

ALPHA CHAPTER HOLDS PARTY

On Wednesday December 12 members of the Alpha Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority held their December meeting and Christmas party. The short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ernest Lord and an interesting program on Christmas decorations was presented by Mrs. Roderick MacKenzie. The members brought gifts for the Christmas boxes for the Protestant and Catholic Welfare Bureaus. Following the business meeting the entertainment committee, Mrs. Walter LePage, Mrs. Lois Johnson and Mrs. Norman MacLeod served a delicious buffet supper and "sweet sister" gifts were exchanged among the members. #### Tignish CWL Members Are Given Account Of Trip

The regular meeting of the Tignish chapter of the C. W. L. took place Tuesday evening at the Dalton School.

The conveners also gave their reports including Mrs. Evelyn Skerry, church work; Mrs. Howard Harper, magazines; Mrs. Carlisle Trainor, Girl Guides; Mrs. Frank Gaudet, welfare; Mrs. Margaret Shea, hospital aid; Mrs. Thelma Harper, entertainment; publicity, Mrs. Alma McCarman.

Mrs. Margaret Shea read Mrs. Boudreau's report on the provincial conference. The question of school prizes was discussed. The feature of the evening was an interesting talk by Rev. Patrick Walsh of Palmer Road, who warmed his audience with his account of his recent trip to Europe.

Father Walsh visited Ireland, London, Paris, Rome, Lourdes, Milan, Florence and told about attending mass celebrated by His Holiness, Pope John in St. Peter's, and also of saying Mass there himself.

He was present at the opening of the Ecumenical Council where 2,800 Bishops from every part of the world were present. He spoke about the need to learn new languages as the world is getting smaller day by day, and to understand a people, one has to understand its language. "In Europe it is usual to speak three to five and even more languages."

Rev. Father Walsh said in closing that he hoped to go back again and he especially recommends guided tours.

The talk was enjoyed by the members and a vote of thanks was presented to Father Walsh by the President, Mrs. Kougou.

The drawing of the lottery took place and the first prize was won by Mrs. Fred Fitzgerald, second by Miss Jennie Bernard, Nail Pond.

Other smaller prizes were won by the following: Terry Gallant, Nail Pond; Alcide Boudreau, Nail Pond; May McFarlay, Mrs. Zita Morrissey and Sylvester Ardenn.

Mrs. Aubain Bernard showed a picture of Rev. Bishop Neilligan.

Candlelighting Service Is Held

STANHOPE — Under the leadership of Mrs. Rhodes Warren the Stanhope CGIT group presented the annual Christmas Vesper service on Sunday evening.

The solo parts in the chorale reading of the scripture were taken by Heather and Donna Marshall, Betty and Ann Shirley Warren, Ann Misener and Linda Douglas.

The offering was received by Heather Marshall and Betty Warren. This was followed by a duet by Donna Marshall and Ann Misener who sang "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night."

Those taking part in the candlelighting were Betty Warren, Donna and Heather Marshall. The organist Mrs. Warren Marshall accompanied the girls as they sang the anthem "Gentle Mary Laid Her Child."

The meditation was on the theme of the Christmas Story and was read by Mrs. Rhodes Warren.

Rev. R. Baxter gave an inspiring and interesting talk on the work of the CGIT Girls under their leader Mrs. Warren.

After the recessional hymn, "Joy To The World" the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Baxter.

HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gurney of Peakes left yesterday for Waltham, Mass. to visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Robinson. Mr. and Mrs. Gurney expect to spend the winter months in the United States.

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. L.M. MacNaughton, formerly of Tye Valley will regret to learn of the passing of the former's mother in Brooklyn, N.S. on Dec. 11th.

Miss Florence Bryanton is a patient in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, as the result of a fall at her home at Spring Valley when she had the misfortune to break her hip and an elbow.

Mrs. Elmer Parsons, French River, is a patient in the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax.

