CORRESPONDENCE.

HON. MR. COLES AGAIN ON THE RECIPROCITY QUESTION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXAMINER.

SIR:—

In your last paper you say you "have yet failed to find any proof that the Provincial Delegates are at all answerable for Mr. Derby's conduct in submitting to Congress the intolerably insulting proposals with respect to a new Treaty between the Provinces and the United States, nor has our friend Mr. Coles advanced anything more than assertion calculated to criminate the Delegates." Now, Sir, I cannot be responsible for your want of finding proof to your satisfaction that the Delegates agreed to the proposal submitted by the American Secretary of the Treasury; but I think the fact of one of the Delegates, Mr. Henry, telegraphing to Dr. Tupper that he was afraid Congress would not agree to the proposals, showed the Delegates were in favour of them; and his second telegram, stating negotiations had failed that day "on account of the Committee of Ways and Means insisting on almost a prohibitory duty on agricultural produce, live stock and fish"—that this new demand was the reason for the withdrawal of the Delegates; and if any further proof is required, the following extracts from the Toronto Globe, published by Hon. George Brown, will end the matter:—"The most extraordinary part of Mr. Derby's report is the confidence with which he asserts that his views are endorsed by Mr. Galt and other prominent public men of Canada. In speaking of the manufactured articles proposed to be made free, Mr. Derby says:—'The Canadian Minister of Finance concedes that tools, implements and machinery, and books, should be included in the free list provided for by Treaty. He concedes 'patents also.' And at the close of the Report there is this important statement:—'Most of the views taken in this Report have been confirmed since it was written by a conference with some of the most able and influential men in the Provinces, and there is no reason to doubt that a treaty can be negotiated more satisfactory than that repealed.' There is reason to believe that most of our productions may be placed on the free list, that free ports may be discontinued, that duties imposed for revenue may be assimilated, and possibly some revenue drawn from several of the important staples of Canada." Here, Sir, we have the Globe considering it most extraordinary that Mr. Galt should endorse Mr. Derby's report, and says:—"Thank Providence that the danger has passed away. The indignation excited through Canada by the rumors that came from Washington, and reflected through the press in a manner that could not be mistaken; and if our negotiators, as alleged by Mr. Derby, were ready to grant the humiliating concessions asserted by that gentleman, they happily stopped in time." "We never had a doubt that the line of policy Brother Jonathan has been pursuing for some months past in regard to the Reciprocity Treaty was all a game—that the whole end and aim of it was to coerce the Provinces into immediate annexation, or, failing in that, into such a commercial arrangement as would directly and rapidly conduce to that much desired consummation. So far as Messrs. Galt & Co. are concerned, this little game of our Yankee friends seems to have been entirely successful—for they certainly succeeded in bringing the Canadian negotiators to their knees in a sufficiently humble spirit. There was this stumbling-block, however, in the way, that let Mr. Galt or Mr. Any-body-else sign as many papers as they liked, no Government dare present to the Canadian Parliament, for its sanction, such a measure of humiliating concession as that which the Delegates appear to have tendered to the Washington Government."

Here, Sir, you will find I was not the only person alarmed at the concessions the Delegates were making, as I considered humiliating to the Provinces.

Yours truly,

GEORGE COLES.

Charlottetown, 28th Feb'y., 1866.

P. S.—The following from the Scottish American shows that the Delegates made the proposition, and that it was endorsed by the President and Secretay McCulloch.

"The rejection of the liberal propositions of the British American delegation by Congressional Ways and Means Committee after the propositions were endorsed by the President and Secretary McCulloch &c."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXAMINER.

My dear Sir:—

I beg a corner's space in your next issue to respectfully call your attention, and that of your numerous readers, to the imperative and paramount duty of our fellow Colonists and our humble selves exerting all the means and interest at command to promote and encourage more frequent, more suitable, and more commodious steamer communication between Montreal and Halifax, N. S., the vessels, of course, touching at all the intermediate ports possible.

