If it's Good For the Island
The Guardian is For it

The Guardian

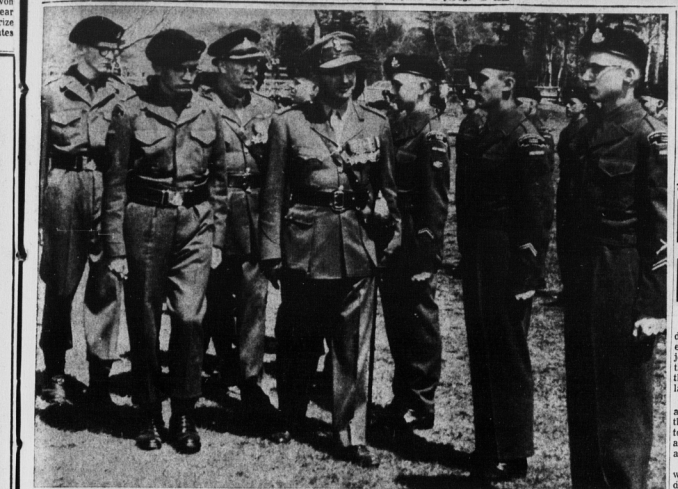
"Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew"

VOL. LXXVI. NO. 255 — Authorized as Second Class Mail by the Post Office Department, Ottawa, and for payment of postage in cash. — CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1963. — NOT MORE THAN SEVEN CENTS — 24 PAGES

WEATHER

Sunny and warm; winds southwest 15, increasing near noon to southwest 25, gusts to 40. Low-high 40 and 68.

Robarts' Gov't Returned With Increased Majority



BIRCHWOOD HIGH CADET CORPS DURING INSPECTION

Cadet Corps At Birchwood Ties For Earl Grey Trophy

Birchwood High School Cadet Corps has tied for the Earl Grey Challenge Trophy emblematic of the most efficient cadet corps in Canada, it was announced yesterday by Major General R. W. Moncel, commanding officer of Eastern Command Halifax.

The Birchwood Corps and the corps from Rothesay Collegiate were tied for top honors in the nation-wide competition leading hundreds of other corps throughout Canada.

A spokesman for the Birchwood corps said last night this is the first time in history an Island corps has won this honor. The trophy was donated in 1909 by the then Governor-General of Canada Earl Grey.

CAN BE PROUD

In making the announcement Major General Moncel said: "Your winning of this trophy clearly indicates your instructors and your cadets have created a unit of which you can be proud. I would therefore, like to extend my heartiest congratulations and wish your corps continued success in all phases of its training."

Each corps, Birchwood and Rothesay will hold the Earl Grey Trophy for a period of five months. This was decided by Major General Moncel in declining to "select a winner by arbitrary means".

Chief instructor of the corps is Capt. J. W. Croken. His assistants in drill were Lt. Fred Driscoll and Jack Kane.

The corps is affiliated with the Prince Edward Island Regiment under the command of Lt.-Col. D. J. McCormack.

EXPRESSES PLEASURE

"As commanding officer of the regiment with which the corps is affiliated I am really pleased that they have made such an outstanding showing", said Lt.-Col. D. J. McCormack last night when informed of the nationwide victory of the Birchwood High School Cadet Corps.

"There is no doubt it is a really well trained corps. I accompanied Col. Keith Johnston when he inspected them and they really put on a terrific showing at both drill and demonstrations", he said.

"I wish to extend my congratulations to their instructors as it is they who really deserve the credit."

Col. Johnston, commanding officer of 2 Militia Group, was out of the province last night and not available for comment.

INSPECTED IN MAY

The corps was inspected May 29 by Col. K. M. Johnston, commanding officer of 2 Militia Group accompanied by Major J. C. Turnbull, Capt. H. A. DeCoste, area cadet officer, and Capt. Eric Temple, area training officer.

At the time of inspection Col. Johnston termed the corps outstanding, saying "Knowing the history of this corps, I expected an outstanding performance and saw just that."

Cadet officers were Cadet Major P. Mullally; Cadet Captain F. McCarey; Cadet lieutenants, D. Ling, P. Bradley, G. Blanchard, E. Corrigan and Cadet Sergeant Major A. Arsenault.

Child Killed By Oil Truck

CAMPBELLTON, N.B. (CP)—Two-year-old Nancy Savoi died early Wednesday when she was crushed beneath the wheels of an oil truck while playing on a tricycle near her home. An inquest was called, but no date was set.

Wintermeyer Defeat Came As Great Shock

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)—Liberal Leader John Wintermeyer went down to defeat Wednesday in his home riding of Waterloo North, conceding the election to Conservative Keith Butler 45 minutes after the closing of the polls.

The Liberal leader suffered a double blow within a few hours. His personal defeat followed an emergency illness which struck his father, 73-year-old Alfred C. Wintermeyer.

