

OST. AND MRS. THANE A. BELL

RCMP Wedding Is Held At Bedeque United Church

Baskets of scarlet yellow and white mixed flowers decorated the altar of Bedeque United Church recently for the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Regimental wedding of Carol Jean daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Bradshaw, Searleton to Constable Thane Arthur only son of Mayor and Mrs. Gilbert Bell, Borden. Rev. R. M. Cameron officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride given in marriage by her father entered the church to the strains of "War March of the Priests" played by Mrs. Walter Craig. Mrs. Willard Leard, soloist sang "The Wedding Prayer" during the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride wore floor length gown of traditional white in a peau de sole featuring long lily length train which fell softly from the shoulders. Wide borders of Guipure lace trimmed the skirt, bodice and train. A four tier bouffant veil held in place by a cluster of organza roses trimmed with Guipure lace completed the bride's attire. She carried a cascade of scarlet Ball-hal roses entwined with stephanotis and ivy. Cultured pearl earrings were the only jewellery worn, a gift from the groom.

Norma Bradshaw, Searleton was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Helena Sherry Albany and Halifax and Marjorie MacArthur Kensington and Halifax. They wore identical pale gowns of french silk over taffeta designed on empire lines with elbow length sleeves accented with narrow border of French lace. Their headresses were short veils of yellow tulle illusion held in place by tiered bows of matching material. The maid of honor carried a semi-cascade of scarlet and white carnations with flowing scarlet and white ribbon. The bridesmaids carried scarlet and white carnations

Wedding Vows Exchanged At Cherry Valley Church

Baskets of gladioli and an arch decorated with mixed flowers provided the setting for an Autumn wedding in Cherry Valley United Church recently, when Wanda Carol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex N. MacLeod, Uigg, exchanged vows with John Truman Hayden, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hayden, Cherry Valley. Rev. W. M. Grant performed the double ring ceremony. The church organist, Mrs. W. A. Mrtch accompanied the

ELLEN'S DIARY

Jars Of Jelly Glean On Sunny Windowsills

Light dampish cloud-drift today gave, with not even enough of blue sky showing to allow one, fancifully, to make a sailor's pair of trousers, though there was some promise of clearing. The sunshine would come, we knew, all in good time to highlight the delights of the season about: the colorful trees, the pumpkins' gold in the garden, ripening tomatoes, and jars of jelly ranged along a windowsill.

"Now remember, Ellen, never make your jelly on a cloudy day" a farmwife who had a good hand at the housewifery back in the years, once advised us. "And when it is in the jars and sealed, be sure you set it in a window where the sun can shine through it. That will clear it - make it so pretty, you will be counting it among your jewels" she smiled.

Full and colorful, the season continues to be. "Always at this time of year, I find myself wishing I were an artist, so that I could paint the autumn scenes all about" Alex offered wistfully this morning, when we stopped on the rise of lane which takes one down to its bridge. The sky was then gently overcast. The flock of sheep, brought home of late from the other farm, pastured in the near meadow. Their fleecy coats washed in recent showers were creamy-white, against the brown lace, and a beige hat with matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses. Mrs. Bell, mother of the bridegroom chose a three piece suit of pink silk, with pink flowered hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Church hall at which Wayne Inman, Summerside, acted as master of ceremonies. Rev. Alex MacKay Kensington, grand-uncle of the bride proposed the toast to the bride.

Master Brian Tredaniel, nephew of the bride circulated the guest book. Telegrams were received from Regina, Hamilton, Port Hawkesbury and Glace Bay.

For their wedding trip to Niagara Falls and north eastern USA the bride travelled wearing a two piece silk knit suit of powder blue, with an original model navy straw hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses. Constable and Mrs. Bell are now residing in Halifax, N. S. where the groom is a member of the Halifax detachment of the RCMP and the bride is on the staff of the Halifax Infirmary Hospital.

Barbara Anne MacLeod, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. For a wedding trip in the Maritimes the bride chose a powder blue knitted sleeveless dress with a matching coat, trimmed with white fur on sleeves and collar. She carried a muff of matching fur, and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Potluck Supper Sponsored By St. Mark's Guild

The members of St. Mark's Church Guild decided at the October meeting to sponsor a joint meeting of the women's groups of St. Mark's, and a number of others interested enough to attend. A pot luck supper is on the agenda, and every one will be asked to bring something to eat, and to provide her own dishes. In addition all are invited to bring an idea "for the church, for our own groups, or something we can do for others, especially the older folks." The meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, November 1, to be held in the hall.

The meeting was held in the church hall with the president, Mrs. D. L. McInnis in the chair and opened with the collect for the 17th Sunday after Trinity. Reports were given on the new hangings which are being made, and the finances, and appreciation was expressed for a coffee maker, a gift for the hall kitchen from Hazel Smith of Cambridge, Mass.

St. Mark's WA Members Report On Semi-Annual

St. Mark's WA met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Paynter, Kensington, for the October meeting on Wednesday evening. The president, Mrs. Elmer Moase presided and the devotions were led by Mrs. Cecil Mill. Roll call was answered with the text word "Harvest". The treasurer, Mrs. Walter Moase gave the financial report and the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ernest Mill reported on letters received. Mrs. Cecil Mill, Dorcas secretary, read the supply sheet for the St. Mark's donation to the La Tuque Indian School. The president read letters offering opportunities for money making projects, and it was decided to send for samples of nylon.

Members who attended the Semi-annual meetings of the Diocesan WA brought the others up to date on the work of the WA or the Anglican Church Women, as it now may be called. The Diocesan Board has planned to meet at Kensington on October 17th at 3 p. m. for the regular monthly meeting, the members were told. Yarn to knit into garments for the "Save the Children project" was distributed. The members were asked to help with the Little Helpers Party later in the month. The Mission Capsule, "Medical Mission in India" was read by Mrs. Elmer Moase.

For the next meeting on November 2nd, the text word will be "love". Mrs. Harold Mill will be in charge of devotions. This will be the annual meeting and officers were asked to bring written reports and dues, etc. will be paid. The members were pleased to accept an invitation from Mrs. Lorne Silliker to hold the meeting at her home. Meeting closed with the Benediction.