I am heartily glad to see that a Company is already formed, or is in a fair way of immediate formation, to open a direct line of communication by steamships between the above-named ports—the former one of the loveliest and most prosperous cities on this Continent, the other possessing one of the finest harbours on the sea, and destined, we fondly hope, in conjunction with her sister seaport city, St. John, N. B.—(I append the adjunct sister emphatically, feeling sure and happy in the assurance of the certain and speedy Confederation of Her Majesty's British North American Colonies in one noble bond of brotherhood)—to be to our new country the vast emporiums as well as winter outlets for our healthily developed and yearly increasing export and import trade. We will hope, dear Sir, that our local Government (I have no fear on this head myself) will bring before the Legislature this coming Session, a Bill to subsidize, to whatever they may consider the extent of our resources for such a laudable purpose, any substantial Company formed to increase steamship communication between Canada and the Maritime Provinces. I should, with many here, be glad to hear that the projectors of the new S. S. Company had opened share lists in Charlottetown for subscribers to their new enterprise, and thus afford us an opportunity of aiding, even in a small way, in an endeavour, of course, at the same time, turning an honest penny, to promote commercial and social intercourse with the inhabitants of the larger and wealthier B. N. A. Colonies, with whom and with which we are steadfastly purposed to be very soon politically united. I trust the coming Summer may see the new S. S. Company commence a course of full usefulness and operation. That it may have a most successful career, both before and after our Intercolonial Railway, is the sincere wish of,

Yours faithfully,

STEPHEN SWABEY.

Charlottetown, March 3rd, 1866.

THE MASONIC CONCERT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXAMINER.

"Music hath charms to sooth the savage breast—
To soften rocks and bend the knotted oaks."

The Masonic Concert came off as duly announced on Tuesday evening last, before, I think, one of the largest audiences I have ever witnessed in the Hall. Great credit is due to the young musician for the able way he played the accompaniments for the different singers, and especially for the "Island Waltzes and Gallop" (composed by himself), which he played as a duett with Miss Ritchie, with so much taste and execution. I have rarely witnessed (and certainly not here) anything played so excellently and with such a masterly touch as the "Carnival of Venice," by that gentleman.

The singing, for the most part, was good: the Chorusses, some of them, admirable, though some of the Solos were not sung with that confidence and precision one would have liked; but we must not expect great things at first from young amateurs. I listened to the "Englishman" with great pleasure, the singing and accompaniment were so admirably suited to one another; and the chorus of "Tenting to-night" was sung with much taste and feeling. But as it would take up too much of your valuable space by giving a separate dissertation on each, I must refrain, and conclude my remarks by stating that I derived much pleasure from the whole entertainment; and I hope that before long we will yet have another Concert by the same amateurs to help us wile away our closing winter evenings.

Yours, &c.

AN AUDITOR.

[FOR THE EXAMINER.]

MR. EDITOR:—

I have been lately transacting some trifling business with a friend, and we had occasion to pass some of the New Brunswick coins of twenty cents (20cts.) in the business. About the value of these we had a big dispute. Now, in the community in which I reside, these coins are current at one shilling and three pence currency; but I have been informed that the Banks and Treasury of P. E. I. take them at only one shilling currency.

Now, Sir, will you or some of your intelligent correspondents please to inform the public, through the Examiner, what the real value of these, in P. E. I. currency, are. I venture to assert that not one out of ten of the rural inhabitants of Prince and King's County are aware of the true value of these pieces. Besides, a tricky Yankee may make some profit out of them, at the expense of some innocent but incautious Islanders. The words which my friend used were, that the Summerside Bank had cried them down; but this, I presume, is a power beyond any prerogative possessed by the Summerside Bank or any other Bank. The Banks may refuse to take them for more than one shilling currency, but that, I think, is all they can do.

I am, Sir, yours truly,

A CAST-OFF PEDAGOGUE.

A reporter of the Chicago Tribune furnishes to that paper an account of a singular interview with a professional seer or astrologist of that city. The reporter disguised himself in female apparal so effectually as to deceive the prophet into the belief that he was really a woman. The apartments were crowded, and several hours were consumed in waiting for his turn before the reporter gained an interview. The astrologer assured him that a malign spell was hanging over his life and blighting his prospects, and offered, for fifty dollars, to remove it,—told him he was a widow, had not loved the deceased husband, would be married again to a middle-aged gentleman, and would go to France on a bridal trip.

The American shipbuilders and shipowners are crying aloud for protection; they say that it costs $110 per ton to build vessels in the United States, equal to those built at Quebec for $36; and when built, they cost nearly double as much to navigate as foreign ships. The fact is that the Yankee spread-eagle has a yoke around his neck, weights to his feet, and its tall feathers pulled out, and instead of soaring aloft, can do little more than grovel, scream, and show his natural viciousness, while a keeper feeds him.

