NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) — Bullish news for steel and copper failed to sustain the stock market Monday. The list backed away from a moderate gain and closed irregularly lower.

Weekend reports of rising demand for steel and a boost in the industry operating rate to nearly 80 per cent of capacity buoyed steel shares. Their gains were reduced and in some cases erased by the close.

Coppers had the benefit of a cent-a-pound price increase by leading producers. They too, were higher from the start but were not particularly active as they enjoyed a good rise last week on expectations of improved prices at home and abroad.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell $1 to $216.60. Profit taking in an assortment of blue chips weighed the average downward.

International Nickel trimmed a 1-point gain to as the coppers reacted. Aluminium Ltd. and McIntyre Porcupine both gained a point among other Canadian gainers. Granby Mining and Walker - Gooderham lost minor fractions.

Canadian gainers on the American exchange were Richwell, Sapphire Petroleums and Canadian Marconi. Among the losers were Molybdenite, Preston East Dome, Jupiter Oils and Scurry-Rainbow Oil.
