AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest to take I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro., Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S PILLS in numerous instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable."

J. T. HAYES.

Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The Rev. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.

Loyal Addresses.

At the concluding sederunt of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, the following loyal addresses were adopted:—

TO HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

To Her Majesty the Queen:— We, the ministers and elders of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, representative members of the General Assembly, now in annual session, approach Your Majesty with renewed expressions of unalterable attachment to your Majesty's person and crown.

We deem it a high privilege to form an integral portion of an empire based on those principles of civil and religious liberty which, as a church, we have ever counted dear, and over which the sceptre of Your Majesty has been so long and beneficently extended.

We congratulate Your Majesty on the good example set by Your Majesty's Government in the effort to settle international differences by peaceful arbitration instead of by having recourse to the stern arbitrament of the sword.

It is to us also ground for thankfulness that the disturbances in our Northwest territories are coming to an end and that there is reason to hope that the result will be to bind the confederated provinces more closely together and to intensify the loyalty of the people to Your Majesty's Throne.

We tender respect for congratulations to Your Majesty on the approaching marriage of your beloved daughter, and pray that it may be a source of increased happiness to Your Majesty and Your Royal house.

That Almighty God may continue to bestow on Your Majesty His choicest benedictions, that He may graciously prolong a life and rule so fruitful of blessing to all classes of the community, and that he may extend and perpetuate amongst us the righteousness that can alone exalt a nation, is our earnest and united prayer.

In the name and by the appointment of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

TO THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

May it please Your Excellency,—

We, the ministers and elders of the General Assembly, representative of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, avail ourselves of the opportunity furnished by another annual session to give expression to our sentiments of high respect for your personal and official character.

We have marked with interest the ability and impartiality displayed by Your Excellency in fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of your high trust, and the laudable efforts made by you, through personal visitation and otherwise, to become thoroughly acquainted with all the sections of our widespread Dominion. It is ground for gratitude that notwithstanding the protracted commercial depression, the country enjoys such a fair measure of prosperity. Our thankfulness is intensified by the thought that the serious troubles, of which, during the past season our territories in the Northwest have been the scene, are nearing their termination, and that, though for the present disastrous, may yet tend to the welfare of our common country, that He who is governor among the nations may greatly bless Your Excellency and Lady Lansdowne and render your viceregal rule a source of special advantage to the whole Dominion, is our heartfelt prayer.

In name and by appointment of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Deputation Relating to Reciprocal Trade.

(Ottawa Citizen)

A number of members representing fishing constituencies, among whom were Messrs. Stairs, Daly, Moffatt, Kaulbach, McDougall, of Picton, Wood, of Westmoreland, McDougall, of Cape Breton, Fortin and others, waited on the Right Hon. Sir John Macdonald and Hon. MacKenzie Bowell on the question of the commercial relations between Canada and other countries relating to the trade in fish and fish oils.

Mr. Stairs read the following paper: To the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, G. C. B., K. C. B., M. P., Premier of Canada.

We, the undersigned representatives of countries where sea fisheries are carried on, and others beg to submit that we strongly approved of the resolutions passed by the House of Commons on the 31st March last, in virtue of which fish and fish oils of all kinds imported into Canada from other countries are to be, after the 1st of July next, subjected to a custom duty.

And we take the liberty to add that we would regret very much to see any longer fish and fish oils of any other country entering into Canada free of custom duty, unless reciprocal advantages are given to us by such countries.

Signed,—

K. J. Burns, Henry N. Paint, M. B. Daly, A. C. Macdonald, John F. Stairs, E. Hackett, Murray Dodd, J. T. Jenkins, H. F. McDougall, J. A. Gagne, Robert Moffatt, C. E. Kaulbach, P. Fortin, Chas. H. Tupper, P. A. Landry, W. H. Allison, H. Cameron.

The Shape of the Face.

The human face should be oval, and the dressing of the hair and the arrangement of the bonnet trimming should be done with regard to producing this effect. Before buying a new bonnet the purchaser must decide whether her hair is to be worn high or to be brought down in a Catogan braid.

The London "Times."

