Combines Blow Safe Lead

By NORMAN MacDONALD

Twice this season the Enman Drug Combines blew a safe-looking lead in the final period. The first one had Lewis MacDonald's Borden Nationals snatching a game from the Combines, and Wednesday night the Eagles were down 5-1 and tied the contest 5-all. Those Combines will have to remember that a game isn't over until the final siren.

Old Timers Get Ready

The Summerside "Over-the-Hills" are starting to flex their muscles in preparation for their tussle with the Charlottetown Old - Timers. Chick Gallant that old right-winger with the guided missile, will be back on his old beat. Walter Campbell, "The Rock" of the forties, Joe Bernard, Frankie Woodside, Maynard Schurman, and Charlie Deighan, are all due to perform. Charlie was one of P.E.I.'s best junior products, but is now a senior. (I was almost going to add "citizen".) There are even rumors that Ernest "Lippy" Gaudet will cast off the hobbles of advancing age and don the blades. We don't know about you, but this we gotta see. We've also heard that the genial doctor, Jim Saunders, will be between the pipes. He was in there in the last old-timers' game, and looked like Vezina Trophy material, on a couple of shots anyway. All in all, it looks like a bonanza of entertainment, and if you choose an easy chair in the living room for a seat at Civic Stadium for this one, you're beginning to show your age, pardner.

Crozier, Rookie Of Year?

Crozier, the Red Wing goaler, has an edge on all "rookie of the year" aspirants, but may be beaten by some player's display of brilliance in the latter stages of the schedule. Ron Ellis, after his two injuries in quick succession, is back in the groove again and will give everyone a fight for rookie honors. At one time Cournoyer looked good but he has faded considerably. We're betting on Ellis if he doesn't get injured again.

Making Long Stories Short

Stan Mikita is slowly but fairly surely narrowing the gap between him and his linemate, Bobby Hull, in the scoring race which Mikita won last year.

The Summerside Pee-Wees will soon be going on their biennial visit to Natick, Mass to play the Natick team there. With them will go a fairly large group of parents and fans. Each centre takes its turn playing host, and the return visits have resulted in many new friendships.

Forbes Kennedy, who had finally won a regular job with the Boston Bruins, is now out for the season with a broken collar bone.

BRITISH CONSOL WINNERS

The Doug Cameron foursome from Charlottetown won the British Consols bonspiel that were held at the Charlottetown Curling Rink the past week and will represent the Island at the National finals at Saskatoon in March. Shown above, are: Bobby Dillon, lead, George Dillon, second; Sydney E. Green, presenting the trophy for the MacDonald Tobacco Company, Allan Smith, mate and skip Doug Cameron.

Saints Win Eighth; Defeat Tommies 11-4

St. Dunstan's University Saints made it eight in a row without a setback Saturday with a convincing 11-4 win over a spirited St. Thomas University club. The Saints overcame a 2-1 first period deficit and never looked back as they outscored the Tommies 3-0 in the second and 6-2 in the third.

Hardworking George Monaghan connected for four big goals, two of them in a space of 21 seconds in the third period. Billy MacMillan, defending scoring champion, ran his total up to 30 points with his three goals and three assists. He is now six points short of his total last year and eight points short of the league record for a season set by Dick Tingley two years ago.

Maurice Roy fired two goals and drew four assists and Derrel Pollock and Andre Gelinas scored singles for St. Dunstan's. Denis DeCarufel, working on a line with Roy and MacMillan, had three assists.

Paul Oulette, a scrappy winger from Bathurst, N.B., led the SDU attack with two goals, while linemates Tom MacCarthy and Greg Morris garnered one each.

Referee Dewar Judson assessed 18 penalties, eleven to St. Thomas. St. Dunstan's outshot the Tommies 56-16.

Winners of the "Three Star Selection" awards were George Monaghan, Bill MacMillan, and Vince Mulligan.

The Saints are now idle until their game with Mount Allison University Mounties Feb. 27.

Detroit Topples Rangers; Bruins Tie Maple Leafs

DETROIT (AP)—Gordie Howe scored his 20th and 21st goals of the season Sunday night, the first on a solo effort and the second while killing a penalty, to lead Detroit Red Wings to a 6-2 victory over New York Rangers.

Howe's goals put him past the 20-mark for the 16th straight season.

The victory kept the Wings in contention in the tight National Hockey League race.

The Wings broke up the game with a four-goal second period, scoring 59 seconds apart with teammate Ron Murphy in the penalty box late in the period.

Floyd Smith got the first one, blasting a 20-foot slap shot past goalie Jacques Plante at 14:05 for his 11th goal, on a setup by Norm Ullman.

Then Howe, guarded by Harry Howell and Phil Goyette in front of the Ranger net, jabbed in Alex Delvecchio's rebound at 15:04.

The two short - handed goals during the same penalty gave the wings a 5-2 lead. They added a power play goal in the final period when Delvecchio's point shot caromed in off Ted Lindsay for the 39-year-old Lindsay's 12th goal.

Detroit outshot New York 18-7 in the first period, but had to settle for a 1-1 tie.

Howe scored the opening goal at 15:27 when he faked by Wayne Hillman inside the Ranger blue line, fought off Doug Robinson and Howell halfway to the goal, broke loose and put the puck behind Plante.

Earl Ingarfield got it back with Howe serving a penalty, slapping a 50 - footer into the short side at 18:45 for his 12th goal.

Ron Murphy snapped in a pass from Howe at 1:38 of the second period on a power play for a 2-1 Detroit lead. But Lou Angotti got it back, tipping in Jim Neilson's screen shot for his seventh goal at 4:18.