Mr. James Clark, Kensington who is a patient in the Sanitorium at Saint John, is being transferred this week to the Provincial Sanitorium at Charlottetown.

Edwin Walker and Slavert Huestis of Kelvin and Robert Linkletter of Central Bedouque returned recently from a trip to Boston, New York City and Hartford, Conn. in the U.S.A. and Niagara Falls and Toronto, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green, Central Bedouque, left on Saturday for Hamilton, Ont. to spend Christmas and New Year's with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ian MacFarlane and family and the former's son Alexander Green. They plan to return home early in the new year.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mill, Clermont, was the scene of festivities on Friday night when the people of the community and other relatives and friends gathered to honor their son Gordon, and to welcome his bride, the former Mrs. Rogers of Freton.

The newweds were attended by Mr. and Mrs. James J. O'Brien, brothers-in-law and sister of the groom, and were seated beneath radiating streamers of pink and white while Miss Olive Dalziel played appropriate music. Gail Murphy and Brenda Stafford carried in the parcels, and the ribbons were cut by Mabel Profit and Mrs. William Hudson.

Mrs. Lonnie Webster and Mrs. Clarence Mosse read the gift cards and the many lovely gifts were arranged by Mrs. Kenneth Simmons and Miss Mary Shields. Gordon adequately thanked his friends on behalf of his bride. Lunch was served by the ladies. The remainder of the evening was spent in social chat, and music furnished by Walter Rose. Miss Olive Dalziel and Mrs. Cecil Mill.

CGIT Group Holds Service

KENSINGTON — Valerie Bonness, president, was leader of the C.G.I.T. Vesper Service held in Kensington United Church on Sunday evening.

The service started with a professional to the choir led by the girls and their leaders, singing, "Hark the Glad Sound." This was followed by choral reading by Marieje Paynter, Kathleen Walker led in prayer, and scripture was read by Lorna White.

With lights out, the candlelighting, and the meditation read by Marieje Paynter, made a very effective and impressive service.

Carthagers were Betty MacFadyen, Norma Ramsay and Marlene MacEwen.

The offering was received by Barbara Ann Auld, Lydia Hunter, Diane Wade, Patsy Bonness and Barbara Miller.

The leaders are Mrs. Robert Carruthers, Miss Dorothy MacKenzie, Mrs. Donald Glover and Mrs. James A. Murphy.

The December meeting of the North Wiltshire Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Mitchell and Mrs. Boswell.

The president, Mrs. Cecil Campbell chaired the meeting which opened with the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart sang.

Fourteen members responded to roll call with a gift of 50 for CARE. The secretary gave a report of the supper held recently and reported that she had received $100 prize for the community improvement section of the Rural Beautification Society's contest. The Institute is buying a $5 TB bond and the usual Christmas tree is to be given to the school children.

The members showed their appreciation of the faithful services of the secretary-treasurer of the Institute, Mrs. Bruce Deason who has completed 25 years in office, by presenting her with a suitable gift.

Mrs. Lloyd MacPherson invited the members to her home for the January meeting.

MR. AND MRS. H. HAROLD SINGLETON

Namao, Alta. Is The Scene Of Pretty Wedding Ceremony

A pretty fall wedding was solemnized at the RCAF Protestant Chapel in Namao, Alberta, on November 24, when Mary Arlene Stead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stead, Annandale, P.E.I. became the bride of Henry Harold Lloyd Singleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Singleton, Eldon, P.E.I.

Rev. R.M. Bartlett performed the double ring ceremony and Mrs. B. M. Bartlett supplied the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by Edward Johnston, wore a street length gown of white peau-de-soie, styled with a full skirt and fitted bodice with lily-point sleeves. Her veil was held in place by a crown of rhinestones and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a $11 from the groom.

Miss Lois Smears, friend of the bride, was the maid of honor. She was wearing a street length gown of blue nylon over taffeta with matching headpiece and she carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations. Henry Biddiscombe was the best man. Kenneth Creighton a daniel MacDonald were the ushers.
