The SCOTCH WHISKY chosen by the Red Cross Society, London, for use by the invalided soldiers and hospitals in South Africa, is the famous WHITE BIRSE CELLAR' brand of James Watson & Co., Distillers, Limited, Glasgow and Glasgow, one of the oldest firms in the trade. Continuation of this, Messrs James Watson & Co., Glasgow, presented 200 cases free of charge, and shipped them by the first steamer to the Cape. One of the family is a volunteer in the Imperial Yeomanry, and on his way now to the Cape. It is hoped that he may give a good account of himself.

Bread For Horses.
A delivery wagon of one of the big bread baking factories stopped in front of an up town livery and boarding stable, and two men at once unloaded barrels of bread and carried them into the stable. The bread looked good and was good. There were all sorts and sizes of loaves in the barrels—"home-made," "rye," "Vienna," "potato," "graham" and "cottage."
The curiosity of a man who saw the bread being delivered to the stable was aroused, and he ventured to ask the proprietor of the stable what it meant.
"There's nothing remarkable about it," said the proprietor with a laugh. "I simply buy it for horse feed. We grind the bread up and mix it with other feed, and it makes first class food for horses. It is stale bread and costs us 40 cents a barrel, and there are 50 or 60 loaves to the barrel, so you see it comes pretty cheap. Some of the bread is only a day old and is good enough for any man to eat, but the bread factories cannot sell it. What you see here are returned loaves from the grocer-ies."

The Illusion.
"What beautiful peaches!" said an old lady as she stopped at a stall in the market and admired a basket of the choice fruit. They were covered with a pink gauze and looked very tempting indeed.
The old lady bought the peaches and took them home. The next day she appeared again at the stall and showed the stall keeper a small piece of pink veiling.
"Do you keep that kind of veiling for sale?" she asked.
The stall keeper told her that he did not.
"Well," she said, "when I took those peaches home they were small and sour and green, and I thought if I could get some of that veiling that made them look so pretty and plump in the basket I'd wear it myself. If it would improve me as much as it did the peaches, people would think I'd found the elixir of youth."—London Fun.

Alkali in Great Source of Trouble in Northwest.

OAK LAKE, Man., Feb. 5.—One of the great drawbacks to life in the great Canadian wheat belt, is the presence of alkali in the water. This is a prolific source of kidney and bladder trouble and it is for this reason that Dodd's Kidney Pills are becoming indispensable in this district.
Frank C. Leaux, of Oak Lake writes: "It gives me great pleasure to testify to the excellent curative qualities of Dodd's Kidney Pills. About two years ago I was attacked with kidney disease and severe pains in the back. A friend of mine advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I did so and my troubles were cured. My back has not troubled me since."

Only One More Month

Our celery will only hold out about one month. Some of the wise ones are ordering a quantity to be kept in reserve for them. We have held on to the best for the last (the famous English Red Celery.) In this respect we resemble children who keep the most dainty part of their lunch to the last and at the rate it is going the time will soon come when there will not even be a last. The moral to the above is quite plain; no need to read between the lines it is enjoy it while it lasts.

We also have Hubbard Squash, Cape Cod and Island Cranberries, Spanish & Canadian onions, Brussels sprouts, red & white cabbage, carrots, beets, parsnips, turnips, beans, peas, parsley, etc.
