SHOP from Holman's Catalog.

—MRS. A. C. HARDING will be demonstrating Mazola Oil in Holman's grocery department for the next week or more.

—POLICE COURT—At the Police Court on Thursday morning a drunk was fined $15 or 30 days in jail. He took the days.—H.

—MAZOLA OIL is more economical and more delicious for Bread and Pastry. Attend the demonstration conducted by Mrs. A. C. Harding in Holman's grocery department and be convinced.

—FISHING—Fresh herring are very scarce in this vicinity, consequently the lobster fishing is slack on the North Side on account of the shortage of bait. Reports from the west of the county would indicate that good catches of lobsters are being daily taken. Our fishermen here are optimistic and claim the herring will "strike" in these waters soon.—H.

—STILL IN SERIOUS CONDITION—The condition of Mr. Wallace Gillis who was burned by the explosion of a can of gasoline on Thursday is still serious. One arm, the flesh of which in places is burned to the bone, is very painful, his face and legs are also burned. He will be confined to his home by this accident for some time.—H.

—FURTHER PARTICULARS—Particulars of the recent fire which destroyed the residence of Mr. Thos. Shreenan at Kinkora, show that the fire was first discovered on the roof of the main building, caused, it is supposed, by sparks from the newly lighted fire and in a very short time, owing to failure of the pumps, it was beyond control. At the time Mrs. Shreenan was absent at early mass and the boy was engaged in milking in the stable. Willing neighbors who were promptly on hand succeeded, by great efforts in saving nearly all the furniture. The residence was valued at over $2,000, upon which there was only about $300 insurance. In their heavy loss Mr. and Mrs. Shreenan have the sincere sympathy of the community.

Western Personals

—Mr. George Creamer, Souris, was in town this week and left for Albany and Tryon where he is visiting friends.—H.

—Rev. George A. Jeffrey, formerly of this town but now of Drakeville, Ia., is at present visiting his many friends here.—H.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. ANDREW DIXON

A highly respected citizen in the person of Andrew Dixon was laid away in the Belfast cemetery on April 9th amid a large gathering of people.
 The deceased had reached his 80th year. He had been in failing health for some time and with Christian resignation and hope awaited his approaching end.
 All his life time he was owner of the Pinette Flour Mills—well known in their day, and it is only the lot of a few to cater to the public for so long a period and to retain the esteem of all men unbroken to the end.
 He was the last member of a large and honorable family. His parents came to this country from Berwick on the Tweed, England, many years ago.
 Considerable property remains to be divided among his relations.
 Mark the perfect man and behold the upright for the end of that man is peace.

DONALD R. STEELE

There passed peacefully away at his home in Gasperaux on April 27th, Donald R. Steele in the eightieth year of his age. Deceased was well and in his usual good health until about two weeks before he died, when he was stricken with pneumonia and despite all that loving care and kindness and the best of medical skill could do, it proved of no avail against the silent angel of death.
 The late Mr. Steele was a man of sterling character in every respect, upright and just in his dealings with his fellow men, a kind and charitable neighbor in time of need, and a consistent contributor to church, hospital and other beneficent organizations.
 Born and brought up in Gasperaux, he lived a long and useful life in the community and by his industry and intelligence succeeded in building up one of the finest and most comfortable homes in the settlement. He took a prominent part in all gatherings of a public nature and at tea parties, concerts, and other like functions, his native Scottish wit and pleasantries caused him to be much sought after as an auctioneer of baskets and cakes. His death is a distinct loss to the community and of him it may well be said "The world is better for his having lived."

Upwards of sixty carriages followed his remains to their last resting place, St. Paul's Cemetery Sturgeon, where the funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Theo. Gallant.

He is survived by six children: John Andrew of St. Brioux, Sask.; Herbert of Halifax, N. S.; Mary of Dorchester, Mass.; and William, Margaret and Matilda at home. Herbert and Matilda at home during the illness of their father and were with him when the end came. The community extends its sincere sympathy to the bereaved ones in their loss of a thoughtful and affectionate father.

JAMES WHEELER

Entered into rest on Saturday April 29th, 1922, at the home of his sister, Mrs. William James Macdonald, Red House, James Wheeler, in the 66th year of his age. Mr. Wheeler was the youngest son of the late Phillip Wheeler and Hannah Durrin Wheeler, and born at Bay Fortune, P. E. Island. When quite young he went with his father to Newfoundland, his mother of sterling character in every respect, upright and just in his dealings with his fellow men, a kind and charitable neighbor in time of need, and a consistent contributor to church, hospital and other beneficent organizations.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

Mrs. G. H. Stevenson and family. Dear Friends,—Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in His all-wise providence, to remove from you your kind and loving husband and father, we on behalf of the members of Refuge Division, wish to convey to you our heartfelt sympathy, in this your sad bereavement. We know that human sympathy is of little avail, but we would direct you to Him who alone can sympathize with all, and comfort the broken hearted. We know that you shall miss the guidance of your beloved husband and father, but may the Great Patriarch above direct you to that Haven of Rest, where sorrow is never known, and where love and harmony reign forever.
 Signed
 MYRTLE CUTLIFE,
 LAURA WEEKS
 R. T. NICHOLSON

Interment was made in Bay Fortune Cemetery. The pall bearers were Nell Ross, James Macdonald, Alex Anderson John Jackson, William Underhay and Charles Mills.

MISS MARY MCLEAN

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of a highly esteemed old lady in the person of Miss Mary McLean, of Hermanville, in King's County, in the 82nd year of her age. She had been hearty and strong up to a few months ago, doing her own housework, as there were but the two in the family, herself and her brother. She had been always a healthy, hard-working woman who did her bit to maintain the operations of the farm, both inside and out, as a thrifty farm-woman must needs do to get along in those stringent times. Previous to a few years ago she kept house for her brother Dan in which they both, working together, attained much competency. At Dan's death, another brother Joseph who had been following the fishing in Cape Anne, all his life, came home to take charge of the place. She leaves this only brother, Joseph to mourn his loss, there being no other brothers or sisters. Joseph is therefore left alone in his old days, and there is much sympathy for him in the neighborhood. Her death took place at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon and her burial to St. Margaret's, on the following evening. The funeral cortege was very representative, friends and acquaintances leaving their plow to pay last respects to an estimable lady. In her last sickness she was well and truly fortified by the last rites of her Church at the hands of her beloved pastor.

An Income Return of Over 7 1/2%
 Owing to the continued advance in Bond prices, opportunities to purchase a well-secured investment, yielding a substantial income, are rapidly disappearing.
The First Mortgage Bonds of the Canadian Paperbond Co., Limited
 At 95.50 and Accrued Interest give the investor the high income return of over 7 1/2% for a period of 15 years.
