

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE. How Celebrated in Halifax. The Jubilee Salute Review of Troops—Public Gardens. GRAND PROMENADE CONCERT.

(Special Correspondence of The Examiner.) How shall I describe the singing of that vast assemblage? It was indescribably grand. The National Anthem, several odes, and again the National Anthem with variations, came floating on the breeze from the thousands of little throats, "as the sound of many waters."

The immense concourse then moved down and out upon the Common, where 2,000 troops awaited the hour for review. They were as fine a lot of men as ever wore the brilliant uniform of the British soldier, and were much admired. The Royal Artillery in dark blue, the Royal Engineers with their scarlet tunics and broad stripes, the Infantry and the Halifax Rifles in dark green, with a score or more of mounted officers dashing over the Common in their handsome costumes, presented a scene not soon forgotten.

Twelve o'clock was now drawing nigh, and the troops remained in steady line extending from one end of the Common to the other. At this point your correspondent returned to Citadel Hill, from which every point of interest could be taken in. In the harbor lay the Northampton, the Canada and the Pythian, while a little to the right lay a French man-of-war. At each of the eleven guns in the saluting battery on Citadel Hill stood the gunners, layards in hand, ready for the order of the commanding officer, Lieut. Anderson. All was now in readiness for the great Jubilee salute of fifty guns!

The following programme of positions of societies was agreed to:— Marshal. Police Force. Band. Volunteers. Oddfellows. Orange Society. Band. Sons of Temperance. Bagpipers. Caledonian Club. Band. Free Masons. Trades Procession.

Methodist Church.

N. B. AND P. E. ISLAND CONFERENCE—MARYSVILLE, June 21.

After singing the Rev. J. K. King led in prayer. Journal was read and approved. Rev. George Steel presented report of the Parsonage Fund Committee. Among other things it recommended that $100 be granted towards Montague mission, when the mission had raised $350 by local effort and had fulfilled the requirements of the constitution. Also $25 to West Cape mission, where the remainder of the debt had been secured.

EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE AND SACKVILLE INSTITUTIONS.

Dr. Inch, President of Mount Allison University, presented report of the Education Society and spoke on behalf of Sackville Institutions. There ought to be more money raised for the Education Society. The young men for the ministry were not receiving sufficient help. If twenty-five cents per member were raised the young men would receive a larger amount and more of them could be helped. Then another Professorship is needed and God was preparing them with a man. He referred to Mr. Tweedie who had distinguished himself in England and on the continent. This young man was a graduate of Mount Allison and had made the highest marks of any who had ever gained a Gilchrist Scholarship from this Dominion.

Last year they had 248 students in the institutions. The Ladies Academy was never in a more thoroughly satisfactory condition. Financially and morally it was all that could be desired. He left Mr. Davis to speak of the male academy. The college has had very many encouragements during the year. Not only has there been an increase of students, but there has also been a growing feeling of attachment on behalf of the students for their Alma Mater.

Mr. Davis, Principal of the Male Academy, said that the work of the year had been satisfactory. The number of students is more than last year. Acknowledge the practical sympathy of the N. B. and P. E. I. Conference. The Male Academy has done a good work, and compares favorably with the other institutions. He said that Dr. Stewart would speak of the spiritual concerns of the Academy.

Dr. Stewart, Dean of Mount Allison, said that during the past, the number of theological students had been limited. They have felt the necessity of devoting themselves very largely to other studies. The religious life of the students is, generally speaking, praiseworthy. The students of P. E. Island have very greatly helped the religious life of the institution. Several were converted to God during the past year. He believed that the College is a great power in the moral elevation of the country. Education is taking a higher plane, and the people should appreciate the efforts put forth for securing a higher education.

Dr. Pickard had watched with interest the work of the year. He was sure that the past year had been one of prosperity. He spoke in terms of praise of Dr. Stewart and Dr. Inch. The Male Academy has made a rapid and successful stride during the year. He hoped that the Conference would look well to the interests of the Male Academy.

Rev. M. R. Knight then read the report of the visitors to Sackville. It was very satisfactory. Adopted.

Rev. C. Evans moved a resolution embodying the mind of the conference on the above matter, which was adopted. Rev. L. S. Johnson brought up the report of the children's fund, which evoked a long and earnest discussion. Several amendments were moved to various parts of it by Rev. John F. Estey and G. Steele. Committee recommended that $38 be paid for each claim. Rev. T. Marshall moved the following amendment:—"When brethren receive over $750 the payment be at the rate of $20 per child. On all missions and dependent circuits and all super-numeraries. Deceased ministers on the basis of $40 until children fund and salary shall reach the sum of $750, when beyond that the sum shall be $20 per child." This resolution, after much debate, was carried by 40 votes for and 35 against. In the evening session, the Rev. Charles Comben moved for a reconsideration, which was carried by 38 votes against 27. Rev. T. Marshall then moved his amendment again and supported by a speech of great interest. He contended that the men who advocated a change in the constitution of the fund were not enemies but friends.

Revs. C. H. Paisley and Wm. Dobson supported this position. After a protracted discussion Mr. Marshall's amendment prevailed by 35 against 34. The committee was given permission to meet again. Conference adjourned.

A FEW days ago we were shown a letter, recently received from abroad by a party in this town, which bore unmistakable evidence of having been opened and sealed again after being posted, and before its receipt here. The envelope and enclosed sheet were both torn, and the envelope had been clumsily glued together again. No doubt the person who opened it imagined, from the peculiar feel of the letter, that it contained money, but was disappointed on finding instead a post office order, which was of no use to him.
