Saunders Family Hold Reunion

A happy reunion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Saunders, Kensington, when their daughter Doris, accompanied by her husband F. S. Mervin E. Kahle and their three children Jimmy, Patsy and Cathy arrived home from a four-year posting in Germany and France. Their son James who is an intern at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Halifax, and his wife and young daughter Susan, arrived on the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kahle while in Europe spent their vacations travelling, and had, the opportunity of visiting the important centers there. They speak highly of the friendliness and hospitality of the European people and were greatly impressed with London and noted the warm greetings extended Canadian visitors. They were very happy to have the pleasure of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Harold of Cambridge who befriended so many of our Island boys during the second World War. The Harold son, and Joe Ready of Kensington, victims of the war, lie side by side in a cemetery near the Harold home.

Their visit to Italy was of special interest to them; spending several days in the ancient City of Rome. Sgt. Kahle was greatly impressed with Denmark and Holland. The intensified faming followed in Denmark was an inspiration to him. Holland happy and prosperous, several feet below Sea level, protected by ditches and dams, the principal one being the Zuider Zee causeway holding at bay the water of the North Sea.

The Kahles had the unique experience of driving on this causeway, a distance of seventeen miles. Sgt. Kahle in conversation with the promoters of this work, reports that in their opinion, a causeway between Prince Edward Island and the mainland should offer no serious difficulties.

While in Scotland, Mrs. Kahle visited the ancestral home of her mother.

An interesting feature of their visit home was the showing of some 1200 slides portraying many of the scenic and historical points in the various European countries. F. S. Kahle has now been posted to Trenton, Ont.
