DUBLIN, Aug. 9.

The harvest prospects in Ireland are again causing anxiety. Rains for the last fortnight have been excessive. Potatoes are generally sound, but blight is visible in many fields. Green crops promise an abundant yield.

A grand demonstration of the Home Rulers took place at Liverpool, yesterday, to Parnell, who did not attend in the Commons on the occasion of the passage of the Compensation Bill. A member of Parliament presided. He and other speakers attacked the House of Lords for rejecting the Compensation Bill.

The news of the despatch of reinforcements to Ireland was received there with no feeling of alarm but with simple surprise.

UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.

The steamer "Erastus Corning" left Glen Island, last evening, on the homeward trip. There were a large number of passengers, including women and children. When about half a mile from her pier two distinct shocks were felt as if the vessel had struck a soft bottom. The vessel sprung a bad leak and water poured in at a fearful rate. The bow was turned toward the shore and in fifteen minutes was grounded within ten feet of the excursion pier at Starin, Glen Island. The other steamers took off the passengers. When the steamer struck a panic ensued from a person shouting she was sinking, and life belts were hurriedly put on.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 9.

New London Notes.

Forest Home Division still continues to do good work, and judging by the oratorical powers displayed every Monday night, one would suppose that Demosthenes and Burke were cast into oblivion.

The respectable portion of this community are greatly annoyed by a lot of the rowdies from this and other districts gathering into a vacant house every night and carrying on in a disgraceful manner. We hope that a stop will be put to such a species of blackguardism so that strangers may entertain a higher opinion of this place.

D. McLean, Esq., P. G. W. P., has returned home after spending a month among his friends in Boston and New York; and judging by the able temperance speeches delivered since his return he has received quite an addition to his temperance vocabulary.

The weather still continues unfavorable for haymaking.

Now that we are on the eve of the election for the Canada Temperance Act, the friends of that noble cause have secured the services of Mr. J. Curtis to deliver a series of lectures on the Act. As an orator we would be safe in saying that he has no equal in New London, and we have no doubt that an extraordinary amount of good will be accomplished.

Sir John on Immigration.

On the night of the 4th inst. Sir John Macdonald, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Alex. Galt, Col. Dennis, Hon. Mr. Pope, Col. Williams, Earl Derby and Sir Garnet Wolseley were entertained by the Fishmongers' Company. The Prime Minister proposed the toast of the "British Colonies." Sir John Macdonald responded, and said that they in Canada were desirous of having Englishmen, Irishmen and Scotchmen come among them and settle. They had 260,000,000 acres of land. The Government gives men of 18 years and upwards farms of 100 acres gratuitously, of the finest land, as the Yankee would say, that ever lay out of doors. Sir Charles Tupper also responded, and corrected the suggestion that the object of the Canadian visitors was to obtain money from England, except by way of securing profitable investment for the construction of railways and the development of the country. He dwelt upon the advantages Canada offered to emigrants and the importance of emigration as a means of contributing to the solution of some of the difficulties which were the subject of controversy in this country.

The Royal Standard

The Royal Standard is never carried into action, even though the sovereign in person commands the army. A heraldic manuscript of the sixteenth century prescribes that the Royal Standard "shall not be set before the kyng's pavillion or tente, and not to be borne into battayle, and to be length 11 yards." The Royal Standard is never hoisted on board ships except when Her Majesty is on board, or a member of the Royal family, other than the Prince of Wales. When the latter is on board his own standard is hoisted. It is the same as that of the Queen, except that it bears a label of three points, with the arms of Saxony on an escutcheon of pretense. Wherever the Sovereign is residing the Royal Standard is hoisted, and on Royal anniversaries and State occasions—home and foreign—specified in the Queen's regulations, but nowhere else.

Mr. Archibald Forbes, the famous war correspondent, who won such laurels in his line in the Franco-German, the Russo-Turkish and the Zulu wars, is coming out to the United States and Canada on a lecturing tour. He will take the platform on this side early in November. It is to be presumed that he will tell many an audience of "the royal people he has met," and the wonderful scenes he has witnessed on many battle fields, if opportunity be afforded him. He has achieved great success as a lecturer.

The Austrian Government accepted Mr. Gladstone's apology for insulting words spoken of the Emperor of Austria, but it seems that it suspects Mr. Gladstone of co-operating with Gortschakoff to rob Austria of advantages conceded to it in the Berlin Treaty, and to prevent it taking measures to check-mate Russian designs in Bulgaria and Roumelia.

Mr. Mark Firth, a wealthy Wesleyan of Sheffield, who has presented his fellow-townsmen with some very valuable gifts, one of them being a park, last week presented the Methodist Conference sitting in London with $5,000 toward some of its schemes.

SIR WM. YOUNG, the venerable Chief Justice of Nova Scotia, enjoys to-day the singular felicity of celebrating his golden wedding and eighty-first birth-day. He has signalled the occasion by sending the Mayor of Halifax a cheque for four hundred dollars, to be distributed at that official's discretion among the charitable institutions of the city.