A very learned and compassionate Judge in Texas, on passing sentence on John Jones, who had been convicted of murder, concluded his remarks a follows: "The fact is Jones, that the Court did not intend to order you to be executed before next Spring, but the weather was very cold: our jail, unfortunately, is in a very bad condition; much of the glass in the windows is broken; the chimneys are in such a dilapidated state that no fire can be made to render your apartments comfortable; besides, owing to the great number of prisoners, not more than one blanket can be allowed to each; to sleep sound and comfortable, therefore, is out of the question. In consideration of these circumstances, and wishing to lessen your sufferings as much as possible, the Court in the exercise of its humane compassion hereby orders you to be executed to-morrow morning, as soon after breakfast as may be convenient to the sheriff and agreeable to you."

We learn from the Toronto Leader that the arrival of the Governor General in Canda, is to be made the occasion for mustering and equipping a large force of the service militia, so that the system of their organization may be thoroughly tested, and that they may be put into a state of general efficiency preparatory for service at a moment's notice.

According to the Toronto Leader a somewhat uneasy feeling appears to prevail at military headquarters, inasmuch as all leave of absence to military officers has again been suspended turoughout Canada, a telegraphic order to that effect having been forwarded to the commanding officers of all stations in the Province.

A bill now before the U. S. Congress provides for the imposition of a differential duty of ten cents per pound on all teas imported into the United States from countries other than those of growth. The object of the increased duty is to put a stop to the importation of tea from Great Britian and the British North American Provinces

In the last twelve years there have been 5,372 lives lost by steamboat accidents in the United States.

After a recent battle in Sierra Leone, all the prisoners were killed and eaten.

If Southern reports are true, the number of deaths among the blacks for the year past has been two to one over the births.

California is a perfect wine vat. It produced one million of gallons last year.

A late American paper states that Colonies of European are arriving in Texas. The Poles are settling on Trinity River, near Palestine. The Germans and others from the Northwestern States are settling in Colonies.

There is a great drought in the Rhine district, and in the river itself there is so little water that several vessels have been stranded near Dusseldorf.

The Nor'wester says the Hudson Bay Company recently forwarded to St. Paul six thousand mink skins contained in twelve ordinary sized boxes—probably the most valuable package of furs ever sent to St. Paul. They were sold at nine dollars each, making a total of fifty-four thousand dollars. The duty upon the skins was twelve hundred dollars in gold.

Jones buys wheat at a railroad station not a hundred miles away. He is sharp, but did overreach himself once. In buying a load he placed a heavy plank upon the scales for convenience in weighing. After he had paid, he whispered to a crony, "Say nothing; I have shaved that fellow; I never deducted the plank but once—keep steady!" It took some time to convince him, but he finally did see that he had bought thirty pounds of plank twenty-one times. Jones don't like to be asked the price of pine plank by his best frieds.

I bequeath, said an Irishman in his will, "to my beloved wife all my property without reserve, and to my oldest son Patrick, one half of the remainder, and to Denis, my youngest, the rest. If anything is left it may go to Terrance McCarty."

THE PRINTING PRESS.

How wisely events follow each other in proper order! Just at the time when the mind of Europe was waking from a thousand years' lethargy and when means were required to spread abroad the results of the inquiries which the learned were making in all branches of science, Caxton gave to the world the Printing Press. By its instrumentality the discoveries and inventions of one land have become the property of the entire globe, and the advancement of science has been greatly promoted. No man of the present age has more fully comprehended this truth than Holloway. The same intellect that led him to the studies which resulted in the production of his celebrated Pills and Ointment saw at once the immense advantage, to the world as well as to himself, which might be drawn from this source. He laid his discoveries before the world, sowing his seed broad cast, wherever a written language is read, and modestly awaited the result. His confident statement of his theory led men to try his remedies; their intrinsic excellence when once tried established them firmly in the confidence of the public of both hemispheres, and Professor Holloway stands now, in the estimation of the people, as the most powerful opponent of all disease. For disorders of the liver and stomach, the Pills are claimed to be a swift and sure specific, and the claim is verified by an overwhelming mass of testimony. Now we all know how entirely the bodily health depends upon the condition of these two important organs. If the digestion is impared, the bowels disordered, and the liver to pid or congested, the whole frame suffers; the strength declines, the spirits droop, the complexion becomes cadaverous, the flesh wasted, supineness and despair take the places of energy and hopefulness, the sick man becomes as dead to the great objects and pursuits of life as if he were entombed alive Out of his self-sepulchre, as it were, this powerful remedy lifts him up as if by magic—a few timely doses of the Pills brings back digestion, appetite, and physical energy These statements are too plain, and too easily contradicted if untrue, to admit of the slightest doubt. On the contrary, we know them to be nothing but the literal fact. They are not founded upon common report, but upon the testimony of parties occupying high positions in society,—men of unblemished reputation and matured judgment,—that likewise is confirmed by circumstances within our own immediate knowledge.—Icerach Telegram.

