

Women's Institute Meetings

CRAPAUD W. I.

The December meeting of the Crapaud Women's Institute was held in the Institute Room, with the new president, Mrs. Heber McVittie, in the chair. The annual report was presented, showing 38 paid-up members for the ensuing year. It also showed $163 paid to the school, $180 to the Public Library, and $125 for repairs on the hall piano, as the largest items of expense.

The school was redecorated by the Institute in pleasing colours, with donations given for Christmas treats and prizes, also other items supplied as requested by the teachers. Next year the school committee is to be taken from the roll call so that all members may have an opportunity to visit the school.

The adult sewing class, organized in this Institute, was discussed and plans made for Achievement Day to be held in Crapaud at the end of the course.

This Institute also sponsored the Dental Clinic during the year. The 25th anniversary of this Institute is to be celebrated with a dinner in March. The Institute looks forward to another successful year.

SOUTH GRANVILLE W. I.

The December meeting of South Granville Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Peter Morrison on Wednesday evening, December 3rd.

Miss Alexandra Keir, president, took charge of the meeting, which opened by singing the Women's Institute Carol followed by Creed. Roll call was responded to by thirteen members and one visitor, at which time the members exchanged Christmas gifts.

Minutes of the last meeting were read, approved and signed. The financial statement regarding the bazaar held in November showed actual proceeds to be $65.85.

Committees gave reports; no requisites for school this month, and also no sick. Bills were then on motion paid to Miss Ena Morrison, who procured a new bell for the school, to Mrs. Chappelle for dust-bane bought for school, and to Mrs. S. Corbett for Guardian ad.

New committees appointed are as follows: School, Mrs. Abbott and Miss Annabel Keir; sick, Miss Alexandra Keir and Mrs. McInnis; lunch, to assist hostess, Mrs. McInnis and Miss Annabel Keir. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Stirling Corbett when roll call will be "A Scotch Joke".

Correspondence was read by the secretary: two treats given by Women's Institute were gratefully acknowledged; $5 was voted towards Christmas Seals Campaign, also $5 to treat children in the district at Christmas.

Two contests, "Counting Beans" and "An Advertisement Quiz", put on by the Misses George Somers and Ena Morrison respectively, were won by Mrs. Louis Corbett and Mrs. Wellington McInnis.

Collection for the evening was 65 cents. The president adjourned the meeting with the "Island Hymn", following which the hostesses and committee in charge served delicious refreshments.

NORTH WINSLOE W. I.

The regular meeting of the Winsloe North Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Claude and Heath Craswell, on Tuesday evening, December 2nd.

The meeting opened by singing the Island Hymn and repeating the Creed in unison. Roll call was answered by eleven members with an exchange of Christmas gifts.

Three members paid their fees. The minutes of the annual meeting were read and adopted. Mrs.

Preston Cudmore thanked the members for fruit and gift she received. A gift of $1.00 was received from a former member who moved from the district. The sum of $28.43 was received from a pantry sale held recently.

It was moved and seconded to give the teacher $5.00 to get treat for the children at Christmas. Bills were presented and paid.

Mrs. Claude Craswell was appointed Red Cross convener for the coming year. The school committee reported jacket needed for the stove. It was decided to hold a weighing party and auction sale in the near future, the program to be in charge of Mrs. Alton Younker, Miss Reta MacNeil, Mrs. James Cudmore, and Mrs. Preston Cudmore. Collection for the evening amounted to $1.10.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Leonard Cudmore, when the lunch committee will be Mrs. Grant Laird and Mrs. Walter Roberts. Mrs. Heath Craswell will be in charge of the program.

The meeting closed by singing "God Save the Queen", after which lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge.

RIVERVIEW W. I.

The members of the Riverview Institute, Hunter River, met at the home of Mrs. George Smith for their December meeting.

The president, Mrs. C. B. Matheson presided, and the meeting opened by singing the Ode and repeating the Creed in unison. The roll call was answered and the minutes were approved as read.

Reports of committees were heard and new ones appointed were: School, Mrs. J. L. LePage and Mrs. Dan MacLeod; sick, Mrs. Roddie Ford and Mrs. Murchison; and Mrs. E. Bernard; lunch, Mrs. Matheson, Mrs. MacKinnon, Mrs. Murchison; and Mrs. Geo. Smith.

It was moved and seconded to send five dollars to the T. B. League, also that a bill for shrubs for the library be paid.

The shut-in boxes are to be prepared by Mrs. Spence, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Stead and Mrs. Haslam, also a parcel to be packed for overseas.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Haslam when the roll call will be answered by a New Year's resolution. The exchange of Christmas gifts was greatly enjoyed.

Lunch was passed by the committee in charge, assisted by Mrs. Smith. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

WARNING!

To Car-Driving Christmas Shoppers

This is the season of the year that the police department urges shopping motorists to take extra precaution in locking the doors of their cars when it contains packages; better still, lock the packages securely out of sight, in your trunk.

Speaking of packages, there are several that could come in very useful this holiday month. Voids Chlorophyll Tablets, for instance, to stop breath and body odor. Voldoren antiseptic mouth wash for that stale, fuzzy mouth and Fluoradene Toothpaste with its magic tooth whitener and chlorophyll. When the rush, excitement, and late hours make you nervous, jittery or unable to sleep, take Sedacin. These products are sold at drug stores only.

Say Merry Christmas with Canada's Mildest Cigarette

Player's Please

Christmas used to drive me crazy!

"Every year it was the same. Presents to buy and cash at low ebb. Running up bills... then I got smart. I started a special Christmas account* at the Royal Bank, adding something each pay day... and leaving it there. This year I'm all ready for Christmas, with cash to pay for all the things that mean so much at this season of the year."

* You can have cash next Christmas, too. Decide now to open a special Christmas account early in 1953. It pays to do your Christmas saving early.
