VICTORY ! ! !

POPE'S ELECTION.

Great Triumph for the Liberal-Conservative Party.

Queen's County Condemns the Grit Government.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23, 1876.

There seems to be a spirit of unrest in the streets and in the offices. Parties meet with the question, Who? on their lips, and part with the response, Yes, who. To-day all are for Tilden, to-morrow for Hayes, and vice versa. Business is unusually dull owing probably to the indecision regarding the Presidential election. Some of our large houses have already fallen, and others are wavering. Fancy stores are brightening with goods for the holidays, and judging by the number of the fair sex flitting in and out, their worth is fully appreciated. The session of Congress convening two weeks from next Monday will doubtless be one of absorbing interest and unusual excitement. With the great anxiety and suspense in regard to the recent election which the people of the United States have suffered the returns even from the South are still in abeyance, on which the issue mainly depends may be so indefinite, and so many side points will remain to be adjusted, that for the first time in our history we may not be reliably advised as to who shall be our next President until the 14th of February when the electoral vote will be declared officially. The interest in the subject is as intense now, apparently, as it was on Wednesday morning succeeding the election, and forms the staple of conversation here at the National Capital. A temporary lull in the excitement is however, noticeable, pending the count in South Carolina, Louisiana, and Florida, especially in the latter State, as it [illegible] sibly be ascertained for some days to come. The fact that there have been no riots or disorderly proceedings in the principle cities of the Union where partizan feeling has reached the highest pitch, and the general willingness manifested to abide peacefully the result as declared by the proper authorities in the disputed States are the sure guarantees of the disposition of our people to accept cheerfully the choice and to see that the man who has been fairly elected is peacefully inaugurated on the coming 5th of March.

Q. O. N.

THE ANGLIN JOB.

One of the most violent of the Grit press discourses on the Anglin printing job after the following style:

"Our loyalty to the Reform Party and our faith in the principles which it has so long and so consistently maintained will not permit us to let so gross a violation pass unrebuked. No doubt care will be taken that the blunder is not repeated, but an exercise of that duty a year ago would have saved the Reform Party the weight of this disagreeable responsibility and the Government a still more disagreeable responsibility—that of inconsistency."

Again:—

"We have said, and again repeat it, that Mr. Anglin clearly and unmistakedly violated the Independence of Parliament Act by becoming a party to such a contract, and that we would not complain did he resign the office he now fills."

And yet it supports the Government that bribes its supporters in the manner indicated above.

REVIEWS.

The Edinburgh Review for October contains the following articles:—

1. Bancroft's Native Races of North America.
2. Secret Correspondence of Marie Antoinette.
3. The Declaration of Paris.
4. Sir Philip Sydney.
5. Dr. Smith's Dictionary of Christian Antiquities.
6. Daniel Deronda.
7. Morality without Metaphysics.
8. Depreciation of Silver.
9. Bosnia and Bulgaria.

"He was followed by M. Laflamme, who boasted that he had placed twenty of his friends in office since he had represented the county."

This is a curious boast for a new Minister to make, but it is about the only thing that M. Laflamme has done since he obtained a seat in the House of Commons. Putting their friends in office is a sacred duty with your good 'Reformers' politicians, and there is not one of them who does not live up to the articles of their creed religiously. It is in this way that the Superannuation Fund has been swollen so largely beyond the original intention of Parliament, and and the cost of 'running the machine' so greatly increased from year to year.—Toronto Mail.

COMMUNICATIONS.

ON THE DAY OF THE ELECTION,

LAST Wednesday, in conformity with the new Dominion Law, there were a grea many stores closed, and I noticed, during the day, numerous persons gazing anxiously and apprehensively at the shutters, and then go round the back way, apparently to see if any person was defunct, and soon sadly reappearing with heart-broken countenances, led many to believe that such was the fact. Many curiously disposed persons walked miles, I believe, in gratifying their curiosity on this point.

But, seriously speaking, the closing of these stores must have produced an amount of agony, frightful to contemplate. An old smoker, deprived of the weed for a day, experiences torments that cannot be described, but who can picture the the terrible agonies of a regular, who is obliged to do without his usual cocktail. The knowing ones, however, secured their flasks the night before.

The rival parties each had their meetings at their respective Halls—the Mackenzie Party at the Athenæum, and the John A. at the Market Hall.

At the Athenæum the Hon. Mr. Dodd acted as Chairman, but as there were no speakers, the audience, while awaiting the arrival of the candidate, Mr. Welsh, had to amuse themselves by singing several papular songs; among which were "Tapioca," "Old Uncle Ned," etc. Frequently there would be a shout "here he is!" and then perhaps to the intense disgust of the meeting an Indian or gentleman of color would appear. Finally the defeated candidate arrived. He then addressed the meeting with a few good-humored remarks, and left. As he was going down stairs, an exceedingly ragged fellow asked him—"How do you feel, Bill?" This was too much. That man is now in the Hospital. The meeting then finished up with the song and walk round—"There's Something Wrong a' Brewin'," with a terrific chorus, and three cheers for the Queen.

