

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY PROMISES BIG PROGRAM

Murray Harbour and Vicinity

Miss Blanche Millar, Chestnut Hill, Mass., is spending some time at her home in Murray Harbour North.

Mr. Jack McLure, Montague, was a visitor to Murray Harbour North, on Tuesday, September 16th.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Buell and Mr. Joseph Hume, Murray Harbour, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Millar on Sunday, September 14th.

Mr. Hugh Nugent, Orillia, Ont., spent a few days visiting friends at Murray Harbour North. Mr. Nugent was student minister at St. Peter's Church, Murray Harbour North last summer. While here he was the guest of Mrs. Annie Kennedy.

Miss Belle McLure was a recent visitor to Summerside where she visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. Weston Johnston, and daughter Karen, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McHerron, Montague on Thursday.

Mrs. Bessie Graham, Peter's Road, accompanied by her son Merrill left recently for Gibbons, Alberta, where she was called due to the illness of her brother, Mr. Joseph McLean.

MANY REPEATERS

AMHERST, N. S.—(CP)—Feature of a Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic here was the number of "repeaters". Constable Andrew Duff headed the list with his 30th donation. Roy Facey had 29, and several others more than 20.

BETTER RESULTS

OSLO, Norway—(CP)—The death rate in Caesarean operations at the Norwegian State Hospital here has been reduced to one in every 672 operations. The 15 rate compares with 1.98 per cent in the 1930-48 period.

Whim Road and Vicinity

Mr. Barry Nicholson, Charlottetown, recently spent the week-end at his home at Whim Road.

Mr. Richard Campbell, Commercial Cross, was a recent visitor to Charlottetown.

Mrs. J. N. MacDonald, Whim Road, and Mrs. Harvey Fraser, Montague, were recent visitors to Summerside.

Miss Mary MacKinnon has returned to her home in Charlottetown, after spending some time at Commercial Cross, the guest of Miss June Beaton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. MacPherson and family, Bellevue, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, Whim Road.

A successful dance was held at Whim Road Hall on Wednesday evening, September 17th, with a large crowd attending to enjoy the old time square dancing.

It is regretted by all that Mr. Colin MacDonald, Kilmuir, is now a patient in the P. E. Island Hospital, Charlottetown. He is wished a speedy recovery by his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lawson, Stanhope, and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Watts, Charlottetown, recently left on a trip to New York, Boston, and other places in the United States. Mrs. Lawson and Mrs. Watts are former residents of Whim Road, both daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Campbell.

BIG KILT

ARGYLL, Scotland—(CP)—Although John Savidge, Britain's champion weight-puller, is not a Scotsman, it was decided he should wear a kilt at the Cowal Games. However, they were unable to find a kilt big enough for the six-foot seven-inch athlete.

Bristol and Vicinity

Mrs. George Deveaux was in the City on Saturday, Sept. 20th, on business.

Two young boys in this vicinity were trapped recently breaking windows in the C. N. R. railway station and received a "severe" reprimand.

Miss Mary McAdam, one of the community's popular young ladies, has taken a position as head waitress in the village diner and has a welcome smile for every one, and that means a lot in the restaurant business.

Mr. Joseph Deagle has moved his house from Dundee out to the paved highway in this vicinity to a site where Mr. Laybolt lost his house in a fire a year ago. Well along in the evening of life now, Mr. Deagle is retired from the seashore where he spent most of his working days.

Mr. P. R. Sinnott, Jr., received his call to the Civil Service recently, having passed the exams. He left on September 1st, for his station outside Halifax. A graduate of Saint Dunstan's University, he taught school for some time and was on the staff of R. T. Holman's Charlottetown store before being called to his Civil Service post. His friends wish him every success.

A new family arrived here to reside on Thursday, September 18th, from the City. They are Mr. and Mrs. Kelly and family of five small children, who have taken up residence in Mr. Will Tobin's house for the winter months at least. Everyone welcomes this new family and wishes them success.

The old mill road from the highway north towards the shore has been completed and is now a lovely road, for the first time for a long while. In fact it is doubtful if this road has ever been re-built before in fifty years, as the old residents say it was never a real road.

Mr. Pius McInnis, the smart Guardian delivery boy, has gone to college and his route has been taken over by Mr. Eldershaw, who is a very early bird, meeting the paper truck in the morning, and has the papers around before some of the women folk are up for the day.

When Mr. and Mrs. W. A. O'Brien and children were leaving their summer home here on Wednesday evening, September 17th, they noticed a large snake in the yard and Mr. O'Brien, wanting the children to see one for the first time, took them across the yard to see the creature wiggle away. Suddenly the ugly creature turned and wound itself into a coil shape with its head raised and eyes blazing. As Mr. O'Brien tried to drive it away it re-curved to strike out. Seeing the danger to the children, Mr. O'Brien, without a moment's hesitation jumped on the brute, partly crushing it, and long enough to grasp its tail for a death swing that is sure death for them. Mr. O'Brien states in all his years and meeting with hundreds of snakes, especially in the corn fields in the U. S. A., never before did he see one turn to put up a fight or look so dangerous as this brute.

TWO KILLED

BRIDGEWATER, N. S., Sept. 16—(CP)—Two persons were killed and two others seriously injured today when the car in which they were riding collided with a train near their south shore town. Elizabeth Velnot, 17, and Earnest Sach, both of nearby New Germany, died in hospital following the crash. In critical condition are Elizabeth Sach and Patsy O'Brien.
