ity Center last night. Wilfred Smith, LEFT, who was toastmaster, is speaking with John W. Hogan, CENTER, former president of the BIS and his son Elmer, BIS president. Guest speaker for the evening was Very Rev. F.J. Maloney, CSaR. Guests of the Society included the cast and specialties of "Norah's Folly."

Lions Club Members To Portland Maine

GEORGETOWN — A large attendance featured the Georgetown Lions Club meeting in the club room on Tuesday night, with King Lion Joseph E. "Sonny" Johnson, presiding. It was announced that the local club would be represented at the District Convention, to be held in Portland, Maine in June by three voting delegates. Those making the trip to Portland, where they will support Lion Bill Brown's bid for District Governor, will be King Lion Joseph E. "Sonny" Johnson; Secretary, Lion Eric Wood and Lion Harold Publicover.

Treasurer, Lion Guy Coffin, presented the Financial Report, which was adopted. A very considerable amount of correspondence on a wide variety of matters was read to the meeting by the Secretary. A letter was read from Lion Al. Gill of Charlottetown, who is the Campaign Chairman for the Bill Brown's campaign for District Governor.

The Georgetown Club voted to make a cash donation towards the campaign fund for Lion Brown.

The Club is also setting up a convention fund to assist the Club's three voting delegates on their trip to Portland. In this regard it was decided to explore the possibility of holding a mammoth Bingo, in the Georgetown Rink in July. To make the necessary arrangements and plans for this event the following Committee was appointed: Chairman, Lion Herbert Stewart and committee members, Lions, Allan MacPhee and Dennis Thibodeau. It was decided to hold a 50-50 draw, with the drawing to be held at the dance on the last Saturday in April.

The Club ordered 200 Safety Triangle road signs for sale to car owners. Each member will be responsible for the sale of a number of the Safety Triangle. The District Governor's news letter showed that the Georgetown Club were in ninth position in the District and in second place among Island Clubs in total points.

A letter was read from the National Employment Service in Charlottetown, stating that officials of their office would be in the Royal Canadian Legion Hall in Georgetown on April 19th, from 9:30 a.m., to 6:00 p.m., receiving applications from persons desirous of obtaining employment in the Food and Fish Processing Plants in Kings County.

The King Lion reported that he and the Secretary had attended a recently held zone meeting at St. Peter's and that a Zone Rally would be held in St. Pe-

Dance Festival Awards Trophies

It was announced yesterday morning by Tom Burke, president of the P.E.I. Dance Festival Association that winners in many categories of the P.E.I. Dance Festival to be held from May 16th to the 19th will be presented trophies. This is the first year that trophies will be awarded to winners.

The P.E.I. Dance Festival Association Shield will be awarded to the competitor with the highest mark in the festival. The Caledonia Club Trophy will go to the highest point winner in the senior category (17 years and over), in which there are four classes. Dr. Frank Burke has donated a shield for the winner of the Junior Farmers and 4-H Clubs Square Dance, and other shields have been donated by Dr. John MacLellan, Dr. Kent Ellis, Dr. Allan MacMillan, Dr. J.A. MacMillan, Dr. L.H. Killora; Dr. Temple Hooper and Stead's Pharmacy.

Adjudicator for this year's festival will be Irene Walde, Rawdon, Quebec, who has adjudicated dance festivals in Quebec and Ontario and operated her own dance studios in both provinces. She has been dancing since the age of 3, and is a member of the British Association Teachers of Dancing holding a Teacher's Diploma, and a member of the Montreal Highland Dancers Association of officers for the club. Chairman of this committee is past president, Lion Howard S. MacLean and other committee members are: Lion Guy Coffin and Paul Batchelder.

In city police court yesterday, a city resident, Carman John Dugas charged with leaving the scene of an accident received a fine of $60 and costs or 20 days when he appeared before Magistrate A.J. Haslam, QC. In addition to the fine the accused had his licence automatically suspended for a period of three months.

J. J. Greene Speaks Here

Agriculture Minister J.J. Greene who told dairy farmers Wednesday the government is guaranteeing they will receive $4.00 per hundred pounds for milk going into a manufactured product like butter, will speak here tonight to the annual meeting of the P.E.I. Dairywomen's Association.

The $4.00 price level will apply to milk testing 3.5 percent butterfat and the guaranteed price level is at the factory.

The dairywomen begin their discussions this forenoon at 10 o'clock. They will meet again at 2:00 in the afternoon and will hear Mr. Greene at the dinner which is scheduled for 6:30.

Daniel MacPherson, Oyster Bed Bridge is the association president.

The sessions are being held at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Island Flights Are Delayed

A thick blanket of fog that covered most of the province and the Maritimes yesterday morning delayed the scheduled Eastern Provincial Airways flight from Charlottetown to Summerside to Moncton and the prevailing conditions which existed in the Magdalen all day forced the scheduled flight from Charlottetown to be cancelled.

Passengers scheduled to leave Charlottetown by air for Moncton yesterday morning were taken to Summerside by taxi where they boarded a delayed flight for Moncton. The flight was scheduled to leave Charlottetown at 10:40 and Summerside at 11:10. That flight departed from Summerside about noon yesterday.

The scheduled flight to the Magdalen was cancelled yesterday morning and it was hoped that the flight would be rescheduled for the afternoon but weather conditions in the Magdalen did not improve and it was forced to be cancelled.

PUTS OFF EXPO VISIT

OTTAWA (CP) — Prime Minister Pearson has postponed his Saturday visit to the Montreal

site of the world's fair, his office said Thursday. Instead the prime minister will visit the Expo 67 site "within the next two weeks." Mr. Pearson was to have inspected the site on his way to Quebec City for a meeting of the Quebec Liberals. No reason was given for the change in plans.

James Urban MacDonald, city charged with speeding, was fined $20 and costs or 10 days.

Edward Francis McIvor, Kinross, charged with failing to stop at a red traffic light, was fined $10 and costs or five days.

A Cherry Valley man, Albert Dwayne Ings, charged with unnecessary horn blowing was also fined $10 and costs or five days.
