

Corcoran-Blacquiére Wedding

A pretty wedding took place in Stella Maris Church, North Rustico, P. E. I., on June 23, when Annette Adele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Blacquiére exchanged vows with John Francis Corcoran, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Corcoran of Moncton, N.B. Rev. Eric Robin, pastor of Stella Maris, performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass.

The young bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length dress of white nylon net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her fingertip veil of nylon fell from a coronet of pearls.

The bridesmaids, Miss Isabel Blacquiére, sister of the bride, wore a mauve ballerina length dress of nylon net over taffeta; and Miss Carmelita Blacquiére, another sister, chose a pastel green ballerina-length dress also of nylon net over taffeta. Both wore matching headpieces and shoulder-length veils and carried bouquets of yellow and pink mums.

Miss Angela Gallant, cousin of the bride, as flower girl, wore a floor-length dress of yellow nylon, and carried a basket of garden flowers.

The groom was attended by Pte. George MacDonald of Glace Bay, and the ushers were: Cpl. R. E. Choquette and Cpl. W. J. Derkus of Ontario.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the girls' choir sang appropriate hymns under the direction of Miss Bernadine Gauthier, organist.

The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue penguin with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a navy blue nylon plisse dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

After the ceremony reception was held at the bride's home for the immediate relatives. For her honeymoon, which was spent in New Brunswick, the bride wore a two-piece suit of grey and white with white accessories. On their return, after a few days spent in North Rustico, the groom left for Halifax, where he embarked for Germany on July 13. His bride will join him in a few weeks time and their many friends wish them every happiness.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Corcoran, Moncton, N.B.; Miss Barbara Corcoran, Moncton, N.B.; Mrs. Jack Nelson, Stoney Creek, N.B.; Mrs. Edwin Steves, Stoney Creek, N.B.; Pte. George MacDonald, Glace Bay, N.S.; Cpl. W. J. Derkus and Cpl. R. E. Choquette, both of Ontario.

Prince County Sewing Class Hear Speaker

Mrs. J. W. Adams, president of the Federated Women's Institute of Canada, was a special guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Casey, Kelvin Grove, on July 13, when the members of an adult sewing class held their achievement night.

Twenty-one Institute members of Kelvin Grove and Wilmot Valley had completed a course given by the W. I. Mobile Sewing Unit at Kelvin Grove School and on this occasion displayed and modelled the finished articles for their guests, who were the national president, as previously mentioned, the supervisors, Miss M. Robin and Mrs. R. Manning, Mrs. Julian Herring, Mrs. Fred Gates and the members of Freetown W. I.

The guests were welcomed by the Kelvin Grove president, Mrs. Leaman Casey who spoke of the sociability of the sewing class and complimented the instructors, Miss M. Taylor and Miss R. Brown, who had made the time pass so pleasantly, and so profitably. Miss Brown spoke briefly on the project and had each member of the class display her work.

The instructors were presented with gifts from the sewing class by Misses Sheila Casey and Lillian Anne Hogg.

On behalf of the Women's Institute, Mrs. Harold Laird presented Mrs. Adams with a piece of pottery made of Island clay, and a view of Green Gables, as a memento of her visit here. Miss Robin and Mrs. Manning were presented with bouquets of cut flowers.

Mrs. Adams addressed the company and Mrs. Herring, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Manning, Miss Robin and Mrs. Cecil Paynter, president of the Freetown W. I., each spoke briefly.

Refreshments were served when Mrs. Harold Laird poured, and Mrs. Casey was assisted in serving by Mrs. Ralph Moore, Mrs. Fred Court, Mrs. Crawford Picketts, Mrs. Robert Hogg, Mrs. Eric MacMurdo, Mrs. Douglas Webster, Miss Louise Cairns and Mrs. Horace Paynter.
