

The Intercolonial Railway.

The Ottawa Citizen says that in the management of the I. C. R., Dr. Tupper has had more than common difficulties. It affirms that he had to enforce economy at the cost of several friends and save the public money even if he had to face the music of opposition even in his own constituency. It supposes that no one was prepared for the statement that the Intercolonial Railway was run on grounds so economical and yet it remarks that no accidents occur and that no trains are delayed to mar the utility of the road.

United States Shipping Tonnage.

The Registrar of the Treasury, in his annual report says the total tonnage of the vessels in the United States exhibits a decrease of 43,164 tons. The steam tonnage has increased 8,493 tons, the canal boat tonnage 15,046 tons, and the barge tonnage 31,082 tons, while the sailing tonnage has decreased 98,506. The proportion of the sailing tonnage registered is 55 per cent., and the steam tonnage 13 per cent. The tonnage of vessels built during the past year was 52,474 tons less than that of the preceding year.

What a most significant fact it is that on Wednesday morning last the London journals published telegraphic despatches as to the condition of affairs the day before in Cabul and Candahar in Central Asia. What a wonderful tale that simple statement tells. But the world has got so used to scientific marvels and achievements that the most astonishing facts coming to its notice fail to astonish. One of the most remarkable features of astonishing things in these days too, is their extreme utility. It is wonderful that telegraphic communication has been established between London and Cabul, but that establishment must prove of immense value.—News.

It is related that a Hindoo on being introduced to an American in India, refused to shake hands, on the ground that people in the United States eat the flesh of hogs after it had been kept in brine for a long period. From the Hindoo point of view such diet would represent the extremity of disgust, but when we learn that vast quantities of pork are annually consumed as food, and think what the habits and nature of the hog are, we cannot wonder at the horror expressed by the Hindoo. At Ashbury Park, N. J., the Mayor had to take strong measures to break up the traffic in diseased pork. The despatch which conveys the intelligence adds that large shipments of the same kind of meat are regularly made to New York. Another, and perhaps, better authority says that very few hogs sent eastward are free from disease of some kind.

A story is told of a daughter of a prominent person now in the lecture field, which is peculiarly interesting and suggestive of unconscious wisdom. A gentleman was invited to the lecturer's house to tea. Immediately on being seated at the table, the little girl astonished the family circle and guest by the abrupt question, "Where is your wife?" Now the gentleman, having been recently separated from the partner of his life, was taken so completely by surprise that he stammered forth the truth—"I don't know." "Don't know?" replied the enfant terrible. "Why don't you know?" Finding that the child persisted in her interrogatories despite the mild reproof of her parents, he concluded to make a clean breast of the matter and have it over at once. He said with a calmness that was the result of inward expletives, "Well, we don't live together; we can't agree, we'd better not." He stifled a groan as the child began again, and darted an exasperated look at her parents. But the little torment would not be quieted until she exclaimed, "Can't agree! Then why don't you fight it out as pa and ma do?" "Vengeance is mine," laughingly retorted the visitor, after "pa" and "ma" exchanged looks of holy horror, followed by the inevitable roar.

PUNISHMENT IN THE ARMY.—Courts Martial have been busy at Halifax lately. A private, named Taylor, belonging to the 97th Regiment, was sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment for drunkenness. On being removed to the guard room, he struck the Regimental Sergeant-Major in the face with his glangery cap, for which he was subsequently sentenced to five years' imprisonment. William Cullerton, aged twenty-one, a Royal Artillery Gunner, was also tried by District Court Martial, and sentenced to two years imprisonment and to be dismissed from the service with ignominy, "for insubordinate language" to Major Macdonnell. The most remarkable case, is the following: "Some time ago a gunner of the Royal Artillery named Moran, for unbecoming language to Major Macdonnell, and "insubordination," was tried by a District Court-Martial and sentenced to two years imprisonment, and to be dismissed from the service with ignominy. After the promulgation of his sentence, Moran was being removed to the guard-room, under an escort—a rather young recruit. Considerable snow had fallen that morning, and only a narrow path had been shovelled from the room in which the Court was held to the guard-room. Lieut. Howie was standing or walking slowly along the path, when Moran, smarting under the punishment that had just been meted out to him, and apparently not recognizing the officer, placed his hand on the officer's shoulder, and gave him a gentle push, telling him to get out of the way. For this crime Moran was tried by a General Court Martial on the 26th inst. After hearing the evidence, the Court sentenced Moran to seven years penal servitude—the previous sentence of two years being remitted. Moran is a young Irishman 21 years of age. He will be confined at Melville Island until the 12th proximo, when he will probably be sent to Bermuda in H. M. S. "Boxer," and from Bermuda to England in the "Bellerophon."

SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

VISITOR:

The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia

PRINCIPAL:

The Rev. John Padfield.

THIS SCHOOL offers, at very moderate cost the advantages of a comfortable and pleasant home together with a thorough and refined education.

The course of instruction is the same as that of the best Schools in England and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Eight young ladies from this School passed the Local Examination of the University of King's College in June last. This is the only School in Canada that has passed pupils at a University Examination.

The number of pupils is limited, rendering the School select, and while it possesses all the educational advantages of a large public school, each pupil is enabled to receive that individual care and oversight which is so important, and which cannot be given in a large establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Padfield are assisted by a staff of four resident governesses, besides visiting masters.

Parisienne French is taught conversationally. There are two resident French Governesses.

References given to parents of pupils. For further particulars address the Principal.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.—
"DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite clear of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.