Mr. Wintermeyer said: "I just can't understand it. We thought we were all right here. It's like being hit with a . . .

His voice trailed off as he turned to smile and shake hands with a sympathizing supporter at Ontario Liberal headquarters here.

His wife, Helen, maintained stolidly that she was pleased. "Now we will have father (the Liberal leader) home with us," she said. The Wintermeyers have six children.

"Of course, I am terribly sorry for John," she added.

Mr. Wintermeyer won his first provincial election in 1955 by more than 2,000 votes after achieving local prominence in municipal affairs and in his law practice.

He was elected leader of the Ontario Liberal party in 1958 and was returned to the legislature the following year with a vote margin of more than 4,000.

The first poll to report, in the south ward of Kitchener, gave Mr. Wintermeyer 40 votes against Mr. Butler's 31 and New Democrat Morley Rosenberg's 19. Thereafter, the trend went against Mr. Wintermeyer both in the twin cities of Kitchener and Waterloo and upcountry in the rural ridings.

JOHN WINTERMEYER

Even in his own polling division, No. 33, the Liberal chief edged Mr. Butler by only a single vote—75 to 74, with 13 for Mr. Rosenberg.

Congratulating his opponent later in a formal statement, Mr. Wintermeyer said:

"I want to assure you I have no rancor and nothing but admiration for Mr. Butler and the campaign he conducted."

He noted that his home campaign was under a handicap because of his absence on the provincial campaign trail.

"There'll be another day and there'll be another fight," he concluded. Asked if this meant he would contest another election, Mr. Wintermeyer said: "Oh, I couldn't say at this stage."

Que. Minister Wins Byelection

MONTREAL (CP)—Revenue Minister Eric Kierans was elected to the Montreal Notre-Dame-de-Grace Quebec Legislature seat Wednesday as he overwhelmed three opponents in a light vote.

The election of the former Montreal and Canadian Stock Exchanges president left the legislature standings at Liberals 62; Union Nationale 31, independent one, and vacant one.

In the first provincial byelection since the Liberal government of Premier Lesage was re-elected last November, Mr. Kierans took a substantial lead right from the start of counting after polls closed and was never threatened.

Less than one-third of the eligible voters turned out at the polls.

Complete returns showed Mr. Kierans had 21,672 votes; John Boyle, independent, 2,313; Luke Dougherty, Independent Liberal 1,105, and Henri Paquet, independent Liberal, 221.

Dominican President Ousted

SANTO DOMINGO (AP)—The armed forces and police Wednesday overthrew Juan D. Bosch, the Dominican Republic's first legally elected president in a generation. Leaders of the plot charged that Bosch's eight-month rule—a sequel to the Trujillo dictatorship — had plunged the country into chaos.

The United States quickly suspended relations with the country of 3,000,000 people that shares the island of Hispaniola with Haiti.

The U.S. aid program also was suspended, and a state department spokesman in Washington said "any overthrow of a democratically elected government is a loss to the policies of the countries of this hemisphere, including our own."

Venezeuala also suspended relations with the Dominicans.

Bosch, silver - haired, blue-eyed intellectual was variously reported under arrest in the presidential palace and at the San Isidro military air base about nine miles from the capital. There were rumors abroad that he was being flown into exile.

Many left-wingers were arrested. Communists and leftist organizations supporting Cuban Premier Castro were outlawed. White-helmeted riot police tore down their signs and slogans.

Local Dealer Is Director Of Auto Ass'n

TOBONTO (CP)—Thomas L. Trainor of Halifax Wednesday was elected president of the Federation of Automobile Dealer Associations of Canada at its annual convention here. He succeeds Earl Murray of Neepawa, Man.

Directors elected included: N. H. Winter, Grand Falls, Nfld.; W. R. Jenkins, Charlottetown; Ralph W. Simmons, Bridgewater, N.S.; M. R. Downey, Saint John, N.B.; and Lawrence Payeur, Thetford Mines, Que.

P.E.I., Nfld. Blasted By Employees' Union

WINNIPEG (CP)—The Canadian Union of Public Employees overrode some stormy objections Wednesday to endorse the New Democratic Party as the political arm of organized labor in Canada.

A clear majority of delegates at the founding convention of the 84,000-member union voted to support the New Democrats and to urge all CUPE locals to affiliate with the party.

The decision to back the NDP was reached after a 90-minute debate.

Earlier the new union fired a critical blast at the governments of Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island for their treatment of hospital workers.

The newly formed union thrashing out its first policy objectives in the wake of its birth here Tuesday, accused the Newfoundland government of Premier Joseph Smallwood of imposing a wage freeze on hospital workers and enacting "restrictive" labor legislation.

The delegates also flayed the P.E.I. government for denying hospital workers the right to strike to secure collective bargaining gains.

