W.C.T.U. NOTES

DID YOU EVER HEAR
Did you ever hear of a man who lost his job because he was a total abstainer?

Did you ever hear of an insurance company that offered reduced premiums to booze addicts?

Did you ever hear of a woman saying, "My husband would be the best man in the world if he would only drink?"

Did you ever hear of a chauffeur who could drive his car with more safety if he took a short of alcohol before starting out?

Did you ever hear of a railway engineer who stood better with his employers if he patronized the saloon or cocktail bar?

Did you ever hear of a child who complained because his daddy did not come home half-soused?

Did you ever hear of a man who objected to his daughter marrying a man because he was not a booze addict?

Did you ever hear of a woman complaining because her husband spent too little time in the grocery?

Did you ever hear of a murderer on the gallows declaring that his abstinence practices led him to his predicament?

Did you ever hear of a man who beat his wife and thrashed his baby because he was sober when he came home?

Did you ever hear of a house owner who charged higher rentals during some shipping and export interest. Flax moved higher on buying orders which found light offerings. Rye was slightly easier. Class two and international wheat agreement prices both moved one-eighth cent higher. No overnight export loadings were reported today.