SATURDAY NIGHT.—How many a kiss has been given—how many a curse—how many a caress—how many a look of hate—how many a kind word—how many a promise has been broken—how many a heart has been wrecked,—how many a soul lost—how many a loved one lowered to the narrow chamber—how many a babe has gone from earth to heaven—how many a little crib or cradle stands silent now, which last Saturday night held the rarest of all treasure of the heart! A week is a life. A week is a history. A week marks events of sorrow or of gladness, which people never heed. Go home to your family, man of business Go home, you heart-erring wanderer. Go home to the cheer that awaits, wronged waif on life's breakers. Go home to those you love, man of toil, and give one night to the joys and comforts fast flying by. Leave your books with complex figures—your dirty shop—your busy store. Rest with those you love; for God alone knows what next Saturday night will bring you. Forget the world of care and the battles with life which have furrowed the week Draw close around the family hearth. Saturday night has awaited your coming in sadness, to tears and silence. Go home to those you love, and as you bask in the loved presence and meet to return the loved embrace of your heart's pets, strive to be a better man and to bless God for giving his weary children so dear a stepping stone in the river to the Eternal, as Saturday night.

A very bad state of things exist in the Pennsylvania coal region Murders and robberies are so frequent that unless preventive measures are soon taken, it will be impossible for parties having legitimate interests to trust their lives in certain sections. The Pennsylvania Legislature has the subject under consideration, and several plans are proposed for sustaining law and order.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—An Inquest was held on Saturday, the 24th ultimo, by J. R. Bourke, Esqr, one of the Coroner's for Queen's County, at the house of Richard Mutlow, Lot 49, on view of the body of his son, a very interesting boy of about four years of age; when it appeared in evidence that on the child being missed, the father went in search of him, and found him under a log in the wood-pile, close to the house. It is supposed the child must have climbed upon the wood, and the wood had fallen upon him. When found he was quite dead. He was much bruised about the left temple. Death must have been instantaneous. Verdict accordingly.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—John McNeill, Esqr, one of Her Majesty's Coroner's for Queen's County, held an Inquest, on Tuesday, the 27th ultimo, on the body of one Charles Croker, who was found dead in the hay-loft of Mr. Jonathan Collings' stable Grafton street, on the same morning Croaker, though not regularly employed by Collings, was permitted, in consideration of little services rendered, to eat in his house and to sleep on the open hay-loft of his stable, where a crib containing some straw, an "old quilt" and a buffalo-robe, were the only lodging accomodations which he enjoyed all winter. He had been sick for a fortnight previously and during the afternoon and night of the 26th heart-rending groans were heard proceeding from the loft and cries of "Oh my! Oh my! what shall I do?" On hearing these cries, Collings visited Croaker to ascertain what the matter was, and, on enquiring, was told by Croaker that he had an attack of Dysentery. At 6 o'clock in the evening Collings brought up a bowl of tea and some bread, placed them on a box alongside the crib, and on visiting the loft again about 10 o'clock at night, the food remained untouched. Collings then retired and locked the stable, and on visiting the loft on the following morning, Croaker was found to be quite dead—his head and neck being frozen "as hard as a block." The Jury, on hearing these facts, returned the following verdict to which we beg to direct the special attention of those in authority, and of every humane person in the community, that they may see the necessity of providing a "House of Refuge" for destitute persons:—

"That the deceased came to his death on the morning of the 27th February, from inflammation of the bowels, accelerated by cold and extreme exposure, having no other shelter than that which was afforded by an open hayloft, during the present inclement winter; and the Jury regret that there is no House of Refuge in this city for the reception and relief of the destitute poor."

