Joe Louis To Attend Sports Celebrity Dinner

TORONTO, (CP)—Joe Louis, whose lethal fists made him heavyweight boxing champion of the world for close to 12 years, heads a list of noted athletic figures to attend the March 5 sports celebrity dinner of the Ontario Sports Writers and Sportscasters Association.

Dinner A Sellout

The association announced Tuesday that the dinner will be a great success with the news that the 325-a-plate dinner is a sellout. Close to 600 persons have bought tickets for the affair which serves the double purpose of promoting the country-wide sale of Eastern seals and raising money for the Ontario Society for Crippled Children. All proceeds go to the Society which received $10,000 from the first dinner, a year ago.

The 39-year-old Louis, who ruled as heavyweight champion longer than any predecessor, is one of many big names.

Others from the United States include Willie Hoppe, for years the world billiards king; Otto Graham, quarterback of the Cleveland Browns professional football team; Horton Sijth of the Professional Golfers' Association.

LITTLE SPORT

The Milton Hornets, following their convincing 10-4 win over Cornwall last night, claim they are going all the way to the Island Intermediate title. The Hornets showed enough fight and ability in the third period of last night's game to rate as strong contenders for Provincial honors. There was no holding them after they got the jump on their opponents from Cornwall and Gerald Crews in particular seemed to like the Cornwall defenders. Crews scored four goals within five minutes during the Hornets third period assault and to him must go credit for the most outstanding individual performance of the game.

Actually the whole line of Crews, Andrews and MacLean was very potent for the winners while the other units more than held their own. The Hornets also showed a steady defence headed by veterans Verne Blanchard and Ed Code along with Ralph Crews and Jimmy Moore. They have a capable goalie in Donnie Simmons who didn't have too much work last night. Tonight, however, Simmons may be a busier man, The Hornets play the Parkdale Bombers in the first game of the finals for the Queen's County Intermediate "B" title and Rollie Roberts Parkdale team are fairly well rated, having a strong defence with such players as Ralph Josey and curly Joe Coyle.

The Islanders "Hub" Beaudry, who is probably the hardest working player in the M.M.H.L. and who would be a strong candidate for a Most Valuable Player award if there were such an award may not be making the trip to Halifax today. Beaudry was taken to hospital following Monday night's game here and is suffering from an attack of the flu. Coach Murph Chamberlain was hopeful yesterday that Beaudry would be ready to make the trip today but a check with the hospital early this morning revealed that Beaudry might not be back in action until Friday night's game here.

Beaudry played Monday night's game here with a temperature of over 100. Coach Murph Chamberlain ordered him to see a doctor Monday afternoon but "Hub" refused to in case he would be refused permission to play that night. Despite his illness, however, Beaudry turned in a top notch game and was one of the three top Island forwards on the ice. "If every guy on the club would give the way that Beaudry gives, there's not a team in the League could touch us," stated Chamberlain last night.

Speaking of a Most Valuable Player award we can't think of a man better qualified than Beaudry. His line usually always holds its own in a game that is scores more times than it is scored against. He is used extensively as a penalty killer and nothing need be said about his effectiveness. He has been given the job of playing against the toughest forward lines of the opposition and yet he is about twelfth in the scoring race. In other words he is the type of guy who puts fight and drive into a team and on top of that he keeps himself in perfect condition all the time. Any young fellows aspiring to become athletes would do well to model themselves after Beaudry in the matter of leading an athlete's life.

In speaking of a Most Valuable Player Award we might say that it is one of the things needed to give our League some added color and interest. Actually League officials or others connected with hockey could do worse than innovate such awards for this or another season. The awards might take the same form as those handed out in the Big Leagues and they could carry with them some material reward as well as the honor.

Chuck Holdaway will be in the lineup when the Islanders play tonight but whether Chuck will be used or not is another question. He has been out for more than two weeks with a tonsil operation and was not due back until Friday. However, if Beaudry is unable to make the trip, it is possible that Holdaway will be used in his place. With Beaudry in hospital and Powers in Syracuse, the Islanders centre-ice duties all fall on the shoulders of "Buck" Whitlock.

Milton Hornets Defeat Cornwall Bulldogs 10-4; Advance To 2nd Round

The goal hungry Milton Hornets unleashed a first third period attack last night to wallop the Cornwall Bulldogs 10-4 and advance to the second round of the Queen's County Intermediate "B" playdowns.

The fast skating Hornets eliminated the Bulldogs in two games. The teams played to a 5-5 draw in the opening series game and last night's encounter gave Milton the series 15-9. The Hornets jumped into a 2-0 lead last night and stayed out front for the distance. Cornwall staged a determined rally late in the second period and came within a goal of Hornets as the middle session ended.

Milton increased the lead to 5-3 at the six minute mark of the third period and less than four minutes later the Hornets were back with another goal. From then on Milton took undisputed control.

Gerald Crews was the big gun in the Hornets third period assault as he scored four goals in less than five minutes. MacFarlane scored twice for Milton and single goals were scored by Hollis Jay, Coles, Henry, and L. A. Mervyn Robinson. Lee Taylor, N. Judson and Jack Brown scored for the Bulldogs.

The Hornets will meet the Parkdale Bombers in the finals for the Queen's County Intermediate "B" championship. The first game is scheduled for tonight at North River Rink. Art Perry and John Richard headed last night's game.

Gorgeous Gussy Moran Years For Life Of Amateur

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., (AP)—Gorgeous Gussy Moran, who found her professional tennis career a one-hour affair, sort of years again for the luxurious life of an amateur.

The shapely 28-year-old who gained world-wide publicity when she appeared at Wimbledon a few years back in a tennis attire including lace panties, turned pro in 1950 for a reported $75,000.

But she revealed Tuesday that the tour didn't do as well as expected and she didn't get quite that much—say closer to $50,000. And she hasn't played competitive tennis since except for fun or in charity affairs.

There just aren't enough girls in pro tennis, she explains. She said her standard of living was higher as an amateur.

"But as an amateur you didn't make any money, did you?" she was asked in a recent television appearance.

"That's right, but you do travel all over the world. You know you go to India and every place. And of course you don't pay for it yourself. The Tennis Associations do. And then you always sort of... you know, you sort of get things under the table."

Tuesday Gussy was asked to elaborate on the statement.

"There are lots of little devious ways to pick up a buck," she replied. "When you make a trip, such as one I made to India, you get round-trip tickets plus tickets between individual cities. Those tickets sometimes overlap and could be cashed in."

"When some of the top players make personal appearances, they have been known to get considerations anywhere from $50 to $350."

Suspend Chuck Davey's Manager And Trainer

CHICAGO, (AP)—Boxer Chuck Davey's manager, Hector Knowles and trainer Issy Kline were suspended for 30 days by the Illinois Athletic Commission Tuesday for "loose talk" after the Davey-Gavilan fight Feb. 11.

The commission made its decision after reports were published that Davey was not in good physical condition for the welterweight title bout with Kid Gavilan.

Gavilan was awarded the bout on a technical knockout after Davey failed to answer the 10th-round bell.

Knowles had appeared before the commission Feb. 16 and testified that "I may have said that Davey three weeks previously had a slight cold." But he added that Davey was "in excellent shape" for the fight.

Kline conceded that "I might have said something after the fight," but added that "I don't remember alibing for Davey's defeat."
