Local and Other Items.

EXPECTED.—The str. Miramichi is expected here this evening.

THE ENGINEERS.—Every member of the Engineers corps is requested to be at the drill shed in uniform at eight o'clock this evening. The corps will be inspected by Major Davidson, R. E., Kingston, on Monday next, at ten o'clock.

NO MEDICINE in the world is in better repute or more widely known than Ayer's Sarsaparilla. As a safe and certain remedy for all manner of blood disorders, leading physicians and druggists everywhere recommend it in preference to any other.

THE BEATRICE.—The steamer Princess Beatrice, Captain Kelly, left for Halifax about half-past three o'clock yesterday afternoon. She had a cargo of lobsters, pork, etc. Miss Gillis, Miss Bessie Fraser, Mrs. Reeves, Miss Reeves and Mrs. A. Cummings went as passengers.

MUCH injury is done by the use of irritating griping compounds taken as purgatives. In Ayer's Pills, the patient has a mild but effective cathartic, that can be confidently recommended alike for the most delicate patients as well as the most robust.

AFTER DAMAGES.—A Mrs. Webster, whose husband was killed at the Temple building elevator, Toronto, some time ago, has taken action for $11,000 damages against the Methodist Church of Canada and the trustees of St. James Street congregation, who are owners of the building.

RAILWAY MENS' CONVENTION.—The Railway Mens' Christion Convention of 1889 will open at Richmond, Halifax, to-morrow. Mr. J. J. Chappell is the delegate from the Island road. The Intercolonial, Windsor and Annapolis, Nova Scotia Central and other railways are also represented.

EXCURSION.—A large excursion party came over from Tatamagouche in the str. M. A. Starr yesterday. The steamer arrived here about one o'clock, and sailed on return at eleven last night. We understand that the excursionists were very much pleased with their trip, and with what they saw during their stay in the city.

STRUCK THE WRONG MAN.—A sailor on the steamer Electra from Lunenburg to Halifax, offered an easy-going man who looked like an American tourist, a lot of choice cigars at a cheap rate. He admitted that they had been smuggled. The stranger quietly remarked, "I'll take the whole of them," and displayed a badge of office, which revealed him as Customs Detective Bonness.

PICNIC AT CAPE TRAVERSE.—Though the sky was for the most part overcast, and there were one or two light showers, the large picnic party in connection with Zion Church Sunday School enjoyed a very pleasant day at Cape Traverse. The attendance was large, and everyone seemed to enjoy the railway excursion and the walks along the breezy shores and quiet country roads, while the excellent management of the committee left nothing to be desired in respect to the inner man. Many of the picnicers paid a visit to mine host and hostess of the Landsdowne House; and all were, we believe, impressed with the attractions of Cape Traverse as a place of summer resort. Cape Traverse is, in truth, a very beautiful part of the country, and affords excellent facilities for bathing.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester, Capt. Nickerson, sailed for Boston at the usual hour last evening, with a cargo of eggs, mackerel, etc., and the following passengers: Mrs W O Clarke, Miss Clarke, Mr Wear, Miss K Wear, E H McDonald, J L Compton, W O'Meara, Mrs O'Meara, M L Ryan, Mrs McDonald, John McDonald George McDonald, Charles McDonald, Jerome McDonald, Mary McDonald, Margaret McDonald, P F Cunningham, Mrs Cunningham, Miss Ross, J Reilly, L Peters, E N Pike, Mr Lemar, Mrs Lemar, Mrs Furlong, M Sherry, Miss Maskell, Miss McKenzie, B Gerardue, Chas Grant, Thomas Croken, Thomas Arsenault, P McQuaid, Charles Deighen, Jas Kenny, Edward Moynagh, Geo Gaudet, S McRae, Mrs Barlow, Miss J Bonnell, Miss C Robbins, H G Howlan, Mrs Doyle, J Miller, Miss McLean, Mrs Coyle, Sarah Coyle, Mrs J Noonan, and several return passengers.

Personal.

Mr. W. A. Brennan, of the Journal is registered at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. H. Henderson, of Sackville, N. B., formerly of Charlottetown, is visiting the city.

Mr. Arthur Newbery left for Boston this morning. It is said that his trip will be one of unusual interest.

William Lawson, of Lawson, Harrington & Co., has been appointed consul of the Argentine Confederation, in Halifax.

Sir Henry Loch, Governor-General at Victoria, Australia, with his suite, and also Sir F. A. and Lady Brassey, of England, are visiting Canada.

Miss Mary Reynold died at Musquodoboit, Halifax Co., on Sunday last, at the age of 103 years. Single blessedness was not a failure in this case.

The Ottawa Free Press says Prof. Stone Wiggins has just been presented with a hat by the snow-clearing contractors of Government Hill for his prediction concerning the weather last winter. The contractors are reported to have made money.