A motion endorsed by the convention blamed the provincial hospital insurance commission and the government for refusing to provide the funds to meet conciliation board wage proposals for hospital workers.

WANT FEDERAL ACTION

To combat this, the delegates voted to ask the federal government to withhold federal financial assistance for hospitals until P.E.I. "removes from its Industrial Relations Act all discriminatory sections affecting workers."

The new 84,000-member union, whose strength lies in the municipal, hospital and public utilities field, also served notice on civic governments that an all-out fight will be made to bar municipalities from turning over work to private employers.

The delegates agreed that the practice of contracting-out work normally performed by municipal workers has become an "ever - increasing menace" to the jobs of civic workers.

The convention ordered CUPE's leaders to map out plans for fighting the "contracting-out problem" and to press for a contractual ban on such practices.

The new union was founded Tuesday out of a merger of the National Union of Public Employees and the National Union of Public Service Employees.

Peacemakers Greeted By Two Bomb Blasts

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Two presidential advisers dispatched to Birmingham to promote racial harmony saw the bitter fruits of discord Wednesday as a middle class Negro neighborhood was bombed.

Two early morning explosions shook Honeysuckle Hill in South Birmingham. Eight houses and several cars were damaged. A utility pole was snapped. There were no reported casualties.

There was also no disorder in the neighborhood which is 30 blocks removed from the scenes of other, more ugly bombings—Birmingham has had more than 40 since the Second World War. None has been solved.

FBI agents joined state and city investigators in a search for clues.

While the investigation was being pushed, the presidential representatives — former army secretary Kenneth Royall and former army football coach Earl Blaik—met behind closed doors with community leaders.

MEET REBUFF

Blaik and Royall were rebuffed, however, in their bid to discuss things with former police commissioner Eugene Connor.

Connor, an ardent segregationist, said that he had nothing personally against "the two fine gentlemen," but said he refuses to meet with any one of the Kennedys or their representatives.

Blaik and Royall held their first meeting with 10 white business leaders.

INSIDE TODAY

Announcements, notices	23
Births, deaths	3, 23
Classified	22, 23
Comics	21
Editorials	6
Sport	10, 11
Finance, markets	15
Kings County	4
City, Queens	5
Summerside	2
Prince County	2
Women's	7, 8

SHOULDERING RESPONSIBILITY

With Bill to the rear and books to the fore, Mrs. William Cotton hustles off to class at State College. Mrs. Cotton and her husband, who are both seniors at the college, leave Bill with a baby-sitter during class hours. Bill, who weighs 21 pounds and is a year old, is transported from home to baby-sitter in this back pack. (AP Wirephoto)

PREMIER John Robarts was re-elected in his home riding of London North, defeating Liberal Candidate Campbell Calder and Claytone Fee of the NDP. (CP Wirephoto)

Members Elected

Canadian Press list by parties of members elected in Ontario (x-Member of last House):

PROG. CON.

Toronto Riverdale — xRobert J. Macaulay, unchanged.

(Continued on page 3, col. 4)

IS ELECTED

Donald C. MacDonald, Ontario leader of the New Democratic Party, was re-elected to the legislature in Wednesday's Ontario general election. He picked up an easy victory in York South, beating Liberal Albert Robinson and Conservative William Thomson.

Liberal Chief Is Casualty

By JOHN LeBLANC

TORONTO (CP) — Premier John Robarts led his Progressive Conservatives to a decisive win in Ontario's general election Wednesday.

Liberal Leader John Wintermeyer was a casualty in the early stages of the count, losing his Waterloo North seat to a Conservative as an indicated government majority piled up.

New Democratic Party Leader Donald C. MacDonald retained his seat in York South, a Metropolitan Toronto riding.

Government forces shot out in front so far and so quickly that The Canadian Press was able to report that the re-election of the Robarts administration was indicated at 8:59 p.m. EDT, 59 minutes after the close of most of the polls.

The 46-year-old premier was re-elected comfortably in London North, and one after another of his ministers were following him back safely.

Indications were the Conservatives' majority would be little changed from the last election when Leslie Frost—now retired —led them to his third victory with 71 of the then 98 House seats for an over all majority of 44 seats.

At dissolution, the Conservatives had 62 against 24 for the Liberals and five for the NDP, with seven vacancies.

House membership was expanded to 108 for this election with the addition of 10 seats in Metropolitan Toronto, and the Conservatives were making inroads in this new territory as the count progressed.

The government party elected the first woman to enter the legislature in a dozen years with the return of Ada Pritchard in Hamilton Centre. A prominent municipal politician, she succeeded W. K. Warrender, who resigned as labor minister about a year ago and later became a judge.

The Liberals made a major gain in Essex South as Don Paterson defeated William Murdoch, Speaker on the last legislature.

