

We call the attention of our readers to the Advertisement in this day's paper of Messrs. J. Le Page and A. McNeill. We attended the examination of Mr. Le Page's School in August last, and then expressed our opinion of its character and efficiency. It must be obvious, that in a Town with a population so large as in this, more Schools than have a footing at present, are necessary. We have no doubt, therefore, that Messrs. Le Page and McNeill will meet with warm and generous support. We congratulate those, who are desirous of their childrens' acquiring a good English Education, upon having secured to them the present favourable opportunity, and wish the Masters of the Seminary every success.

TO CORRESPONDENTS:

Although we intimated in our last No. our intention to publish this week the remainder of the correspondence on hand, we are obliged to defer it for another week—the news brought by the English and Colonial Mails having engrossed the whole of our space, to the exclusion of some editorial articles, in addition to communications.

We acknowledge the receipt of a communication from J. W. Le Lacheur, Esq., in answer to certain statements published by Mr. J. Dalziel, in a recent No. of the Islander. We shall endeavour to give this letter in our next No.
