ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Sunday, August 13th during the Sunday School session of the Clyde River Baptist Church, the Superintendent, Mr. Allie MacLean called upon Mr. Edward MacPhail to read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matheson while Mrs. J. Heber MacPhail made the presentation of a purse of money.

The following is the address:—
To Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matheson

Dear Friends:—We the members of the Clyde River Baptist Church wish at this time to convey to you our heartiest congratulations on the happy event of your recent marriage. You, "Robert" have always been a great help to our little Church both spiritually and socially and we feel sure that your partner will add to your help in these respects.

To you, Mrs. Matheson, we extend a happy welcome to our Church and its activities and we trust you will find it your Church home.

We would say God Bless you both, and may you be spared many happy and prosperous years among us. Please accept this small gift with our every good wish for your future happiness, health and prosperity.

Signed on behalf of the members of the Clyde River Baptist Church.
EDWARD MacPHAIL,
Clerk.

BLIND HALIFAX ARTIST PLAYS ORGAN AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY

A Lesson In Courage

(Halifax Chronicle)

It is common for most of us to be discouraged, at times, because we lack this or that advantage. It is common, too, to blame various causes for a lack of progress when we should rather blame ourselves. Courage and determination are important qualities and their value is well illustrated by the story of Ivan Gillis.

Ivan came to the School for the Blind at Halifax in 1925 as a seven year old kindergarten pupil, the son of J. M. Gillis of the deputy provincial treasurer's office. From the start he was a keen and intrepid student. He soon showed a leaning towards music and received instruction from J. C. Williston of the school's staff. Ivan graduated from the school in 1936, obtaining at the same time his provincial Grade XI certificate. He then attended Dalhousie University where he took special classes in England and foreign languages. Music was still his primary interest, however, and for three consecutive years he won the Maritime musical festival trophy, in his age group, for piano solo performance.

Today Ivan is attending the Royal College of Music, London, and in July was one of the 38 successful candidates out of 158 to attain to the degree of Associate, Royal College of Organists. His organ work is under Professor Goldsborough of the Royal College but another of his instructors is Dr. Bullock, organist at Westminster Cathedral, who has given Ivan the privilege of "trying out" the famous organ there installed.

And so Ivan, handicapped with a disability much more serious than many of the disadvantages which sometimes discourage the rest of us, goes bravely on, achieving ever greater progress in his musical career. His progress, surely, is a lesson. —(Patriot Please Copy.)

MRS. ANN C. LAIRD

(Vancouver Daily Province Aug. 16)

Many friends of Ann Carruthers, widow of Hon. Alexander Laird of Prince Edward Island, gathered in Nunn & Thomson chapel to pay a last tribute to a well-known Prince Edward Islander. Rev. Harry Lennox and Rev. W. A. Cameron officiated, and interment was made in the family plot, Mojmtain View Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dr. R. S. Carruthers, D. J. McCutcheon, Ephriam Reid, Prof. George E. Robinson, Dr. G. G. Moe and Stewart Easton.

Mrs. Laird came to Vancouver with her daughter, Sarah, twelve years ago. Besides her daughter, she is survived by two sons in the city, Dr. D. G. Laird and R. S. Laird; three grandchildren, Anns, Bernice and Allan Laird, and three stepdaughters, Mrs. Charles R. Osburn of Phoenix, Arizona, and Miss Edna and Miss Amy Laird of Vancouver.

Resolutions Passed at C. W. L. Convention

The following resolutions were passed at the recent diocesan convention of the Catholic Women's League:

1. Be it resolved our thanks are due and hereby tendered to his Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan of Charlottetown for his kindly interest and gracious assistance to our organization throughout the past year, and his presence at our opening meeting of this Convention. Also to Rev. W. E. Enright C. SS. R. for his splendid address on the same occasion.

To our Chaplain, Rev. R. F. McDonald for his helpful assistance throughout the year and during this convention.

Also to Mr. Alex McLean and his orchestra for coming to our Convention and assisting at our opening meeting.

Also to Miss Helen Adams and Miss Louise McDougal for their splendid exposition of the value of Lay Retreats. To Mr. Pius Callaghan, Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan for the splendid address, Rev. Bernard Gillis for singing.

Also to Charlottetown Sub-division and its gracious president Mrs. Frank Murray and Dr. Patrick McMahon for their hospitality and many courtesies extended to the delegates. To the Reverend Sisters of Notre Dame Academy for kind hospitality. To all we extend grateful thanks.

Whereas it has come to the attention of this convention that the community of the Sisters of the Precious Blood would be very grateful for assistance at any time particularly in the line of foodstuffs and household necessities, be it resolved that each Sub of C. W. L. in the Diocese will some time within the coming year, at their own convenience, send a hamper of such goods.

Whereas from the result of discussion during the Convention re Diocesan Convention, we deem it wise to clarify the situation, so be it resolved that in future when such Diocesan Conventions are held in Charlottetown unless by special invitation from the Charlottetown Sub-Division such Conventions will be financed and directed by the Diocesan Council, and its officers.

Whereas this Convention deeply appreciates the work already done by the committee who have been actively engaged in trying to have taken from our book and general stores all indecent magazines and periodicals which have been banished by the Dominion Parliament from circulation in Canada and whereas copies of such unclean literature are still being sold in some stores. Be it resolved that we support in every way possible this committee in this endeavor.

Be it resolved that this 17th annual convention of the Catholic Women's League in Charlottetown Diocese go on record as supporting fully and unanimously all the resolutions adopted at the National Convention held in Winnipeg in June 1939.

Whereas we are asked particularly by our National Executive Secretary, Elizabeth F. Glennon to take specific action on the National resolution re voluntary registration of Canadian Women particularly members of the C. W. L.

Be it resolved that the Diocesan Council C. W. L. of Charlottetown have copies of this resolution printed with an added message instructing members to take immediate action in this matter. Sufficient copies to be printed and distributed to all members, each distribution to take place through the agency of the District Subdivision.

Be it resolved that the C. W. L. of Charlottetown Diocese in Convention assembled promise to support as far as possible the campaign for the prevention of cancer in this Province and to continue our help and support to the Anti-Tuberculosis League of P. E. I. land.

Whereas the expenses of a National Convention are very great and all monies in the National treasury must come primarily from the various Dioceses and whereas the cost of financing a delegate to Conventions in various parts of this wide Dominion comes very heavy on the Diocesan Council treasury, be it resolved that a National Convention be held Bi-annually instead of each year as is the present custom.

Intermission

A moment's intermission comes
To free the mind from every care,
A fleeting pause that in its sumns
A brief respite from loads we bear;

The evening sun is setting now
And softening down the traffic roar.
The city lights come out to glow
And gleam upon the farther shore.

A moment musing and the dream
Of other days comes back to me:
The plough is stopped, unhitched
the team,
And homeward bound to stall and
"Tea."

The fire is stoked, the teatime smoke
Denotes activity within
The house; while horses yet unyoke
And measure cracked oats from the bin.

And what an intermission then
With consciousness of work well done,
Ah me, had I the choice again
There stay would I till life were run.

But homeward from my desk I go
Along the street's monotony
Of figures flitting to and fro
That mean so little now to me:

Hotels may service advertise
And once could make me ill at ease
With style, but how I now despise Themselves, their flunkeys and their lees:

Their lees, the same old boresome crowd
Of oversmart and over shy,
Of over mean and over proud,
And over cheap and over sly.

Till now the only hope I hold,
That life might fade as life began
Upon the honest country mould
However long or short its span.
—James M. Maclean.
