"For more than two years I have suffered from what Physicians called LIVER and KIDNEY TROUBLE. Nearly all the time I would have severe pains in my back and sides, with a constant dull pain in the region of my liver. My bowels were constipated, and I was generally very nervous and irritable. At times, in fact I was well broken up. For two months I have been taking SKODA'S DISCOVERY and SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS, and I AM A NEW MAN. Appetite good, bowels in good condition. Headache, palpitation all gone. No trouble with liver or kidneys now. I AM WELL. You certainly have a wonderful remedy in SKODA'S DISCOVERY as I have taken many of the Sarsaparilla, and have been treated by different Physicians without getting permanent benefit."

Boston Markets.

April 28th.

BUTTER.

There has been very little increase in the receipts, but demand has been moderate and for small lots only, with the market a little more in buyers' favor than a week ago. Northern creamery is a shade easier, the finest lots having only a moderate sale at 22c. Eastern creamery rather slow at about 20c. Western extras have been selling generally at 21 to 21 1/2c, and only now and then a special mark to special trade reaches 22c. There is a good deal of under grade western creamery that is very hard to sell at 17 to 19c.

New Northern dairy is still in full supply and straight lines are selling generally at 17 to 18c, and also selected lots of strictly extra quality bring full quotations. Imitation creamery and lardle packed stock remains dull and easy. Fine boxes and trunks steady.

Receipts for the week 180 bbls., 12,176 cases; last week 54 bbls., 12,430 cases. Receipts continue moderate and there has been demand enough this week to keep the markets closely sold up. Since Tuesday choice fresh Michigan and western have been selling well at 15c. There are some inferior marks of western that are selling for less, but good clean fresh good are firm at 16c.

Receipts past six days 62,000 bush.; previous six days 68,500 bush. The potato market continues in a demoralized condition, especially on Rose, for which 40c. has become an extreme price. Our quotations represent the asking prices for good sound stock, but receivers are anxious to sell and buyers wanting any considerable quantity are met with liberal concession. There are a good many lots of odds and ends clearing up at about 30c.

OATS.

Spot supplies have shown some increase and under a light demand prices have declined about 1c. from a week ago. Shipping prices have shown more strength, recent sales of clipped being made at 38 1/2 to 39c. Spot clipped are moving slowly at about 41 to 41 1/2c. with No. 2 and 3 dull at 40 and 39c. as sales rule. Low grades are dull.

FISH.

The market is still quiet with but little change in prices. Quotations for herring and mackerel are mostly nominal.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

A Timely Suggestion.

The following letter from Mr. A. B. Warburton, M.P.P., speaks for itself. We thank him for responding to our call for stronger protestations against the unjust changes in the Railway. His suggestion to call a public meeting is timely. We see no reason for further delay in the matter. In fact there is urgent need for immediate action. If Mr. Warburton will call the meeting he will find our people ready to respond. The letter is as follows:—

Sir—The reduction in the number of daily trains on our local railroad must cause much inconvenience, if not loss to the people of this Island. Not only are needed trains taken off, but booking stations, which have proved useful to the public, are to be abolished. This retrograde movement on the part of the Railway department cannot fail to incense the people (to use a very mild term) all classes. The interests of this province demand at least as many trains and booking stations as we formerly had. While all East and West must suffer by the extraordinary changes made, possibly the people on the Cape Traverse Branch have exceptional ground for complaint. The facts are now so well known that I need not particularize them.

It is not my intention to make this a political question, for the reason that, in common with many, if not all of both political parties, I earnestly desire to get back what I firmly believe to be our rights in this matter. The public require who was subpoenaed as a witness in this Court and failed to attend thereunder, to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. Haywood having appeared and stated that he had attended on the subpoena, but having been informed that the case would not be called away. Court ordered to give his own recognizance in the sum of $150 to appear before the Supreme Court of Summerside on the first of June term next, then to abide by the judgment of the Court. Mr. A. Peters for the Crown; Mr. A. B. Warburton for Haywood.

Wellington Mathews vs. Margaret E. Wares. Mr. F. L. Hazard for applicant proved notice of appeal. On motion of Mr. Peters the Court allows this case to stand over till next Trinity Term on payment of costs.

The Result of the Change.

Things are getting no better fast on the railway since trains Nos. 3 and 4 were cancelled. The regular train from Charlottetown was over an hour late, yesterday morning, in reaching Summerside, and the through train from Tignish overran her time three quarters of an hour. Freight is piling up in the freight sheds here, and all along the line. It now looks as if necessity would compel a return to the old order of things.

