OBITUARY MRS. GEORGE J. CREED On October 31st she entered into rest Mrs. George J. Creed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Acorn, Milltown Cross.

The former Annie MacDonald was born in 1866, the daughter of Alexander and Anne MacDonell.

In her earlier life she spent some years in Massachusetts, then returned to her native place, and in 1894 she married George J. Creed of Albion, A. I.

For the past 26 years she lived with her eldest daughter, Edna, Mrs. George Acorn at Milltown Cross.

She will be kindly remembered by those among who she lived as a cheerful and helpful friend and neighbor. A member of the United Church of Canada she was sustained throughout her life and in her final hours by an unflinching Christian faith.

Besides her daughter with whom she lived, she is survived by one other daughter, Verne, Mrs. H. L. MacMillan, Woodville and one son, Bentley Creed, Highfield, as well as seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren. A brother David MacDonald, Chelsea, Mass., also survives.

The funeral, under direction of Montague Funeral Home, was a service held in the church and was conducted by Rev. H. M. Pocklington and Rev. A. S. Weir. A large number of people were present to pay their last respects.

Funeral services were Wallace MacKenzie, Leslie Turner, Seymour Taylor, John Livingston, Homer Turner and Mrs. M. J. Flowerbeers were: Garfield MacLeod, Sidwell Jenkins, Lloyd MacKenzie, Arnold O'Connor, Merrill Dodge, Interment was in the Dundas cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS The family of the late Mrs. George J. Creed wish to thank all those who set expressions of sympathy. They are especially grateful to the kind neighbors and friends who helped so much during the illness and death of a beloved mother.

Dragoons Mark Gallant Action

OTTAWA (CP) - Members of the Royal Canadian Dragoons gathered around an old 12-pounder here Wednesday to commemorate the gallant action of the regiment 62 years ago in the battle of the Ebor War.

The gun is one of two pieces commanding officers of the regiment saved the guns from falling into enemy hands and 17 of the Canadians were awarded Victoria Crosses.

Brig H. A. Phillips, a former commanding officer of the regiment, placed a wreath. Soldiers from the regiment at Camp Gagetown during the ceremony and a similar ceremony was held there.
