Juniors Farmers Hold Banquet

The New Glasgow and districts Junior Farmers held their third annual banquet at Shining Waters Lodge, Cavendish, on October 7th. Grace was offered by William Andrew; 84 guests partook of a delicious hot turkey dinner.

The president, Leith Dickieson, presided over the head table. Guests included Mrs. Dickieson; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan MacKay; Mr. and Mrs. Rolly Larkin, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, Stuart Wright and Mrs. Wright; President of the P. E. I. Junior Farmers' Federation, Mrs. Sterling MacRae and Mr. MacRae; Mr. and Mrs. William Andrew. After proposing a toast to the Queen Mr. Dickieson remarked on the fine co-operation he had received from the members and directors during the past year. He complimented them on their initiative and perseverance.

Mr. Wright congratulated the New Glasgow group on their many achievements, and felt that their group could be favorably compared with any group in Canada. Others making complimentary remarks were: Mr. MacKay, Mrs. MacRae, Mr. Larkin, Elbert Orr, James Coles, Fred Kitson, Melvin Larkin, Basil McCoubrey, Jay Edwards, Robert Rackham and Mrs. Blair Andrew.

A sing song and instrumental music, in the spacious lounge, were led by Mrs. Eugene Larkin and Miss Coleen MacAleer. Mrs. (Dr.) Ian MacMillan accompanied by Mrs. Ivan MacKay favored the gathering with a solo. The guests spent an enjoyable evening in modern and square dancing. Justine Gallant operated the record player.

GREAT THEATRE

London's Royal Albert Hall, dating from 1873, can hold an audience of 8,000 and an orchestra and choir of 1,000.

Canadian pianist Glenn Gould is shown with Ben Feakes whom he met during a visit to a senior citizen's home in Winnipeg. The young pianist apologized for not shaking hands, saying: "I'm a pianist." "That's fine," replied Mr.

Feakes. "I play the mouth organ and I'm not going to kiss you."

WMS, Explorers Hold Service

The thanksgiving service of Explorers and the W.M.S. auxiliary of St. David's United Church, Georgetown, was held in the church hall on Friday, October 2nd. The president of the auxiliary, Janie Llewellyn, conducted the service, with Mrs. H. Larsen as organist.

Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie as guest speaker gave an interesting and informative address on the Women's Missionary Society, the size of the organization, its worth and work at home and overseas.

A chorus by the senior girls "A Melody of Love" added merriment to the service, as did the special numbers by the Explorer group. These were: a choral reading "Thankfulness", a chorus, "We Thank Thee Lord", and a motion song, "Peter, James and John". Offering was received by Kenny Walker and David MacDonald. After benediction by Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie, the Explorers were given a treat of candy by auxiliary.
