Mrs. F. Douglas Henderson is featured by Jean Woodoll of the Minneapolis Star. The article is as follows: "Serenity is the word one must use to describe Mrs. F. Douglas Henderson, wife of the headmaster of Brock school. Incidents that would strike terror to the heart of many other homemakers are just 'fun' to Mrs. Henderson. The Rev. Henderson, she explains with a smile, has the habit of inviting guests for dinner, lunch or overnight without warning her. This causes her no consternation whatsoever, says Mrs. Henderson, because she is as pleased to see old friends or meet new ones that she couldn't be upset. Besides, she has learned to keep a well-stocked larder of simple foods. At one gathering for 84 she had expected 100 on some Sunday, the bottom of the punch bowl dropped a right out leaving the refreshments on the carpet and the guests in a state of shock. That Mrs. Henderson can tell of the incident — and chuckle! gives an indication of her composure and sense of humor. The Hendersons have guests for small, medium and large dinners. There are average house guests at least once a week. She can get a steak dinner for 36 with no outside help — without becoming either nervous or tired and still find time to enjoy the party herself. A Henderson rule of the house for guests don't fuss over them. Let them have a good time. Mrs. Henderson somewhat reluctantly confesses that the hostess enjoys most of all is preparing and wallpapering and source of frustration for her is that their home at 1269 W. Minnehaha parkway had been completely redecorated when they moved in. The urge to "do over" probably is acquired by clergywomen's wives who move about a good deal, thinks Mrs. Henderson. At any rate her eyes gladden with anticipation as she speculates about when she might be justified in starting in again. The former Nevada Haywood, Mrs. Henderson is a native of Prince Edward Island, Canada, where she met her husband. They were married after his ordination into the ministry and had their first parish on the island. One of Mrs. Henderson's fondest memories is traveling with horse and sleigh to Christmas eve services on the island under a gentle snowfall. The rectory there had no electricity and the horse was their only transportation. He pulled a sleigh in summer, the sled in winter. And during Lent, which usually came during the muddy season, Mr. Henderson went to services astride the animal to avoid becoming splattered. ### MR. AND MRS. VERNON JOSEPH WOOD

St. Alexis Church Is Scene Of Pretty Wedding

A very beautiful wedding, attended by a wide circle of friends and relatives was solemnized at St. Alexis Church, Rolle Bay, on Wednesday, Nov. 20th, when Margaret Faye MacKinnon exchanged vows with Vernon Joseph Wood. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh John MacKinnon. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Joseph Wood. Rev. Wilfred Keefe celebrated the nuptial Mass, and performed the double ring ceremony. Rev. George MacDonald was also present in the sanctuary. The altar and sanctuary were beautifully decorated with red roses and ferns. Bows of
