I am perfectly satisfied with the answer Mr. Hunter gave yesterday both in the Opera House and in the Methodist Church to my question in Friday's EXAMINER, and I hope the severest critics will no longer look upon them with a suspicious look; and I further venture to say that the explanation will add materially as well as sympathetically to the success of the meetings. The evangelists came to us as complete strangers, and they should not think hard of us though we should be a little incredulous at first, "because many false prophets are gone out into the world." Hence St. John's advice, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they be of God." Again, I think Mr. Hunter did much better to remain with us and give the explanation asked for, than if he had left, "dunking the dust of his feet against the city." The Great Master's answer to such a question would be, "The Son of Man hath not where to lay His head." If my friend of Friday has been the means of bringing the matter practically before the notice of the Evangelists, I feel that I have done them a great favor and I think Mr. Hunter's unkind remark in reference to the matter in the Opera House was not called for. Hoping that everything will now go along smoothly, I will wish the Evangelists God-speed.

THOSE PICTOU SUITS.

Sir,—Considerable talk is being indulged in about town to-day over the order from the "Charlottetown" Steam Navigation Co. having been placed with a Pictou tailor.

Of course the Company have a right to place their order where they please, but it seems like rather a short-sighted piece of business to overlook such of our own men as have for a long time been large patrons of the Company. As the Company must depend on the Charlottetown merchants for the business they have, this should be a case to be reciprocated when the opportunity offers.