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Rheumatism and Neuralgia.—Though the former disease remorselessly attacks the young and the robust, and the latter ruthlessly selects its victims from the weak and delicate, the same medical treatment will infallibly cure both complaints. After the affected parts have been diligently fomented with hot brine, and the skin has been dried, Holloway's Ointment must be well and perseveringly rubbed in for a few minutes twice a day, and his Pills must be taken according to the printed directions wrapped round each box of his medicine. Both Ointment and Pills are accompanied by instructions designed for the public at large, and no invalid, who attentively reads them, can be at any loss how to doctor himself successfully.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS.

THE TRUE CATHARTIC AND FAMILY PILL.

The importance of this development of the true and Natural Cathartic cannot be over estimated. To have a Pill which never requires over two, and seldom but one for a dose, acting on the Bowels without the slightest Griping, or irritation, can be used with the greatest freedom by all who have suffered the trouble of long constipated tendency, and to check which has oftentimes ended in the opposite extreme of bowel weakness, will be found the true feature of the Eclectic Pills Their true character creates the expression of experienced Apothecaries, that long experience has never found their equal; from Physicians who have used Thousands in their practice, that the true idea of a Perfect Cathartic has never before been realized, and by thousands who have used them in their families, that they are the only true Family Pill they have ever seen.

Without descending to the clap-trap form of unmeaning puffs or false testimonials, confidence is asked to test them in Biliousness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Worms, Loss of Appetite, as a Spring Medicine, all derangements of the system caused by a disordered stomach, and a general Family Pill

SPLENDID

Jewellery, Watches, Diamonds, &c

FOR THE HOLIDAYS!

THE HOUSE of BOSANQUET, GIRAUD & CO, PARIS, have the pleasure of announcing that they have opened an Agency in the City of New York, for the sale of their widely-known JEWELLERY, WATCHES, &c, and for the purpose of making their goods as extensively known and appreciated in the United States as they now are, and have been for over 70 years, in Europe; they have determined on a plan by which poor and rich alike may have the advantage of their splendid styles. As a preliminary, they would remark that they manufacture and sell no imitation Jewellery or Watches, but

All are Warranted GOLD of the finest Workmanship.

Our customers will also have the great advantage of a constant succession of new and recherché styles and patterns with which we shall keep our New York Agency supplied.

We have adopted the plan of sale, now so popular, of charging a uniform price, and this price will invariably be $2 FOR EACH ARTICLE, no matter how costly it may be. The expenses of conducting our New York Agency are paid by the sale of Certificates or Coupons representing the various articles. These Certificates are sold at 50 cents each, or five for $2, and each Certificate will show the holder the particular article he or she is entitled to, on payment of an additional $2. If the article named on the Certificate is not desired, the holder will oblige us, when he returns the Certificate, by stating what other article of the same value he or she may prefer, and it will be sent with pleasure. OUR AIM IS TO PLEASE, and every means to that end will be exerted. We solicit a trial from every one who reads this notice, as we are confident of giving the utmost satisfaction.

THE STOCK COMPRISES,

Amongst other articles, Splendid Clocks, Gold and Silver watches, Rings set with Diamonds, Rubies, Pearls, Garnet and other Stones (solitaire and in clusters), Ladies' sets of Jewellery, comprising Pins and Ear rings of the most fashionable styles, set in Precious Stones of every variety, together with a large assortment of Gold and Enamelled and Pearl Sets, Gold Studs and Sleeve Buttons of the most beautiful patterns, Gents' Bosom and Scarf Pins, and an endless variety of Bracelets, Chains, Musical Boxes, Head Dresses, Combs, Charms, &c. In case any of our patrons are not in want of articles of Jewellery, and would prefer Silverware, we will send, for ANY CERTIFICATE returned to us a richly engraved SET OF CASTORS or BUTTER DISH, beautifully chased and plated.

Agents are Wanted

In every part of the United States and Provinces, and to all such very liberal inducements will be offered, and, on application, a circular of terms will be forwarded. We prefer money sent in Post Office Orders where they can be obtained, or by Bank Draft to our order. Address all orders to our Agency, which will be conducted by Messrs. JAQUET, STERLING & CO.

189 Broadway, New York.
