

Intramurals

Intramurals last week saw the famed Selects go down twice, once to Blanchard and once to Korakin, but they still managed to squeek out the "team of the week" award by the Associated Press.

In the Blanchard game the Selects found it hard to shoot at six goalies. The players were lined up in the net and did not see a corner the whole game.

In the Korakin game the Korakin goalie Dr. Dic-Murray came up hot as the Selects outplayed, outshot, and outthustled the Korakin team but could not outscore the team due to the Junior A goalie, Vince.

In the upcoming all-star game the players have now been selected. In nets in the first squad it should be the Junior A player, Dr. Dic himself. For the second squad it will be close between Dainty Sanderson and Ken Baker. Dainty has a 20 year old face on a 2 year old body. He could be 6 feet tall if he straightened his legs. Ken "Doughboy" Baker has been doing horrible on the ice and on the Neil MacKenzie diet. You see Kenny can only eat 3 pizzas a meal while the MacKenzie diet calls for 4 pizzas.

Centering the first squad will be Francis "Droopy Face" MacCarville so cheer up Francis. Last but not least the defence shall consist of "Rang-a-tang" Drummond and the comeback of the century Paul "Necklace" MacDonald. People have been trying to kill this crook since grade 11 when he was run over by a car and was sent to Blacks' metal for repairs. People are still looking for Paul due to the scalped Blushing Brides tickets ($10. per person).

One last thing I would like to mention is the Engineering tournament held last weekend. I thought our engineers were the worst of worst, but I thought wrong. Our engineers represented us well going into the play-offs only to lose to the championship team. Even though all the other teams were drunk in the tournament the Engineers represented UPEI well. All people who care are proud of you.
