Mr. Beer was a student at the Prince of Wales College. He will spend his summer holidays at home and will resume his studies at Kingston in September. Mr. Beer was one of the honored cadets who formed the guard on duty in the City Hall, Kingston, at the time of Sir John A Macdonald's death. We heartily congratulate our young friend on his success, and trust he will always maintain the lead through his collegiate course.

Godfrey carries an elegant gold-headed cane, presented him by his Boston friends last year. He says it is fourteen years since he was last in Charlottetown, and he notices that many changes have taken place since that time.

Fishery Bulletin.

(Fisheries Intelligence Bureau Report.)

Halifax, June 30.—The reports to-night indicate that the storms prevail throughout the fishing districts on the shores of P. E. Island. It is reported that the weather during the past week has been the most disastrous to the fisheries for years, the whole coast being covered with wrecks of traps and nets.

The reports of fish to-day are as follows: Salmon fishing did very well at Long Point and Mingan, Que. caplin very good at St. John River, Que., and fair at Thunder River, a few herring were taking in nets at Ingonish, C. B., and mackerel are reported schooling in large numbers at Lunenburg, N. S.

Will the friend who borrowed my field glass some months ago please return it, as I have as much use for it as he has.—W. W. Beer. 2i

The Caledonian Club Room, corner of Queen and King Streets, has lately been nicely painted, the walls tinted and the room refurnished throughout, so that now it presents a very creditable appearance. The regular monthly meeting of the Club will be held this evening at 8 o'clock when a full attendance of members is requested.

Police Court.—This morning the defendant in an assault case was fined $1 and costs, and a young man charged with being drunk and disorderly was given $30 or 30 days. A man for allowing a cow to roam at large was fined 75 cents without costs.

Social.—Miss Wilson and her pupils entertained a large number of ladies and gentlemen in the hall, corner of Prince and Kent Streets last evening. A well-aranged programme of vocal and instrumental music, dialogues and recitations, was carried out in a manner creditable alike to both pupils and teacher. The way in which the little ones—some very little ones—acquitted themselves, spoke volumes for the thoroughness of the instruction imparted. A. Lord, Esq., presided. Every person present was well pleased with the entertainment furnished.

The Month's Work.—During the month of June, closing to-day, forty-one cases were adjudicated upon by His Honor the Stipendiary Magistrate, as follows: Abusive language, 1 conviction, 3 dismissals; assault, 1 conviction, 1 dismissal; drunkenness, 18 convictions; breach Lord's Day Act, 2 convictions; larceny, 1 conviction, 1 dismissal; cattle at large, 4 convictions, 1 dismissal; disorderly driving, 1 dismissal; annoying persons in dwelling, 1 dismissal; nuisance, 2 convictions. Ten cases were sent up for trial in the Supreme Court. The number of drunks for the month of June last year was 19.

A good story is told of the Duke of Wellington in church. An old lady in humble circumstances chanced to be next the Duke both in a kneeling attitude, and arising from her position, recognizing the Duke, attempts in an apologetic manner to vacate the seat. The Duke very graciously forces her to be seated by him, remarking "we are all alike here." This reminds us of how alike people are in their fancies of flowers. The pansy, for instance, is a universal favorite with all, and we can say with the Duke of Wellington, "we are all alike here"—especially with such beautiful delicate colored ones as Gay & Son are selling in the Market and at home. See their ad. of flowers and vegetable plants.
