

- | | | |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Student Union Building | 8. Central Heating Building | 16. Duffy Science Centre |
| 2. Experimental Psychology Building | 9. Chapel/Dining Hall | 17. Marian Hall |
| 3. Education Faculty Building | 10. Dalton Hall | 18. Bernardine Hall |
| 4. North Classroom Building | 11. Memorial Hall | 19. New Heating Plant |
| 5. Rink | 12. Cass Chemistry Building | 20. New Apartment Building |
| 6. Gymnasium | 13. Kelly Memorial Library | X. Buses |
| 7. Main Building | 14. University Book Store | |
| | 15. South Classroom Building | |

IS OPEN HOUSE NECESSARY?

As a result of the decrease in enrolment suffered (?) by U.P.E.I. this past semester, there has been an increase in emphasis on Open House '72 in order to encourage High School students to attend University in the '73-'74 year. This is a natural reaction on the part of many people involved with the University because the number of students attending U.P.E.I. is directly related to the amount of money received from the provincial government. Consequently, the quality of the education offered will be lower or so the theory goes. This will come about because the administration will have to limit expenditures on equipment and faculty salaries, and, thus, the quantity and/or quality of the professors at U.P.E.I. There may also be other ramifications which are not now apparent. Therefore, on the surface, at least, a push for more students is quite in order.

However, upon further examination, this question may not be as simple as it seems. It has been suggested that this decrease is due to a number of factors acting upon the new breed of high school students. Unlike some of their recent predecessors, these graduates are deeply concerned about the relevance of a university education in today's job market. There is a new trend developing today that suggests that students entering university are not doing so in order to secure a job upon graduation or to spend four years of their

on the house

We have a little something for everyong interested in:

1. An exhibition of glass blowing? Visit Cass 109 (Chemistry Dept.)
2. the Dunk River? See the exhibit on second floor of Cass (Biology and Chemistry)
3. Video tapes of Panther football games? Visit the gym (Athletic Dept)
4. the Seven Wonders of the World? Come to the first floor of Duffy Science Building for displays of scale-models (Engineering)
5. Louis Riel? Take in the History display in Marian Hall Lounge.
6. creative writing, drama and song? View U.P.E.I. students at their best life in a stop-action camera. Instead, many of them can begin to see a university for what it should be - a place for them to examine themselves and their society. If Open House '72 encourages the recruitment of students by quantity and not by quality, then it is not serving its true purpose. If, however, it encourages students to examine a university education in its true perspective and it persuades them that U.P.E.I. is the place most suited to their needs, then it will be a great success. Otherwise, Open House '72 will cause nothing but harm for the student, the university, and the province of P.E.I.

Ron Kelly

- reading their own works and performing a short drama presentation. In Duffy Amphitheatre (221) at 10:30 (English Department)
7. music? Hear the University Concert Band Chorus, the Woodwind Ensemble, the Brass Ensemble and Faculty Trio in Duffy Amphitheatre from 1:30 to 4:00.
8. dancing? Get together in the Student Union Building (the Barn) from 1:30 until 5 for a sock hop.
9. hockey? The U.P.E.I. Panthers tackle U.N.B. in the rink at 7 pm.
10. the most beautiful girls on campus plus a chance to put your mind into high gear against a

- dazzling array of trick puzzles. Visit the Education Building all day long.
11. playing guinea pig? Take part in a demonstration of psychological experimentation in the Psych Lab.
12. live entertainment, i.e. religious folk songs, etc? Visit Marian Hall Lobby. Presentations on the hour. Also, a Bible quiz.
13. politics, elections? Talk to the Political Science Department - first floor lounge of Bernadine. Lively arguments guaranteed.
14. finding your lost belongings? Check with the security police in the basement of Main Building,