

The Plain Truth about hippies:

Condensed from the Plain Truth by way of the Chevron.

THE "HIPPIES" have emerged as a whole new subculture around the world. The drug-taking cult has rejected modern society, rebelled against the Establishment, and withdrawn to a psychedelic world of bizarre thrills. You need to know why the hippies are the barometer of a sick, sick society.

It's time you knew the truth—understood the real meaning and dangers of the 'hip' world and what it means to you! Make no mistake. You may not realize it yet, but you are involved—directly.

My name is Edith Ann and I don't have to say anything if I don't want to. My mommy said that the Cadre is a radical type of paper and that the writers don't work or go to class and are otherwise very stupid and not very smart and besides that they don't know how to put a newspaper together and can't type at all and make a mess of the Coffee Shoppe with their papers. She also says that the only thing that the newspaper is good for is for training dogs and that's the TRUTH !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Symbolizing their utter rebellion against society, the hippies have established their own standards of living, their own fashions. They desire to be different. You've probably seen them—all wearing the same type of paraphernalia.

The hippie uniform consists of something like bell-bottom trousers, a pack of beads, a string of bells, a feather or flower in their hair, wide belt with big buckle, boots, moccasins, or bare feet.

Hippie girls usually have long hair combed straight, bright colorful dresses, and don't forget the beads, flowers and bells.

Hippies, with their flower power, may not be able to change the world much. By dropping out of society, they will not much change society. They themselves are victims of the same hypocrisy and double standards which they so volubly reject. They, themselves, are guilty of phoniness, shams, pretense and self-delusion.

Not much love

Although they speak 'peace' and proclaim 'love', there is not as much peace and love among the hippies as you might think. The hippie community seethes with hatreds, persecution complexes, muggings, rapes, murders, suicides, and all kinds of violence! The hippies have withdrawn from the world, but they have not conquered their own human nature!

They still find themselves to be vain; full of ego and selfishness. They are found to cheat, steal and lie. Jealousies crop up, antagonisms arise and drugs sometimes turn them into vicious monsters.

One of the saddest aspects of hippiedom is the pre-occupation among some with death. "Death is a groove", they think—and to experience it, some attempt suicide.

Hippies, believing in free love, exhibit the morals of a common alley cat. Any kind of sex goes—man and woman, man and man, woman and woman, or even 'groun' sex.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I would like to protest against the article entitled "Sports" on page 5 of your last issue. It states:

"Onto the basketball court. When the fef isn't looking, see if you can wrench your opponents knee and maybe tear a few of his ligaments. Don't worry about the hoop, it's not important. To win the game you've got to be mean."

Mr. Spencer, this is sheer and utter lunacy. As a basketball player (and I use the term "player" loosely) at U.P.E.I., I can honestly state that I've never seen a player intentionally attempt to injure another. Mr. Spencer seems to have a poor concept of the game when he states that the hoop is not important.

Basketball, unlike many other contact sports, is a game of finesse and ability. To degrade it in this manner is unforgivable if the author has any knowledge of the game. To many, it is an art form, and justifiably so. I resent the aspersions cast on my character (indirectly) as a participant in the sport.

Angrily yours,
Bob Gray

Dear Editor:

I wish to use your publication to thank publicly those four strong students who physically removed my car from the snow of the parking lot late Friday afternoon. That I did not stop and thank them personally was due solely to a fear that, if I did, I would once again require their help.

Sincerely,
Glenn E. Palmer