A London special says: Miss Huntington, daughter of Mr. C. P. Huntington, is engaged to be married to Prince Hatzfeldt, the German Ambassador in London, who is likewise married to an American girl, Miss Moulton. The Countess is, however, now separated from her husband. There is nothing against the Prince but a tendency to contract debts. His debts are estimated at 4,000,000 francs.

The Halifax Herald says: His Majesty the King of the Belgians has accepted the resignation of C. E. Ronne, who has filled the position of Belgian Consul in Nova Scotia for the past twenty years. Arthur E. Curren is, we learn appointed as successor to Mr. Ronne—as consul for Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and P. E. Island.

Lord Randolph Churchill was much congratulated by Ministerialists on his brilliant and effective speech in the Commons on the royal grants. "Splendid speech; better than Gladstone's," said one, to whom Lord Randolph, with a glance of anger and disgust, replied: "That's absurd!" and then turned on his heel. Mr. Gladstone has no more sincere admirer than the dashing young statesman, who has so often dashed the gauntlet of political defiance in his face.

The Queen wrote as follows of the present Emperor of Germany in 1860, when he was 20 months old: "He is such a little love. He came walking in with his nurse in a little white dress, with black bows, and was so good. He is a fine fat child, with a beautiful white, soft skin, very fine shoulders and limbs, and a very dear face—like Vicky and Fritz and Louise of Baden. He has Fritz's eyes and Vicky's mouth, and very fair curly hair. We felt so happy to see him at last."

Tennis Tournament.

The rain prevented the progress of the play yesterday afternoon, and the game was continued to-day. The prizes will be presented at the park after the play is over this afternoon.

In the mixed doubles yesterday Mr. Stewart and Miss Bail defeated Mr. Arnaud and Mrs. Arnaud.

The mens' singles this morning was won by Lloyd, of Sydney, who defeated Hensley, of Windsor. The ladies singles was captured by Miss Burpee, of St. John, who defeated Miss DesBrisay.

The finals in the mixed and mens' doubles are being played this afternoon.

The visiting players and their friends were entertained by the local club at a ball at Government House last evening. The attendance was large, and all present thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Dancing began at nine o'clock and was kept up with spirit until about three this morning. The Citizens' Band provided good music. The ball room was tastefully decorated with tennis nets, racquets, etc., and the verandah was festooned with flags and awnings. The grounds were prettily illuminated with colored lights.

The cricket match between a team selected from the visiting tennis players and a team from the Park club, postponed yesterday because of the rain, is in progress this afternoon.

Telegraphic Odds and Ends.

A BUDGET OF GENERAL NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 21.—There now appears to be some doubt about Bishop Walsh's acceptance of the archbishopric of Toronto. Bad health is said to be the cause.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 21.—The Sultan's yacht will convey a special mission accompanied by a large suite, to meet the Emperor and Empress of Germany. They are charged with a complimentary message from the Sultan to the German ruler. It is reported a deputation of Cretans are going to Athens to solicit Emperor William's protection.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 21.—Russia has accepted the appointment of Husni Bey as Turkish ambassador to St. Petersburg.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—A despatch from Crete says a Mohammedan memorial has been sent to the Sultan protesting against the concessions demanded by Christians and recommending that the privileges of Christians he reduced and that they be disarmed.

VIENNA, Aug. 21.—Two Russian students, a French professor and two sisters have been arrested here in connection with the case of the son of Russian general Degen and the editor of a Lemberg paper, who were arrested at Lemberg on Monday on a charge of promoting socialism in Austria.

MASSOWAH, Aug. 21.—The Abyssinian general Rasalula has advanced to Godofelassi and made overtures for peace. General Baldissera, commanding the Italian expedition, has rejected the proposals and advanced upon Rasalula, compelling him to retreat beyond the river Biesa.

MONTREAL, Aug. 21.—A gigantic organ to contain no less than seventy-five stops and to cost in the neighborhood of thirty-five thousand dollars, is now being built under directions of Mr. Casavant, of St. Hyacinthe, in the Notre Dame Church. It is to be finished next summer.

PORT COLBORNE, Ont., Aug. 21.—M. E. Coster, who is putting in wells for natural gas about seven miles from here, struck it last evening at about 600 feet. The flow is large and in paying quantities.

Strong Testimony.

MRS JOHN ROSS,—For the past eleven years I have been a great sufferer with a cankerous sore on my ankle, for which I tried several remedies that did me little or no good, until I applied your Magic Healer Salve, which I began using about three months ago, and am now perfectly healed. I can cheerfully recommend it to anyone similarly afflicted.

MRS. DANIEL COMPTON.

Georgetown, July 11, 1889.

The above testimonial was voluntarily given by the lady whose name is appended to it. The Salve here referred to is manufactured in Charlottetown, and for sale throughout town and country, being within the reach of all.

For any skin injury, test the MAGIC HEALER. Ask for it, and take no other, until its merits are fairly proven.
