

4 N.S. Lumbermen Die In Collision On Blind Hill

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (CP) — A coroner's jury adjourned Tuesday until Aug. 29 after viewing the remains of four men who died when a car and two-ton army truck collided in darkness on a blind hill.

The vehicles met head on early Tuesday, killing four Nova Scotia lumbermen and seriously injuring another. The driver of the truck, Pte. George MacSween of Sydney, was also hurt but not seriously.

Dead are: John William Grant, 33, of Antigonish; Everett G. Gilbert, 66, Canada; Roy Parsons, 33, Parrsboro, and Lewis King Pettigrew, 32, Harrison Settlement.

The driver of the car, Albert Ellis, 50, Parrsboro, is in critical condition in hospital here. The nature of his injuries has not been disclosed. Pte. MacSween is being treated for a broken back.

Coroner H. A. Myer of Amherst visited the accident scene at the top of a hill near Mapleton, about 12 miles south of here on Route 2, the main Halifax-Moncton highway.

NEAR DESTINATION

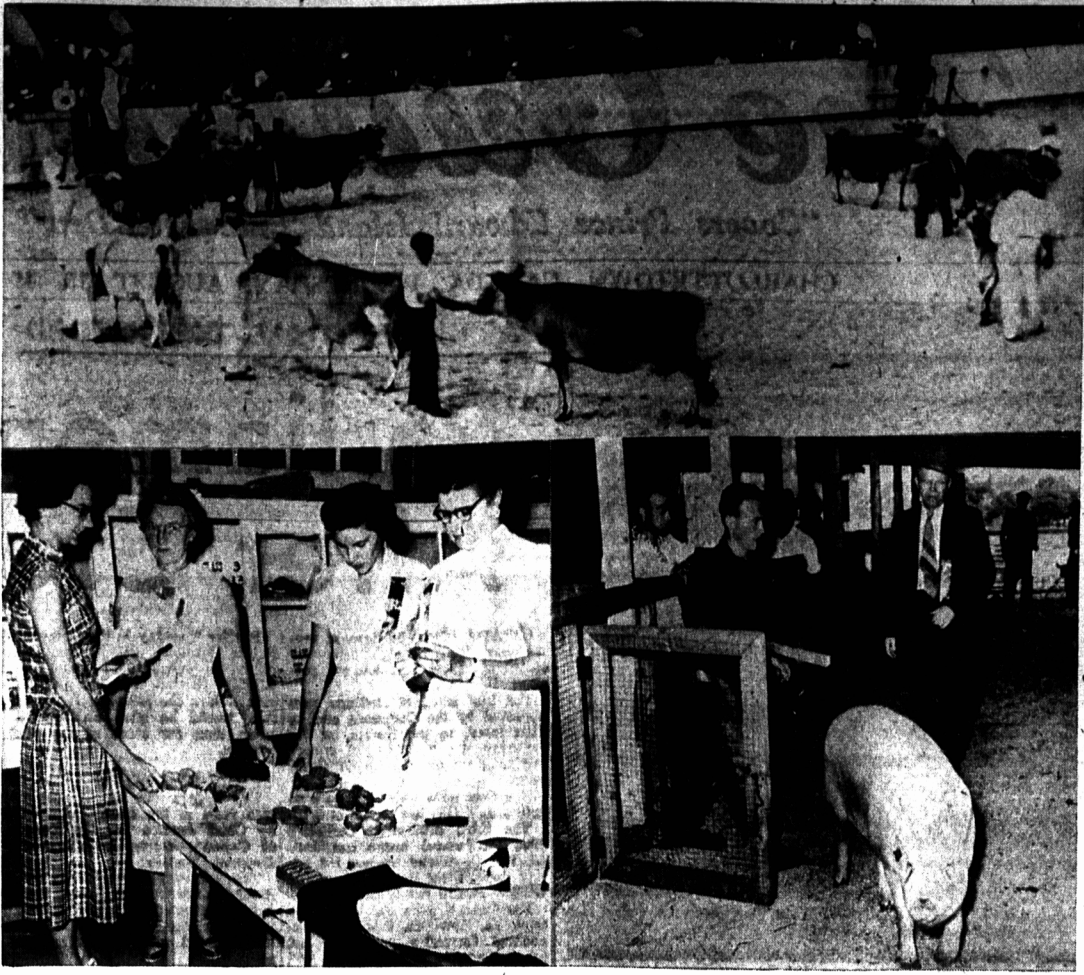

All five men in the car were bound for a lumber camp at Southbrook, where they worked, after spending a day at old home week celebrations in Parrsboro. They were only a few miles from their destination when the accident occurred.