First gain by the NDP was made in Scarborough West by Stephen Lewis, 26, whose father, David, is deputy national leader of the party. The seat

(Continued on page 3, col. 7)

Party Gains

CP summary of party gains:

Prog. Con. from Liberal	6
Prog. Con from NDP	1
Liberal from Prog. Con.	5
NDP from Prog. Con.	1
NDP from Liberal	1
Prog. Con. (new seats)	8
Liberal (new seats)	1
NDP (new seats)	1
Unchanged	84
Total	108

Standing

	1963	1959
Prog. Con.	78	71
Liberals	23	22
New Democratic	7	5
Total	108	98

Diefenbaker Hails Win As 'Magnificent'

OTTAWA (CP) — Opposition Leader Diefenbaker Wednesday night hailed the "magnificent" election victory of Ontario Progressive Conservatives and said it has much federal significance.

"There is much disillusionment with the Pearson government which allied itself closely with the provincial election," said the federal Progressive Conservative leader.

"Many thousands, indeed tens of thousands, of votes were cast in condemnation of the federal Liberal government."

He said the federal party went strongly to the aid of the provincial Liberals in the election campaign.

Ordinarily I do not make observations upon provincial elections but, in view of the fact that in this provincial election campaign federal cabinet ministers and members took so active a part, the Conservative victory has much federal significance and I therefore feel free to depart from my unbroken custom.

"I send my congratulations to Mr. Robarts on his magnificent victory, for himself and to the elected members of his party. It is a victory for the record of Conservative governments over the years."

Scandal Probe Report Clears British Government Of Blame

LONDON (CP)—Lord Denning has cleared Prime Minister Macmillan and his government of blame in the John Profumo sex-security scandal.

In a report on the sensation that shocked the nation, Britain's No. 2 judge branded as "unfounded and untrue" widespread rumors suggesting other government ministers were guilty of moral misbehavior.

The eminent jurist also said that there has been no lowering of moral standards among those in British public life.

Lord Denning, in his 50,000-word report released today, conceded that ex-war minister Profumo's liaison with Christine Keeler "disclosed a character defect which pointed to his being a security risk."

EXPOSED TO BLACKMAIL

He had exposed himself to blackmail, so jeopardizing state secrets, the report said.

However, Lord Denning said, there was not the slightest reason to doubt Profumo's loyalty.

Lord Denning was appointed by Macmillan June 21 to investigate security aspects of Profumo's affair with Miss Keeler who also had social contact with a Soviet intelligence officer, naval captain Yevgeni Ivanov. The judge looked into a spate of rumors about other ministers.

The voluminous report was made available to an avid public at seven shillings sixpence (about $1.15) a copy by the government printing and stationery office in London at 12:30 a.m. British summer time.

It was a gross disappointment to the prurient.

On the other hand, it was a great comfort to the supporters of the Conservative party, who had feared the report would besmirch the government.

MUST PROVE GUILT

Lord Denning, in commenting on his own task in the investigation, said he had acted under the rule that there must be evidence which proved guilt before any man was pronounced guilty and that for any who cried "white-wash" he would answer:

"While the public interest demands that the facts should be ascertained as completely as possible, there is yet a higher public interest to be considered, namely the interest of justice to the individual which overdrides all others."

In his report, Lord Denning set out the following:

1. That sex rumors about government ministers other than former war minister John Profumo were "unfounded and untrue."

2. That there was no general lowering of standards in British public life.

3. That because security services had been transferred 11 years ago from direct control of the prime minister to that of the home secretary, Henry Brooke was immediately responsible in the case, but Macmillan personally accepted final trial figure was a member of the government.

4. That Britain's security services were blameless in not dealing with the personal relationship between Profumo and Miss Keeler, security heads having rightly decided it was

(Continued on page 4, col. 3)

Suicide Attempt Made By London Journalist

LONDON (Reuters)—A London journalist whose name has figured in the Profumo affair has attempted to commit suicide during the night, his lawyer said in court Wednesday.

The disclosure was made at the Old Bailey Criminal Court where Laurence Terence Bell, 36, was due to go on trial this week on charges of homosexual conduct.

Bell's lawyer, Raphael Tuck, said his client telephoned him late Tuesday night in distress and said he had taken 30 grains of pheno-barbitone.

Tuck said he and his wife were able to get an ambulance sent to the telephone booth "where he (Bell) was about to pass out."

Making a successful application for the trial to be postponed last June, Tuck said Bell was responsible for the resignation of one member of the government, Fletcher Cooke, and that he had given information about former war minister John Profumo and playgirl Christine Keeler.

Tuck told the court then that Bell was the victim of "one of the biggest pieces of political chicanery and frame-up" in recent times because he knew too much about the Profumo scandal and had been a considerable embarrassment to the government.

The judge said Wednesday the trial would not start before Monday.