The Montreal Herald.

The Montreal Herald came to us last night in a new dress. It is certainly the best looking daily in Upper Canada, and from a hurried glance over its editorial and news columns we are of the opinion the other Montreal papers will be compelled to strike a gait in order to keep up with it. We wish the new Herald abundant success.

Mendelssohn's Elijah.

The fifth concert by the Charlottetown Philharmonic Society, came off last evening. The audience was a fairly large one. Mendelssohn's "Elijah" was the attraction. As a contributed article in our issue of yesterday says, this oratorio "has the recommendation of being considered the greatest musical work of the present century." Last evening it was presented to a Charlottetown audience for the first time. We do not intend to enter into a criticism of presentation. We believe such a course would be useless, as very few of our people are familiar with this masterpiece of Mendelssohn's. It is one of the most difficult musical productions we have, and its rendition is very rarely attempted except by those who have superior opinions of their musical abilities. To say that the performers last night did not do very well would hardly be doing them justice. In our opinion they did as well as could be expected. But at the same time it must be acknowledged they attempted more than their abilities warranted. We mean no injustice to the several performers when we say so. Music of this class is not adapted to a community like Charlottetown where musical talent is limited. It is only attempted in such cities as New York or Boston, and then with considerable fear and trembling.

Mr. Lloyd did well to start the performance sharp on time. It is right and proper not to tire the audience before the performance commences. The soloists were pretty much the same as generally appear before a Charlottetown audience. They all carried their parts through neatly, although Professor Owen's voice did not appear to be in its usual form. Some of his notes were rather harsh. Mrs. Malcolm Macleod always sings well and her efforts last night were up to her usual mark. Miss Fraser also sang nicely, but the alto throughout was not strong. The substitution of a musical instrument for the natural voice is not desirable. The tenor was not what might have been expected. We noticed several breaks which marred the effect considerably. It may have been a lack of material which necessitated one person taking three different and distinct parts. This, no doubt, greatly overtaxed Mr. Lloyd, who had to act as conductor as well. The choruses were not properly attacked, and the orchestral music was strikingly weak. Six musical instruments are not sufficient for this production. The time, particularly in the solos, was noticeably poor.

The selection of Mendelssohn's "Elijah" for last evening's entertainment was not a good one. It was not calculated to do the Society justice. But musically inclined people are just like everybody else—they like to strike for deep water before they learn to swim. Had the Society attempted something of a less difficult nature—a Cantata such as "Ruth," they would have made a success of it. Experience is a hard master. With all deference to the soloists, we do not think it advisable to keep the same people continuously before the public. People are apt to look for a change.

Scott Act in King's County.

Thursday, the 28th April, Prosecutor McCormack gained five Scott Act convictions. The defendants were all natives of the capital of King's County. The witnesses testified without the usual variation on such occasions. The hall at Sturgeon is small, but it was well packed with eager listeners so that the best of order prevailed. T. Annear and J. Jamieson were the J. P's. The number of cases tried in Montague and vicinity by Messrs. Annear and Rowe must be bordering on thirty, besides a few cases by other magistrates; and out of the whole number a good majority have been convicted. Still there is quite a number yet to be reached. In the Supreme Court, Georgetown, last February, the presiding judge gave the Sheriff a broom to clean the juries of King's County of law breakers. His Lordship did right, so the law-abiding people say. Here is a lesson for Premier Peters and his colleagues to purify and cleanse the magistrature's lists from all violators of the laws, and aiders and abettors also, who often make it their business to place all the obstruction possible in the way of the magistrates to defeat the ends of justice. Among the number that have been used by the Prosecutor are four or five women, Justices of the Peace, office holders under Government, a vendor; the rest are made up of people, chiefly farmers, who have sold out and gone into the villages to and their days selling the poisonous drugs, thereby ruining the souls and bodies of their fellows for the sake of fifty lucre. Talk about abolishing the Scott Act with such facts before us. Can any law abiding citizen cast his vote to defeat the Scott Act, and place it with those who use every stratagem to defeat the law so that their coffers may be filled, and become rich at the expense of their poor dupes, who after they have extracted the last cent from them and the life-blood from their wives and children, leave them naked and penniless. No, no, electors of King's County, arise in your might. If an election should be forced on us, vote to retain the Scott Act, and in due time Prohibition will follow without fail.
