

Little Laughs.

The wise head that makes a slight draft on a sensible heart will have his paper honored with full payment of common sense.—Whitehall Times.

Guest at summer hotel.—Who is that distinguished looking young man wiping dishes? Proprietor.—That is Mr. Emerson Tracy Bancroft, who delivered the magnificent oration on "The Ideality of Life" at Yalemouth commencement.—Burlington Free Press.

A thunderbolt struck a small boy in Middleton, N. Y., the other day, and scooted down his trousers legs. As they picked him up he exclaimed with amazing earnestness: "Oh, teacher! I'll be good!"—Burlington Free Press.

In these days of "progressive" all sorts of things it would be quite in keeping to call the trampa progressive parasite.—Lowell Citizen.

A poet writes: "I know sweet songs I cannot sing." That poet has our gratitude.—Somerville Journal.

The old saying doesn't read: "Poets are born old maids," but a good many would be poets are; just the same.—Somerville Journal.

"I paws for a reply," says the dog when he asks for a lump of sugar.—New Haven News.

Oh! Vassar girl, your tears will drop When you inform your chum That there's a failure in the crop. Of chewing gum.

Boston Courier.

We have ceased to hate the man who practises on the cornet. We just pity him and his neighbors. N. B.—We are not one of his neighbors.—Lowell Citizen.

Gems of Thought.

There never was a good war or a bad peace.

I care not how much intelligence you have, if you cannot exhibit it; you look like an ignoramus.

Truth subsists eternally, and finally triumphs over its enemies, because it is eternal and strong even as God himself.

The philosophers of the world will concede that the elements of which you and I are composed are eternal, yet they believe that there was a time when there was no God.

When the hour of death comes, that comes to high and low, then it is not what we have done for ourselves, but what we have done for others, that we think on most pleasantly.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.
 Wm. L. & Co. N. Y.

Dr. Titus L. Brown, for six years president of the National Free Thinkers' Association, died in New York, Wednesday aged 58. His funeral oration was written by himself four years ago and has been published.

F. W. KINSMAN & Co.—Gentlemen: "It gives me pleasure to tell my story of Adams' Botanic Cough Balsam. It cured me, my wife and child of severe colds to which we were subject during the winter months. I think it has no equal as a cough mixture, and I recommend it to my friends as worthy of confidence. Yours truly, A. C. Gibson." Trial size 10 cents.

A book for every man, young, middle-aged and old. It contains prescriptions for all acute and chronic diseases, each one of which is invaluable. So found by the Author, whose experience for 25 years is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any physician. 300 pages, bound in beautiful French morocco, embossed covers, full gilt, guaranteed to be a finer work in every sense than any other work sold in this country for $2.50, or the money will be refunded in every instance. Price only $1 by mail, post-paid. Illustrative sample free to every body. Send now. Gold medal awarded the author by the National Medical Association, to the President of which, the Hon. P. A. Bissell, and associate officers of the Board, the reader is respectfully referred.

The Science of Life is worth more to the young and middle-aged men of this generation than the gold mines of California and the silver mines of Nevada combined.—S. F. Chronicle.

The Science of Life points out the rocks and quicksands on which the constitution and hopes of many a young man have been fatally wrecked. Manchester Mirror.

The Science of Life is of greater value than all the medical works published in this country for the past fifty years.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Science of Life is a superb and masterly treatise on nervous and physical debility. Detroit Free Press. There is no member of society to whom the Science of Life will not be useful, whether parent, guardian, instructor or clergyman.—Argonaut.

Address the Peabody Medical Institute, or Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston, who may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience. Chronic and obstinate diseases that have baffled the skill of all other physicians a specialty. Such treated successfully without an instance of failure.
