WATCH ATTENTION.

Attention that will keep its fine mechanism in perfect condition. It doesn't take much oil to make it mark time, but it must have that mite, and have it at the right time.

It is our business to correct all difficulties about a watch, and make it keep correct time.

We can promise you expert work in engraving as well as in watch repairing. You can always depend on having the work done well.

EMYVALE NOTES.

Mr. Francis McGuigan, Lot 30, while returning from the city Saturday slipped, and struck his face on the hard ground, inflicting a severe wound, it is to be hoped that he will be all right in a few days.

Mr. Geo. McGee has just completed plastering Mr. Terence Hagan's new dwelling house, situated in the vicinity of Kingston. No doubt this will be an enticement to the pretty maids of Emyvale and surrounding country.

Mr. Andrew Berrigan, one of the most prosperous farmers of this district, is making preparations for the erection of a new pigsty, which he intends having fitted up with the latest improvements, and with accommodations for forty hogs. The contract has been let to Michael Smith, of Brookvale.

Mr. James Connolly is on a flying visit to his friends on the Appin Road.

Mr. James Murray, jay has taken Mr. P. Connolly's trotter (white T. Brown) in charge for the coming race; and (Farmer) owned by James McGinn, is being trained by our noted horse jockey, Mr. Jacob Corney.

Christmas passed off quietly here.

The camel is a beast of great strength and endurance. Nothing hurts it until the proverbial "last straw" is added to its burden. The human digestive system is very much like a camel. It is really astonishing how much abuse it will stand. Sometimes, however, something worse than usual will be eaten, and will go through the stomach into the bowels, and there it will stick—that's constipation. Nine-tenths of all sickness is due to constipation. Some of the simplest symptoms are coated tongue and foul breath, dizziness, heartburn, flatulence, sallowness, distress after eating, headaches and lassitude. A little thing will cause constipation, and a little thing will relieve it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a certain cure for constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, mild and natural in their action. There is nothing injurious about them. Sold by drug gists.

CONCERT AND PIE SOCIAL AT MURRAY HARBOUR.

A concert and pie social under the auspices of P. A. Lodge, I. O. G. T., was given in the public hall, Murray Harbor South, on the evening of the 21st. D.C. The spacious hall was filled when the hour for opening arrived. The programme was as follows:

- Address..... Chairman Mr Henry J Brehaut.
- Singing..... Keep it Rolling The Choir.
- Reading..... Flora McPhee.
- Instrumental music—Autoharp and Violin W H Bull and Frank Bishop.
- Dialogue..... Who's Turn Gavin Murdoch and Herbert Moore.
- Singing..... The Loyal Legion Choir.
- Recitation..... George Moore.
- Instrumental music..... W H Bull and Frank Bishop.
- Singing—Tenting on the Old Camp Ground Choir.
- Dialogue..... Who am de Mudder W H Bull and H Moore.
- Singing..... The Misses Harris.
- Solo..... Mrs Arch McDonald.
- Dialogue..... W H Bull and Leith Cowan.
- Stump speech..... Negro W H Bull.

The performers acted their respective parts in an admirable and praiseworthy manner, and the dialogues and stump speech held the audience spell-bound. At the close of the programme the pies were auctioned off by Jas. LeLacheur, Esq., who did his part most creditably. The amount realized was about $26.

Murray Harbor, Dec. 28, 1899.

Murray Harbor South Scho 1.

The semi-annual examination of the primary department of the Murray Harbor South School was held on Thursday the 28th inst. It was conducted by Miss Brehaut, teacher, assisted by Miss MacPhee, Vice Principal. The pupils, by their ready answers, gave evidence of very careful training which reflected great credit on the teacher. There were present besides the trustees several ladies and ratepayers of the district, also Mrs. Dwyer, from Picton, N. S. Remarks were made by Rev. E. Gillies, A. P. Prowse, M. P. P. and Mr. Sencabaugh, who expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the way in which the children had acquitted themselves also expressing regret at knowing that the teacher was about to sever her connection with the school. The following address was read by Helen Clements, and a very elegant silver cake basket was presented by Eda M. Prowse to the teacher on behalf of the pupils. At the close the teacher treated each child present with candy neatly done up in paper bags:

To Miss Julia W. Brehaut, teacher of Primary Department Murray Harbor South school.

DEAR TEACHER.—Knowing that this is your last day with us in the school room, we feel we cannot let you leave us without expressing our appreciation of the kind and faithful way in which you have taught us during the past three and a-half years. We hope that the careful training which we have received from you may never be forgotten and that in some future day "The teacher may assert her claims And proudly whisper these were mine And now please accept this gift as a token of the love of YOUR PUPILS.

Murray Harbor South, Dec. 28th, '99.

REPLY. To the Primary Department of Murray Harbour South School.

MY DEAR PUPILS:— I wish I had the power to express in words the gratitude I feel towards you for your kindness in preparing this pleasant surprise for me. Your gift is an elegant one, and I shall prize it very highly. I am afraid I have done nothing to deserve it. I thank you from my heart, not only for the beautiful present, but also for your kind words. It is with the keenest regret I bid you "Good-bye" today. I can truly say that the years spent among you have been among the happiest of my life. I shall miss your bright little face-upturned to greet me each morning. You have all endeared yourselves to me by ties which this beautiful token will ever keep in memory. My prayer for you all is, that you may early learn of the "Great Teacher" and grow up in His fear to be good and useful men and women, and

"When the lessons of life are all ended, And God says His school is dismissed, May we all meet together in Heaven And none of our number be missed"

Is the sincere wish of your affectionate teacher, JULIA W. BREHAUT. Dec. 28th, 1899.