Then Rookie Detroit defenceman Gary Bergman went through the Ranger team to score his third goal at 10:36, sliding the puck between Plante's pads to touch off a burst of three goals in less than five minutes.

Eagles Clinch First Place

SUMMERSIDE — RCAF Eagles clinched first place in the Tri-Service Hockey League here over the weekend by swamping visiting Cornwallis Cougars in a doubleheader.

The Eagles now meet Shearwater Flyers in the first of a best of three semi-final series for the title a week from this Tuesday here.

Scoring 4-2 and 18-4 victories, the Eagles completely outclassed their Navy opponents, outshooting them 78-19 in the first game and 79-14 in the second.

In the first contest Friday night the Cornwallis goalie, Milne, played a fantastic game in stopping 75 of the 79 shots fired at him. During the game, however, he pulled a ligament in his knee and had to sit out the second tilt.

Hutchings paced the airmen Friday night with a brace of goals while singletons were picked by Buffett and Martin. Gagnon and Smale tallied for the visitors.

Saturday afternoon the injured Milne was replaced between the pipes by sub-goalie Deg and he enjoyed less success than his teammate, allowing 18 goals.

Harold Martin spearheaded the Eagle attack with four goals while teammates Tony Licari and Larry Boone each came up with three-goal hattricks.

Scoring for the Cougars were Gill with a pair and Smale and Dower with singles.

TORONTO 2 — BOSTON 2

BOSTON (CP)—Boston Bruins rallied on two third-period goals Sunday night to earn a 2-2 draw with Toronto Maple Leafs in a National Hockey League game.

The last-place Bruins came to life early in the third period when Johnny Bucyk and Orland Kurtenbach connected with a span of two minutes and 39 seconds. The goals wiped out a lead the Leafs had built on markers by George Armstrong and Red Kelly.

The tie gave Boston three out of a possible four points during the weekend and kept alive their chances of escaping the NHL cellar. New York Rangers lost twice and saw their fifth-place lead dwindle to eight points.

Bucyk scored on a delayed penalty call against Andy Bathgate, who had interferred with the Bruins forward before he got into position for his screened goal at 2:13.

Kurtenbach's equalizer came at 4:52. He took a pass from Reggie Fleming with his back to goalie Terry Sawchuk and scored on a back-hander from an improbable angle.

An earlier Boston goal, at 14:40 of the first period, was nullified by referee Frank Udvari on grounds Fleming had his stick above his shoulder when he deflected a shot behind Sawchuk.

Kelly's 13th of the season sent the Leafs ahead 1-0 while both teams were one man short midway through the first. He took a pass from Bob Pulford at full speed and beat Jack Norris with a 15-footer.

Armstrong pushed the Leafs in front 2-0 in the second, drilling a short shot past Norris while the Boston defence was out of position.

The improving Bruins have now won three and tied once in their last six games. The Leafs have lost only one of their last eight starts, winning six times and tying once.

First Period — 1. Toronto, Kelly 13 (Pulford, Baun) 11:39. Penalties — Green 6:20, Horton 10:33, Westfall 11:01.

Second period — 2. Toronto, Armstrong 12 (Keon, Moore) 9:15. Penalties — Brewer 0:29, Stewart 12:46.

Third Period—3. Boston, Bucyk 17 (Boivin, Oliver) 2:13; 4. Boston, Kurtenbach 4 (Fleming, Williams) 4:52. Penalties — Brewer, Westfal 16:55.

Montreal Canadiens Tie Chicago Black Hawks 2-2

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago Black Hawks came from behind twice to tie Montreal Canadiens 2-2 in National Hockey League action Sunday night.

The deadlock left the Hawks on top of the National Hockey League by four points over the Canadiens and Toronto Maple Leafs, who also played a 2-2 tie Sunday night with Boston Bruins.

Pierre Pilote pulled the Hawks even at 2-2 midway in the second period with a 45-footer that was screened from the view of Canadiens' goalie Charlie Hodge.

Montreal had taken a 2-1 lead five minutes earlier on a goal by Dave Balon, who scored on a neat pass from Henri Richard. Claude Larose of the Canadiens scored the first goal at 16:51 of the first period after team-mate John Ferguson stole the puck from Denis Hull in Chicago ice and slipped it to Larose, who was in front of Glenn Hall in the Chicago net.

Phil Esposito evened the score at 2:06 of the second period while Jean Beliveau of Montreal was in the penalty box. The Hawk center got his stick on a long shot by Pilote and deflected it into the cage over Hodge's shoulder.

Balon was forced to leave the game midway in the second period when he caught Pilote's stick flush in the face. He was bleeding profusely when he went to the first aid room, where the diagnosis was he possibly had suffered a fractured nose.

The Canadiens winger was hit accidentally during a scramble near the Chicago cage. Pilote was off balance and swung around with his stick attempting to regain it.

Referee John Ashley put in a busy night, calling 11 penalties. Pilote drew the most severe, however, getting a 10-minute misconduct for complaining to linesman Bill Morrison of an off-side call.

The game marked the return to action of Chicago scoring star Bobby Hull, who had missed four games with an ailing knee.

SUMMARY

First period—1. Montreal, Larose 19 (Ferguson) 16:51. Penalties—Richard, Esposito 3:19, Picard 13:05.

Collicutt who received two minor and two misconduct penalties during the game refused to leave the ice, after being asked to do so several times by referee in chief Gerald Keough, and Phillip Harper, and the coach of the O'Leary team. This caused quite a bit of confusion and forced the game to the Tignish team. Tallying for the home team were: Alvin Hackett, Joe and George Cheverie.