At the Market Hall there were about one hundred Chairmen and about fifty Secretaries—there scarcely being standing room for them. Many of these did not appear to have their Sunday clothes on. Soul-stirring speeches were delivered by Messrs. Pope, Brecken, Bovyer, Haviland, Lawson, Ferguson, McMasters, and other orators. The musicial element did not appear to predominate as at the Athenæum—probably on account of the time taken up by oratory. But I shall never forget the masterly manner in which "God Save the Queen," was rendered at the conclusion of the meeting, by the trained and talented voices present. Even an Insurance Agent, lately arrived, who was present, and who has never been known to tell a lie, admitted that. Mr. Bowers, who started it, was so much affected at its rendition, that he had to leave the Hall to hide his emotion.

There was another meeting down town, that night, at a corner presided over by C. M. and P. P., and it was unanimously agreed that if a vote was not worth a drink, it was not worth polling. There were no cheers for the Queen at the conclusion of this meeting, but simply imprecatious on those politicians, who, in order to save their pockets, had introduced the late innovations.

This, Mr. Editor is all that I am able to collect in answer to your request about the late Election.

OBSERVER.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

PREPARE for winter.

"DECLARATION DAY," Tuesday next.

REV. MR. BAYNE of Pictou is dead.

THE ELECTION passed off quietly.

THERE will bo but one more steamer from Boston this season.

HALIFAX is to be the "Winter Port" of the Dominion—if possible.

OUR FRIENDS throughout the country will please take notice that we want money.

MONEY WANTED.—Subscribers, please send along the amounts of your "little bills."

"STEEL RAILS" are being laid on the track between Charlottetown and the Royalty Junction.

DR. TUPPER, in the Mail of the 22d inst., strongly advocates the claims of Halifax to the position of "Winter Port."

THE Railway is, we are pleased to learn, moving a large quantity of oats and other produce.

THE Steamers plying between Montreal and the Maritime ports, will probably finish their work for the season next week.

A THRILL of pleasure always passes along the right arm of our Devil as he signs the Post Office receipt for a registered letter.

THE Torchlight Procession advertised to take place on to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, will not, owing to the condition of the streets, take place.

DROWNED.—Caleb Roublie, mate of the [illegible] off a colliery wharf at Pictou on Wednesday night last. He belonged to Tryon.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—Rev. Thomas Duncan, the new pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, will be inducted on the first Tuesday of December. The ladies of St. Andrew's are preparing a welcome of a social character.—Halifax Chronicle.

LEGAL.—After passing a highly creditable examination, Mr. Angus A. McLean, of this city, (late a student in the office of Hon. W. W. Sullivan,) was recently admitted an Attorney in the Supreme Court. We congratulate Mr. McLean.

SUGAR.—The Montreal Gazette calculates that the sugar crop of the year will be 300,000 tons less than usual, a circumstance which has especial interest for all householders, as well as for business people. It will be necessary, therefore, for the locks of pantries to be fitted with proper keys.

POTATOE EXTRAORDINARY.—A. D. Gordon, Esq., has handed us a potatoe that is phenomenon in its way. It measures about 12 inches in length by 6 in width, and weighs 2½ lbs. If potatoes of this kind were generally raised, the measure of the potatoe would be by the cord, not by the bushel.—Pictou Standard.

MORE RECRUITS.—The 87th regiment is almost daily adding to its number such as shall be defenders of its country. To-day three young men were sworn in at the Stipendiary Magistrate's office, viz., Thomas Walsh, Joseph Wilson, and Charles Connors. Only one of these was a native of Halifax, the others belonging respectively to Prince Edward Island and Liverpool, G. B.—Halifax Reporter.

HALIFAX THE WINTER PORT.—The Reporter commenting upon this subject says:

"It must also be remembered that great praise is due to the far-seeing statesman who, studious at all times of a national policy, saw, in the Allan contract, that the words "or Halifax" were inserted, and thus made it possible for his successor to accede to the wish of the people of Halifax. It was always understood by him and his colleagues that all the force of Canada should be excited to secure a great Canadian seaport on the Atlantic, as part of the national undertaking connected with the Intercolonial."

HEDGING FOR DEFEAT.—La Minerve is informed that Mr. Laurier is quietly preparing for an election in Drummond and Athabaska, as Mr. Laflamme, if defeated in Jacques Chatier — and Ministerialists admit that defeat is inevitable,—will be shelved, and the succession to the Cabinet will devolve on Mr. Laurier. How will that gentleman get over his repugnance to a man whose crimes 'are rank and smell to heaven' and who coined money out of 'the most helpless of God's creatures?'—Montreal Gazette.