The office of the London Times has been so altered and rebuilt that it is unrecognizable by any one who saw it a few years ago. The circulation is not thought to be now over 50,000, but the advertisements show no decline.

Personal Thrift and Economy.

WHAT A PROMINENT BANKER SAYS ABOUT THESE QUALITIES.

Mr. George Hagne, General Manager of the Merchants' Bank of Montreal, lately delivered an address to young men on "Thrift and Economy in Personal Expenses."

Mr. Hagne, who remarked at the outset that he spoke principally out of his own experience, and that he would address himself especially to young men, proceeded to deal with his subject in a fourfold sense. (1.) The object of thrift and economy. The principal object to be obtained was the acquiring of a competency for future necessities. Among the latter he placed marriage and the entering into business for one's self as worthy objects to be striven for by young men. The interruptions of sickness and the certainty of old age make the acquisition of a fund to fall back upon an important duty. (2.) How to accomplish this gathering together of a competency. The principal means is by taking care of little sums. Economy in the selection of a boarding-house, in dress, and especially in luxuries, would enable a young man to attain the desired end. By practicing self-denial in youth, the necessity for curtailment in regard to certain lawful pleasures will pass away the quicker. (3.) What will economy and thrift lead to? The speaker furnished his hearers with some figures representing the net results of saving little by little at the end of a given number of years. By commencing in youth even with saving the smallest sums, they might find themselves at forty-five or fifty years of age in the same position as the present large capitalists of Montreal and other cities, very many of whom began their career in a similar manner. (4.) The practical use of this course of self-denial is not confined to material benefits. The intellect will be developed, the moral faculties strengthened and life be full of real enjoyment independent of useless gratifications. The habit of using accumulated means for the benefit of others will grow and this is one of the greatest luxuries of life. The speaker concluded with an appeal to his young friends to begin early in life to lay the foundation of fortune and character by thrift.

More Trouble in the Northwest.

(Montreal Witness.)

It appears probable that before this summer is over there will be serious trouble at Battleford unless a strong body of troops is left in garrison there to keep the settlers and the Indians apart. Almost from the hour that the Indians laid down their arms the settlers became belligerent. They expressed their intention of shooting every Indian at sight, and in several instances they appear to have carried out this threat, although so thoroughly has the matter been hushed up that nothing definite is known. They declared that if the Indians were allowed to return to their reservations they would drive the settlers out of the country, and during the month that has followed Poundmaker's surrender, events appear to corroborate that view. Poundmaker's reserve is now said to be full of bad characters bent on reprisals, among whom no white man dare enter. The Stoney have again taken up arms, and now there has been a large number of horses stolen in the teeth of the garrison at the barracks. These events, all doubtless exaggerated, either show that the Indians are untamable, or that the settlers are determined to have them driven from their reservation at any cost. The tone of General Middleton's order as to these reported disturbances, and the manner in which the Indians surrendered, leads to the belief that it is the settlers, and not the Indians, who are disturbing the peace this time.

Opposed to Annexation.

The New York Herald's Washington correspondent writes:—"President Cleveland and the administration are entirely and absolutely opposed to all acquisitions of territory, whether of Cuba or Mexico or elsewhere. The President feels very positively and strongly on this point. He believes that we have now, as much territory and as large a mass of illiterate and ignorant material in our population as we can safely manage. He is totally opposed to an aggrandizing foreign policy and believes that we have work enough to do at home in reforming our home administration. He believes that the extension of commerce with our neighbors on fair terms of exchange will benefit us and them and that the cultivation of such commercial relations will give us all the benefits which we could get from the possession of their territories, without the grave burdens and costly responsibilities which territorial extension would bring upon us. It is certain therefore, that no schemes for the purchase or annexation of Cuba, or for other territorial extension will find favor with President Cleveland."

Mushroom Parasols.

Mushroom parasols are among the novelties. They are made of silk canvas, woven gauzes, black, white and colored, and covered with a shirred circle of piece lace, black, white or colored, with a ruffle at the edge to match, or sometimes with a deep flounce of lace, which does duty for both covering and border ruffles. The lace forms a choux (cabbage) or tuft at the top, made more decorative by the addition of a ribbon bow and loops and floating ends, the artistic handle being adorned.