The first doctor to reach the scene said the four men died almost instantly.

RCMP said the vehicles met with a terrific impact. The car was demolished. Pte. MacSween's truck, bound for Debert, N.S., with a load of gasoline and fuel oil, was badly smashed but did not burn.

Pte. MacSween was driving his truck in a convoy of military vehicles from Camp Gagetown, N.B. His was apparently the last truck in the convoy. The other convoy drivers were waiting for him at Parrsboro when they heard of the accident.

Fine Display By Army Show Team

Attracting many visitors at the Exhibition is the outdoor display of the Canadian Army with its show team from Eastern Command, Halifax, headed by Lieut. G. F. Tebbets. Feature attraction is a 25-pounder gun with its ammunition carrier.

The troops in area is surrounded with the flags of all NATO countries while the large tent is equipped with a movie projector which shows pictures of all phases of Army life.

Accompanying Lt. Tebbets are Sergeants Sibley, Power, Giles, McGeen, MacIntosh and MacKenzie.

Spraying Stressed In Potato Bulletin

The weather during the past week has been less favourable to late blight disease and, in most areas, the disease situation has changed but slightly, states the weekly Potato bulletin issued by the Science Service Laboratory. However, because the disease occurred unusually early, and because of its general distribution, there should be no curtailment of the spray schedule.

In many fields now the tops are quite heavy, and many growers, especially those with older equipment, are finding it difficult to cover the foliage. Some of these growers have met the problem by spraying both up and down the rows.

Aphid populations are building up rapidly and some damage has been seen in certain fields. Second brood flea beetles should appear during the next week. Use Malathion to control the aphids and DDT for flea beetles.

Will Visit Ch'town On Students' Tour

A group of 16 students from secondary schools in Toronto are enroute to the Maritimes on a "Travel as an Education" tour. They will arrive in Moncton tomorrow on the first leg of their trip.

The boys are travelling in a special C.N.R. sleeping car which will be their home for the two weeks they are away. They are expected to visit Quebec, Halifax, Sydney, Moncton, Charlottetown and Montreal. It is the tenth annual tour of this type and is designed to give students an opportunity to see industry and natural resources and make them more appreciative of the greatness and historical background of Canada. Students selected are chosen on the basis of scholastic ability, personality, citizenship and extracurricular activities. The tour is being conducted under the auspices of the Toronto Board of Education and T. Eaton Company who are joint sponsors.

Mr. Willard Burke, of the Burke Electric Company, has purchased the brick building on Kent St. near the corner of Queen Street from the estate of the late Mr. W. Chester S. McLure. The building was built about twenty-five years ago by Mr. McLure, with office quarters and showroom facilities.

The ground floor is presently occupied as a barber shop and also a tailoring establishment.

A two storey brick structure with a frontage of 34 feet on Kent St., the building has a depth of 30 feet to the rear.

Salvaging Lands Ravaged By Fire

BEAVERLODGE, (CP)—Scientists at the experimental farm in this Peace River region are trying to salvage forest lands ravaged by fire.

Following five years of experiments, two agronomists, C. H. Anderson and C. R. Elliott, say they have discovered it is not only possible to prevent undue soil erosion but that burned-over lands also can be developed into pastureland or game reserves.

Mr. Anderson, who specializes in soil fertility, and Mr. Elliott, in charge of forage crop investigations, started their studies in the late fall of 1950 after fires had destroyed large forest areas in the Peace River region. The soil was covered with ash from one to three inches deep.
